New Statue of Saint Francis of Assisi with the Skull:

The following is a brief explanation of the Skull: St. Francis of Assisi is often represented with a skull at his feet because, like Shakespeare's Hamlet, he constantly contemplated death. St. Francis knew well before his death that he would die from the wounds of the Stigmata that he was to receive. More generally speaking, the skull in Christianity, as well as Catholicism, represents man's triumph over death.

Byron Saunders Foundation, Brian Wollenberg's Group, purchases and puts together baskets of Thanksgiving dinners, consisting of Turkey, vegetables rolls, pie, etc., basically all the trimmings. This year, he is falling short on Mashed Potatoes. If you could purchase instant mashed potatoes or when we get closer to Thanksgiving a 5# bag of fresh potatoes would be great. Landa Brunetto will collect the items to be taken to the basket-making committee. We want to continue the hard work Brian Wollenberg has carried on for years, in creating memorable dinners for all. You can also contribute cash; just mark on the envelope "Turkey Dinners," and we will make sure the committee gets the money.
