NOVEMBER 1, 2020 | SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk*Dear friends in Christ,*

In 1969, when astronauts Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin stepped out onto the surface of the moon, the universe seemed smaller and history was made. I was only 16 years old at the time and looking at the first pictures of the earth from the moon, like so many people, I had a sense of awe and wonder at God's beautiful creation.

The first Boeing 747 jet flight also happened in 1969. Since then, people travel by plane to work; escape persecution from another country; and, those who can afford it, go on holiday by jet plane without thinking anything different. Flights have made it possible to go on pilgrimage to holy places which were only dreams of the past. Many people have an innate desire to see and touch the holy and are fascinated by the relics of those who lived before us. We know them as All Saints and All Souls. These experiences deepen our appreciation of the gift of God's creation and the wonder of the human person called to become a saint.

While Baptism is the beginning of the Christian life, it is also a calling to become a saint. Each of us has a personal calling from God to be followed. For most people it is living out love in family life, in the everyday relationships of looking after children, loving one's husband or wife, and having time for aging and elderly parents. For some it is a calling of service to the diaconate, priesthood, the consecration of religious life. and for others a committed single life which reaches out to others. God's call is always a call to go beyond ourselves in love.

As St. John Henry Newman said, "God has created me to do him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which he has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next."

Walking by faith and led by God's kindly light we can become SAINTS.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us!

Happy All Saints Day and All Souls Day,

Deacon Frank

Book of Remembrance of the Dead

Each Year we begin the month of November by celebrating the Feast of All Saints and All Souls. Traditionally, we place the Book of the Remembrance of the Dead in our church. I have placed the names of all those who have been buried here from our parish at Saint John the Baptist since last year in our book that is now located in front of the beautiful Madonna Mosaic as you enter the Baptismal Chapel. Please feel free to inscribe the names of anyone you wish to remember and light a small vigil candle in their memory. If you are not attending Mass due to the pandemic restriction, you may call the parish office at 614-294-5319 and we will inscribe the name and light a candle for you. You can also email Vicky at vgammell@sjbitaliana.org or Aggie at ahoward@sjbitaliana.org to let us know the names you would like written in the book.

Bishop's Annual Appeal: The theme of the Bishop's Annual Appeal, "Living the Joy of the Gospel," inspires us, as people of faith, to share joyfully the Good News of Christ to those who most need to feel His love as we continue His work on earth as faithful disciples. The Appeal makes possible the many good works facilitated by the Office of Social Concerns and the Office of Marriage and Family Life, contributes to the education of our future priests and deacons, and supports the education of our young people in their faith. Our BAA parish goal is $18,752.04. Total pledges to date are $15,270.00. All we need to reach our set goal for this year is $2,982.04. Thank you for your generosity to our parish and the diocese.

Taste of Tour with Berwick Party House: The Italian Catholic Community is having a Taste of Italy Tour with Berwick Party House on Sunday, November 22. Order Online at Berwick Party House. Pickup times are 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. and 1:30-3:30 p.m. See flyer on website: www.sjbitaliana.com.

The Byron Saunders Foundation: What's Thanksgiving dinner without mashed potatoes?? St John the Baptist helps the Byron Saunders Foundation headed by our own parishioner, Brian Wollenberg, obtain dollars to purchase 5 lb. bags of fresh potatoes for the families in need. We request a minimum of $2.00 per person. The more money we receive the more families receive fresh potatoes for Thanksgiving dinner. Last year, we served homemade mashed potatoes to 785 families for Thanksgiving out of over 5,000 families we are striving to serve. Eradicate Thanksgiving Boxed Mashed Potatoes! Please give after Mass, through November 22.

35th Wedding Anniversary: Congratulations to Mike and Kerree Susi who celebrated their 35th Wedding Anniversary by Bishop Brennan at the Diocesan Jubilee of Wedding Anniversary Mass at St. Paul Church last week.

Kroger Plus Cards Earn for St. John the Baptist – You could be earning money for St. John the Baptist just by using your Kroger Plus Card. Simply link your Kroger Plus Card to St. John the Baptist through Kroger's website at www.kroger.com Once your card is linked, a portion of your purchase price will be donated to St. John's. Participation in this program WILL NOT have any effect on earning fuel perks. The process takes just a few minutes and is an easy way to help our parish. Thank you for your support!

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: The month of November is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory, whose feast is celebrated on November 2. With the exception of the last two days, the entire month of November falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green.

Holy Father's Intention for November 2020: We pray that the progress of robotics and artificial intelligence may always serve humankind.

Today is All Saints Day: Today, the Church celebrates all the saints: canonized or beatified, and the multitude of those who are in heaven enjoying the beatific vision that are only known to God. During the year the Church celebrates one by one the feasts of the saints. Today she joins them all in one festival.

Sunday Mass Dispensation Extended Indefinitely: The dispensation from the Sunday Mass obligation granted by Bishop Robert Brennan, which was to last at least through Sunday, September 13, has been extended indefinitely, in keeping with the indefinite dispensation throughout the rest of the Catholic Conference of Ohio.

Permanent Diaconate Ordination: The Diaconate Office sent the invitations for the Ordination Mass of 10 new permanent deacons, which will take place at Saint Paul the Apostle Church on Saturday, November 7, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Admission is by ticket only; please encourage your parishioners to pray for them and join the event livestream at columbuscatholic.org or by Saint Gabriel Radio AM 820.

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is the USCCB's teaching document on the political responsibility of Catholics in light of the upcoming election on November 3. Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship is available online with a new Introductory Note. Supplemental resources such as a video, bulletin insert summaries Part 1 and Part 2, and do's and don'ts guidelines are also available at www.faithfulcitizenship.org. The Catholic Conference of Ohio has also made resources available about polling times, absentee ballots, etc., at www.ohiocathconf.org.

4 Angles for Preaching on Vocations on All Saints Day
Who will you bring to heaven? Every vocation is focused on loving other souls. Discovering your vocation is answering the question: Who does God want me to bring with me to heaven? "Each one of you must be holy also in order to help your brothers pursue their vocation to sanctity."

~ St. John Paul II

Vocation as the path to holiness. "Be the best version of yourself." "Become who you were meant to be." Long before these self-help mantras became popular, the Church already had a concept for seeking your "best self." We call it "discerning your vocation."

What would the saints say? Imagine ten thousand saints in heaven enjoying all eternity. If you were to interview them, they would all tell you that their most important decision, aside from following Jesus, was finding and living their vocation.

The goal of life. "The only real sadness, the only real failure, the only great tragedy in life, is not to become a saint." ~ The famous last line in Leon Bloy's The Woman Who Was Poor

ONE LINK: Find links to everything in this resource at vianneyvocations.com/nvaw, password GODCALLS2020.

Melchizedek Project: The Melchizedek Project is a spiritual discernment group that helps high school and college-aged men consider a vocation to the Priesthood. There are a few of these in place or about to begin in the Diocese.

- November 4: Columbus (Center-South Deanery), led by Fr. Hahn at St. Joseph Cathedral, 212 E. Broad Street. This group is for college aged men and older. The group will meet the first Wednesday of each month. Lunch and discussion in the undercroft, noon-1:00 p.m., followed by a time of prayer in the Cathedral afterwards for those who can stay. Please call 614-221-5565 or email whahn@columbuscatholic.org to RSVP or for more information.
- November 5: Columbus (Northwest Deanery), led by Fr. Frank Brown at St. Brendan Church, 4475 Dublin Road, Hilliard, for young men, ages 16 through mid-20s. The group meets the first Thursday of each month from 6:30-7:30 p.m. The gathering includes supper and discussion. Please call 614-221-5565 or email whahn@columbuscatholic.org to RSVP or for more information.

Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, by whose gift we venerate in one celebration the merits of all the Saints, bestow on us, we pray, through the prayers of so many intercessors, an abundance of the reconciliation with You for which we earnestly long. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Get in the ring

Catholic activist Mary “Mother” Jones famously urged: “Pray for the dead—and fight like hell for the living.” She did both, especially fighting for miner’s rights and against child labor at the turn of the 20th century. Called the “most dangerous woman in America” for her clout with the laboring class, she spoke for those who weren’t heard. Mother Jones won’t ever be a saint on the books, but she did as saints do: listened carefully to the concerns of her times, then went in punching for the needs of the oppressed. Who needs your voice—and maybe your boxing skills?

TODAY’S READINGS: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). “They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.”

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS’ DAY)

It is well with my soul

This year, as we mourn the scores of those in our country and around the world who are dead from the pandemic, All Souls’ Day has a uniquely terrible gravity. We are not only grieving the loss of so many human lives but also the loss of what our lives were like before, and we are doing it without the same emotional support we might have had in physically closer times. Today is an opportunity to pray and remember, and acknowledge the deep sadness that is so important to the healing process. Invite the God of hope to wipe away your tears.

TODAY’S READINGS: Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40 (668). “Everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life.”

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, RELIGIOUS

Create healing and harmony

After the summer we’ve had, Martin de Porres is the perfect intercessor for the United States today, on Election Day. This famously humble Dominican friar, born of poverty and mixed racial background, is the patron saint of race relations and social justice. Plus, he trained as a doctor to hide an ability to perform miraculous cures. Ask for his help and healing to end our time of pandemic and social division. And ask to have a heart like his: “Everything, even sweeping, scraping vegetables, weeding a garden, and waiting on the sick could be a prayer, if it were offered to God.”

TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 2:5-11; Luke 14:15-24 (486). “Bring in here the poor and the crippled, the blind and the lame.”

Wednesday, Nov 04, 2020

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEO, BISHOP

Be bread for the world

During the early months of the COVID-19 pandemic, bishops dispensed Catholics from their Sunday obligation to attend Mass. While there were worries about the future of the Eucharist, some leaders found ways for parishioners to be the church in the world, helping the needy, feeding the hungry, and even doing such things as sending baked goods to local hospitals. During the plague of 1576, Cardinal Charles Borromeo took to the streets of Milan to feed the hungry, going into personal debt to do so. Patron saint of cardinals, seminarians, and catechists, Saint Charles pray for us until the day when it is safe for all to gather again to share in the Eucharist.

TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 2:12-18; Luke 14:25-33 (487). “Every one of you who does not renounce all . . . possessions cannot be my disciple.”

Thursday, Nov 05, 2020

Keep the conversation going

Have you ever had to rethink your life? Vocation is an ongoing conversation between you and God about how best to use your gifts, and sometimes a “reset” is necessary. Saint Paul refers to the years he spent persecuting the church as a loss in today’s first reading. He thought he was doing the right thing when he pushed to have Christians flogged. But he listened to God through dramatic events in his life and discerned that his calling was to join the Christians, eventually becoming their lead evangelizer. Keep the conversation between you and God going!

TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 3:3-8a; Luke 15:1-10 (488). “There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people.”

No more scarring the Earth

Today marks the International Day for Preventing the Exploitation of the Environment in War. Just as human life is impacted and threatened by war, so too is our Earth. In 2003, the archbishop of Dublin spoke with the U.S. bishops on today’s challenge of peace, saying: “The pursuit of peace—lasting peace based on justice—ought to be an environmental priority because the Earth itself bears the wounds and scars of war.” The bishops call the church to “help build bridges among the peace, justice, and environmental agendas and constituencies.” How can we do this in our own neighborhoods? How can we avoid war and bring justice and peace to the local environment in which we live?

TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 3:17–4:1; Luke 16:1-8 (489). “Prepare a full account of your stewardship.”

Saturday, Nov 07, 2020

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Dare to love

In his papal letter “The Joy of Love,” Pope Francis speaks of the “tender gaze” with which Jesus looks on all. He might have learned this from Mary. In marriage, spouses learn to look at each other this tenderly, marveling at goodness even when youth and attractiveness fade, as Francis notes. Negotiating conflicts, seeing challenges as resolvable, and appreciating the “large nest” of extended family must have been skills Jesus gained by spending most of his life in such a setting. The pope suggests turning off mobile devices, creating conversation around the dining table. Can you and your loved ones take the challenge?

TODAY’S READINGS: Philippians 4:10-19; Luke 16:9-15 (490). “The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones.”
