ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 20, 2020

From the Deacon's DeskDear friends in Christ,

Last week, I received a note from Bishop Brennan that he will be here to celebrate Mass with all of us on Sunday, October 11th at 9:30 a.m. As many of our faithful parishioners may know, that would have been the weekend of our annual Columbus Italian Festival. For so many years, it has taken place here on the campus of Saint John the Baptist. Due to the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, The Festival Executive Board very wisely had to cancel the Festival. All around us many different events in our lives have also been either canceled or postponed in order to keep ourselves and each other safe and healthy.

One of the events our parish had to postpone was the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation for ten of our young men and women who have been preparing since last year. Bishop Brennan mentioned that he would be honored to celebrate Confirmation with our young people that weekend. I, along with the families of our Confirmandi, were delighted when we received the news. What a wonderful way to experience the presence of the Holy Spirit during the weekend that we normally would be celebrating our Italian Heritage. To have these ten young men and women complete their Sacraments of Initiation on that day is truly a blessing and gift from God.

There will be more information about the celebration in the weeks to come but I do want you to be aware that we realize that seating will be limited in the church that day due to the reserved seating we will have for the Confirmandi, their sponsors, and their immediate family. We hope to add a few extra seats in the Chapel, as well as livestream the Mass in Marrapese Hall for any overflow. However, if you feel that it will be too crowded or too much, I encourage you to feel free to attend Mass at another Catholic Church nearby. I will make sure we begin to publish the Mass schedules around Center City Columbus and the Short North for your convenience.

Finally, I am grateful to Mr. John Contino, Mr. Vince DePaoli and Mr. Bob Contino for their guidance and patience in working as the catechists for these fine young men and women. But, most importantly, on this Catechetical Sunday, we thank family members, preachers, teachers, RCIA teams, and others who bring the Good News to us. May we all be an example by the way we live our Roman Catholic faith to help teach others by what we say and do in Christ Jesus, Our Lord.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us!
Have a safe and blessed week,
Deacon Frank

Dear St. John Parishioners, join me periodically on St. Brigid of Kildare Parish livestream. If you missed it, the videos are available at St. Brigid YouTube channel and St. Brigid of Kildare Facebook page.

Bishop's Annual Appeal: The theme of the Bishop's Annual Appeal, "Living the Joy of the Gospel," inspires us, as people of faith, to share joyfully the Good News of Christ to those who most need to feel His love as we continue His work on earth as faithful disciples. The Appeal makes possible the many good works facilitated by the Office of Social Concerns and the Office of Marriage and Family Life, contributes to the education of our future priests and deacons, and supports the education of our young people in their faith. Our BAA parish goal is $18,752.04. Total pledges to date are $14,170.00. Thank you for your generosity to our parish and the diocese.

PAVERS: The front Pavilion of St. John's church is covered with Pavers. These Pavers are available for purchase and engraving in remembrance of family members and loved ones. For more information, please call the office of St. John's at 614-294-5319.

AROUND US

Sunday Mass Dispensation Extended Indefinitely: The dispensation from the Sunday Mass obligation granted by Bishop Robert Brennan, which was to last at least through Sunday, September 13, has been extended indefinitely, in keeping with the indefinite dispensation throughout the rest of the Catholic Conference of Ohio.

Red Mass: Wednesday, October 7, 2020 at 5:30 p.m. at Saint Joseph Cathedral. Monsignor Stephan J. Moloney will be the homilist. The event will be broadcast via livestream; please encourage your parishioners to join the event online.

Family Rosary Day: Sunday, October 11, 2020 at 3:00 p.m. at Saint Joseph Cathedral. The event will be broadcast via livestream; please encourage your parishioners to join the event online.

Season of Hope Monthly Topic: Fostering Hope Through Listening. In order to overcome a poverty of hope that is experienced by many of our brothers and sisters during these challenging times, the Diocesan HOPE Task Force has developed a bulletin insert and homily helps on the topic of fostering hope through the art of listening. For additional resources, visit www.columbuscatholic.org/season-of-hope.

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is the USCCB’s teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics in light of the upcoming election on November 3. Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is available online with a new Introductory Note. Supplemental resources such as a video, bulletin insert summaries Part 1 and Part 2, and do’s and don’ts guidelines are also available at www.faithfulcitizenship.org. The Catholic Conference of Ohio has also made resources available about polling times, absentee ballots, etc., at www.ohiocathconf.org.

The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette will preach the annual parish mission appeal

Having brought the fullness of Life to our world when He rose from the dead, Jesus sent his disciples to share this life with all of creation. “They went forth and preached everywhere” (Mk 16:20). The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette minister to people of every race, language, culture and way of life – beginning at the La Salette Shrine in France, where our Blessed Mother appeared in 1846. Her final words, “Well, my children, you will make this known to all my people,” echo Jesus’ Gospel mandate. It is little wonder that the La Salette Congregation has always been mission orientated. When called upon by the Vatican to preach the Gospel in foreign lands, they eagerly responded. This spirit brought them to mission in 27 countries, especially among the poor in Angola, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Haiti, India, Madagascar, Myanmar, Namibia, the Philippines, Tanzania and most recently, Mozambique. With your cooperation, the Missionaries of La Salette can continue to provide spiritual and financial assistance to these mission countries as they bring God’s reconciling message to the poor.

Local Funds for Hunger Programs: CRS Rice Bowl grants are still available for pantries and schools providing food during the COVID-19 pandemic. Most diocesan pantries already have received $6,000.00. For the application, go to <https://columbuscatholic.org/catholic-relief-services> (ignore the deadline date and amount restrictions). For more information, contact Erin Cordle to discuss needs at 614-570-2950 (cell) or email her. Applications should be sent to ecordle@columbuscatholic.org.

Building a Culture of Life Series takes place in October, which is Respect Life Month. Join us for an extraordinary virtual series. Topics include: “Raising the Next Pro-Life Generation,” “Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service,” and “Making End of Life Decisions.” Bishop Brennan will conclude the series with a Respect Life Mass. This is sponsored by diocesan offices Social Concerns and Marriage & Family Life Office, as well as by Greater Columbus Right to Life. There is no cost. To register and for speaker details, visit www.bclclife.

Marriage and Family Life Office Jubilee of Marriage Anniversaries Mass:
The Jubilee of Anniversaries 2020 will take place on Sunday, October 25, at St. Paul the Apostle Church in Westerville. Bishop Brennan will celebrate Mass at 2:30 p.m. (there will not be a reception this year due to the pandemic). Please notify and encourage your parishioners who are celebrating significant wedding anniversaries (25th, 30th, 35th, 40th, 45th, 50th, 55th, 60th, and every year thereafter) to register. All registered couples, whether attending or not, will receive a personalized certificate in the mail. The Mass will also be live streamed for family members and couples who prefer to attend virtually.

Resources on the Death Penalty and Restorative Justice: In a new video, Archbishop Joseph F. Naumann of Kansas City shares his personal story of his father’s murder and compassionately advocates for the families of murder victims and the abolition of the death penalty.

Natural Family Planning Options for Marriage Preparation
 Diocesan marriage preparation policy requires that all couples preparing for marriage attend an introductory presentation on Natural Family Planning. Fulfillment of this includes both education and pastoral care.

- Marriage Preparation programs recommended by the Marriage and Family Life Office, e.g. Joy-Filled Marriage, Witness to Love, and new parish Pre-Cana model, already INCLUDE an educational presentation on NFP.
- Optionally, Virtual one-on-one introductory NFP sessions may be scheduled by engaged/married couples via <https://www.picktime.com/marriageandfamilylife>. This presentation explains the differences between different NFP methods and connects couples to local and online teachers.
- The Marriage and Family Life NFP pages provide a listing of Virtual NFP Classes in a variety of methods and additional resources for parishes. Please contact Jennifer at jfullin@columbuscatholic.org if you have any questions about any of these options.

“Brothers and sisters: Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain. If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. And I do not know which I shall choose. I am caught between the two. I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit.”

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Grow your faith

Who gave you your first God lessons? On this Catechetical Sunday, we thank family members, preachers, teachers, RCIA teams, and others who brought the Good News to us. We're also grateful for holy ones, like Venerable Mother Theresa Dudzik, who taught by their example. A remarkable seamstress, Dudzik arrived in Chicago at age 21 after the Great Fire of 1871. She took the destitute into her apartment and sewed to earn money to feed them. In time she founded the Franciscan Sisters of Chicago to run homes, schools, day-care centers, and an orphanage. What will your own example teach others?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:6-9; Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a; Matthew 20:1-16a (133). "Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near."

Monday, Sep 21, 2020

FEAST OF MATTHEW, APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST

Rise up

Nobody likes paying taxes or has warm, fuzzy feelings about the IRS, but it seems tax collectors in Jesus' time had it especially rough—being lumped in with all manner of sinners. That is because tax collectors were Jews who worked for the Romans, the enemy occupiers of Jewish lands, so they were viewed as traitors by their people. Jesus sought them out for salvation anyway and led Matthew to a new position: apostle and evangelist. What does it take to get a promotion like that? Merely "get up and follow Jesus," as Matthew did.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:9-13 (643). "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."

Tuesday, Sep 22, 2020

Trade stressed for blessed

Back-to-school September is such a stressful time for families. Add the reality of COVID-19—with parents trying to work from home, kids' schedules often up in the air—and it gets all the messier. Even if you don't have children at home, you probably know people who do and are stressing. How can we all find balance? Honor the sabbath in whatever way you are able, by hitting the pause button—even for a few hours. "Human life has a rhythm of work and rest," says the Catechism of the Catholic Church. "The institution of the Lord's Day helps everyone enjoy adequate rest and leisure to cultivate their familial, cultural, social, and religious lives." Plan ahead for this coming Sunday.

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 21:1-6, 10-13; Luke 8:19-21 (450). "To do what is right and just is more acceptable to the LORD."

Wednesday, Sep 23, 2020

MEMORIAL OF PIUS OF PIETRELCINA, PRIEST

Listen from the heart

Saint Pius of Pietrelcina (1887-1968) is better known by his nickname, Padre Pio. He is said to have borne the stigmata, the wounds of our Lord, for more than 50 years. To be sure, he was a man of prayer and suffering, a Capuchin Franciscan priest who lived in a small Italian friary nearly all of his life. However, the principal reason for his local fame was his ability to listen to those who came seeking his counsel, to "read their hearts" and to offer them the love of God in the sacraments. His frequent message to penitents, "Pray, hope, and don't worry," is a message for us to treasure and savor today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 30:5-9; Luke 9:1-6 (451). "He sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God."

Thursday, Sep 24, 2020

Find the balance between law and freedom

Today's gospel notes King Herod's interest in Jesus, whom Herod likely saw as a threat. The tension between political power and the moral and religious power of Christianity has been part of the faith since its beginning. In Dignitatis Humane, the Vatican II document on religious liberty, the Council "urges everyone, especially those who are charged with the task of educating others, to do their utmost to form people who, on the one hand, will respect the moral order and be obedient to lawful authority, and on the other hand, will be lovers of true freedom." Sounds like a recipe for peace and progress.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 1:2-11; Luke 9:7-9 (452). "But Herod said, 'John I beheaded. Who then is this about whom I hear such things?'"

Friday, Sep 25, 2020

Keep the faith!

The coronavirus has taken quite a toll on Catholic parish and sacramental life. Nearly every bishop responding to a recent survey said the pandemic has seriously affected the celebration of the sacraments and rites and sacramental preparation programs in their dioceses. In addition, they report that the morale of priests, lay ecclesial ministers, deacons, and chancery staff has been damaged by the long shutdown, according to a survey out of Georgetown University. People are hurting at all levels of church life because the very thing we thrive on—gathering together—has become problematic and potentially life-threatening. Be patient and work with your local faith community to find safe and creative pastoral responses. And keep faith alive in your own home and heart!

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 3:1-11; Luke 9:18-22 (453). "There is . . . a time for everything under the heavens . . . a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces."

Saturday, Sep 26, 2020

MEMORIAL OF COSMAS AND DAMIAN, MARTYRS

Saints for this season

Today's brother physicians are patron saints to a long list of healthcare workers, and also against plagues. A brief year ago, biblical references to plagues and epidemics seemed quaint and far removed. Our eyes have been opened to the enduring force of such outbreaks, however, and Cosmas and Damian truly become saints for our time. Perhaps even more so when we learn they were Arab physicians from the area now called Syria. Healing role models come from all backgrounds. Thank the frontline healthcare workers in your own town. They are likely from diverse backgrounds as well.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 11:9-12:8; Luke 9:43b-45 (454). "Fill us at daybreak with your kindness."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
