DANIEL 3:52B

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY
JUNE 7, 2020

From the Deacon's Desk Dear friends in Christ,

One of the greatest of the Greek philosophers, Aristotle, famously said that human beings are political animals. By that, he didn't mean that we all belong to political parties or have certain ideologies. In his terms, Aristotle meant that we are designed to live in community. He thought that the basic unit of human society was the family. By this, he felt that as human beings, we must flourish in some basic form of community. We learn by imitating others and being taught by others. We love telling stories, we have a need to create, and we build and trade. Even the hermit, living in a hut in the forest, can only be solitary because he or she first belonged to a community – the human family.

As we celebrate Trinity Sunday, we know that we see in the Trinity a great mystery that is revealed in the relationship of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. The Trinity is the basic reality of Christian faith, revealed by God in person, Jesus Christ, through His life, death and resurrection. The Trinity offers new pathways for us to reflect on God's love for us, draw us into intimate, dynamic and life-changing relationship.

Humans are social and rational beings because we are made in the image of the Holy Trinity. This saving truth is shown to us through the incarnation of the divine word – Jesus – who by His passion, death and resurrection, Jesus communicated the divine life to us. By the gift of the Holy Spirit, the Trinity dwells within us. We are made for communion – communion with each other – and communion with God.

May we be renewed by the truth, grace and peace of the holy and undivided Trinity and spread these gifts to our world.

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us!
Have a good week,
Deacon Frank

Statement from Bishop Brennan on the Death of George Floyd:

The events surrounding the death of Mr. George Floyd in Minneapolis are deeply troubling for all people, causing unrest and anger. The feelings surrounding this situation and others like it are justified, and there are so many ways those feelings and thoughts can and should be voiced. We are blessed to live in a nation that affords us the right to express ourselves, but the violent protests that have occurred in Columbus and elsewhere only bring additional harm to innocent persons and to business owners, so many of whom have suffered during the Coronavirus pandemic. They represent a participation in the toxic cloud of stereotypical judgement which such protests rightly seek to condemn.

Mr. Floyd's death calls for an honest self-examination on the part of all of us that seeks to identify sinful attitudes and judgments that must be remedied. Laws and policies must do more to protect the fundamental rights of those at risk.

I recognize, also, that most in our law enforcement community are very good people who find these situations abhorrent and have a strong reaction against what has happened. They, too, share in the call for investigation and action to prevent these situations from occurring again. I thank them for their service and willingness to risk their wellbeing to help assure the common good.

As people of faith in God, we must be totally committed to eradicating racism and encouraging all our neighbors to peace toward people of every race, creed, and color. The path of peace will lead us toward bringing an end to everything that is contradictory to the call to love God and neighbor. I invite all in our community here in Central Ohio to join together in this effort to forge a path built with the pavers of justice and reverence for every human life toward a harmony that allows us to enjoy a peaceful future for our children and for all ages to come.

Welcome back to Mass!

Please be respectful of social distancing and all COVID-19 safety precautions while attending Mass today. We must work together to ensure St. John's is as safe as possible for all in attendance.

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: The month of June is dedicated to The Sacred Heart of Jesus. This month falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of June 2020:
We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity: Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's ascension, the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler.

God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. Whoever believes in Him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.
