OCTOBER 4, 2020 | 27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CATHOLIC CHURCH

From the Deacon's DeskDear friends in Christ,

Wow! What a difference a year makes for all of us, doesn't it?

As you know the pandemic restrictions has caused us to cancel the 2020 41st Annual Columbus Italian Festival. This week our campus should be "buzzing with excitement" as the tents, tables, chairs, musical stage, Italian cultural displays, promotions, vendors, etc. would all be in the process of setting up and taking place. The fabulous aromas of so much Italian food, wine and song will be missed. However, the Italian Festival Executive Board met this last week and the plans are in the works for our 2021 Festival scheduled once again on the Saint John the Baptist grounds the week of October 4-10, 2021.

Next Sunday, we are honored to have Bishop Brennan for Mass and celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation for ten of our young people. That celebration was to take place last May, but it too had to be postponed until now. Bishop Brennan felt he wanted to honor his commitment by being with all of us in the Italian Catholic Community since he was originally scheduled to celebrate the Sunday Mass at the Italian Festival.

Also, this Sunday afternoon, I am excited to welcome Father Antonio Kim, the Chaplain of the Korean Catholic Community, who will now be residing in our rectory and having weekly Friday evening and Sunday afternoon Masses spoken in Korean. Many members of the Korean Catholic Community will be using our church and, eventually, Sala Hall, to hold small faith community events. Their meetings will not take place for another few weeks until they get situated. There are about 100-150 members of the Korean Catholic Community throughout the Diocese of Columbus.

Finally, the focus of our Scripture readings this weekend is that nothing we have is truly our own. As humans, we can be possessive of our worldly goods and take credit for our talents. Yet, everything we have is a gift from God – even the work we do to earn our living is done through the energy and talents that God gave to us. Like the tenants in today's Gospel, we owe everything to God, our divine Landlord.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us!

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

Total pledges to date are $14,170.00. Thank you for your generosity to our parish and the diocese.

The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette will preach the annual parish mission appeal

Having brought the fullness of Life to our world when He rose from the dead, Jesus sent his disciples to share this life with all of creation. "They went forth and preached everywhere" (Mk 16:20). The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette minister to people of every race, language, culture and way of life – beginning at the La Salette Shrine in France where our Blessed Mother appeared in 1846. Her final words, "Well, my children, you will make this known to all my people," echo Jesus' Gospel mandate. It is little wonder that the La Salette Congregation has always been mission orientated. When called upon by the Vatican to preach the Gospel in foreign lands, they eagerly responded. This spirit brought them to mission in 27 countries, especially among the poor in Angola, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Haiti, India, Madagascar, Myanmar, Namibia, the Philippines, Tanzania and most recently, Mozambique. With your cooperation, the Missionaries of La Salette can continue to provide spiritual and financial assistance to these mission countries as they bring God's reconciling message to the poor.

To register and for speaker details, visit www.bclclife.

All registered couples, whether attending or not, will receive a personalized certificate in the mail. The Mass will also be live-streamed for family members and couples who prefer to attend virtually.

- The Marriage and Family Life NFP pages provide a listing of Virtual NFP Classes in a variety of methods and additional resources for parishes. Please contact Jennifer at jfullin@columbuscatholic.org if you have any questions about any of these options.

Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit" (Mt 21:42-43).

Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, who in the abundance of Your kindness surpass the merits and the desires of those who entreat You, pour out Your mercy upon us to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Celebrate the joy of new life

In a happy collision of observances, October is dedicated to respecting life, supporting fair trade, employing the differently abled, and praying the Rosary. Today is not only Respect Life Sunday but also, in memory of Francis of Assisi, an occasion to bless the animals who share our lives. If you're seeking an integrated moral code, here's your chance to champion the spectrum of life. The Rosary's Joyful Mysteries lead the way: embrace new life, encourage mothers, support child-affirming laws, recognize the gifts of all God's children, and respect the wisdom of young people.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 5:1-7; Philippians 4:6-9; Matthew 21:33-43 (139). "Finally, [the landowner] sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.'"

MEMORIAL OF BLESSED FRANCIS XAVIER SEELOS, PRIEST

A saint for this season

As we've lately learned, it's hard to be happy during a health crisis, but Redemptorist Father Francis Xavier Seelos was called the "Cheerful Ascetic," even while serving the sick during a disease outbreak. Known for his kindness and missionary zeal, this German-born priest kept his sermons simple for everyone to understand and was sought out as a compassionate confessor. He was an itinerant preacher throughout the Eastern and Midwestern United States, before being sent to New Orleans where he died of yellow fever. Those seeking healing can submit their prayer petition to the National Shrine of Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 1:6-12; Luke 10:25-37 (461). "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart . . . and your neighbor as yourself."

MEMORIAL OF BLESSED MARIE ROSE DUROCHER, VIRGIN

When Mary receives a Martha job

Jesus said his friend Mary was right to cease activity, to simply sit at his feet and listen. But the church may ask you to be more like Martha—to reach out to the world, as Jesus also called on his followers to do. Such was the dilemma of Marie Rose Durocher. This quiet and frail young woman preferred the quiet life but was pressed into pastoral service by her brother, a Montreal priest in the 1830s. Then her bishop asked her to start a new religious community to help educate the young. How is God asking you to move beyond your own comfort zone today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 1:13-24; Luke 10:38-42 (462). "A woman whose name was Martha welcomed him."

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

Protect us from harm

The Rosary has been a favored Catholic form of prayer for centuries. Inviting us to pray five Our Fathers, 50 Hail Marys, and five Glory Be's while meditating on gospel stories from Mary's and Jesus' lives, this spiritual practice has helped generations of Catholics ask for Mary's intercession. In October 1571, Catholic soldiers prayed the Rosary to prepare for battle with Turkish soldiers in the Gulf of Corinth. When they won that battle, Pope Pius V claimed that October 7 would be known as the Feast of

Our Lady of Victory. Two years later, his successor, Gregory XIII, changed the name to the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. As our world faces the challenge of the COVID-19 virus, we again ask for Mary's intercession. Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 2:1-2, 7-14; Luke 11:1-4 (463). "Jesus was praying in a certain place."

Persistence pays off

Prayer is not like an ATM whereby requests are entered and dispensed. Ultimately our model is Jesus. Christ's persistence in prayer united him with God but did not erase his suffering. He sweated blood, he was crucified. When we do not receive the answer we are hoping for to our prayer request, we may suffer too, but, like Jesus, we can open ourselves to deeper union with God. Take time today to offer God your needs, trusting that God's strength and presence always suffices.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:1-5; Luke 11:5-13 (464). "If you . . . give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

God casts out evil

Although Hollywood has popularized exorcism with such movies as The Exorcist (1973) and more recently The Conjuring series, exorcism is a legitimate rite in the church. An exorcism is actually a form of prayer. It is used in situations where the faithful experience a force of evil or the "powers of darkness," which we call the devil or demons. Recognizing the place of exorcism in the prayers of the church is important because it reminds us that God has already freed us from the snare of evil. As you encounter various "demons" in your life, remember to pray: Call upon God to be with you and to separate you from all that is evil and to surround you with God's love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:7-14; Luke 11:15-26 (465). "But if it is by the finger of God that [I] drive out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you."

Put on your dancing shoes!

On this day, the Jewish community celebrates Simchat Torah. This joyous harvest festival marks the beginning and end of the annual Torah reading, and culminates in dancing with the sacred texts. In a similar sense of celebration, Jesus says to his disciples, "Blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it." Choose scripture as your companion, and get ready to shimmy, shake, rock and roll, and trip the light fantastic all for the greater glory of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:22-29; Luke 11:27-28 (466). "And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise."
