NOVEMBER 22, 2020
SOLEMNITY OF
OUR LORD, JESUS CHRIST,
KING OF THE UNIVERSE

From the Deacon's Desk*Dear friends in Christ,*

The story of the Last Judgement as told on this Feast of the Solemnity of Christ the King is familiar to anyone who has been exposed to the New Testament. We have heard many times of the sheep and the goats. We know, at least somewhere in the back of our minds, that Jesus identifies with the hungry and the thirsty, with the stranger, the prisoner and the naked. It is no news to us that He calls them His sisters and His brothers.

The question for us today and, this week as we gather to celebrate Thanksgiving Day, is not whether we know this, but what we do with what we know. The important issue is what difference we are willing to make, not what set of excuses are we able to offer, not how little we can do to get by with and still qualify for a place among the sheep. The issue is how able we are to recognize the sisters and brothers of the Lord and respond to them where they are.

We are the people of God in the world. It is our responsibility to live in such a way that we reveal to those around us the kind of God we believe in. When we celebrate the EUCCHARIST together (a word that means THANKSGIVING), we gather around the person of Jesus. Holy Communion is not simply an act of personal devotion, but a sign that we are united with those with whom we worship. In a world that has so many divisions, especially right now in our country, our Italian Catholic Community here at Saint John's is called more than ever to be an assembly where mutual respect and acceptance are evident, because we are all trying to live according to the teachings of Jesus.

On behalf of Msgr. Cody, Father Klinger, Father Cotton, Father Kim, and the Korean Catholic Community, along with my staff, Ms. Aggie Howard, Ms. Vicky Gammell, Mrs. Gina Bishop, Mr. John Huffman and all in the Iannarino Family, may you have a Blessed and Faith-filled Thanksgiving holiday.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us!

Book of Remembrance of the Dead

Each year, we begin the month of November by celebrating the Feast of All Saints and All Souls. Traditionally, we place the Book of the Remembrance of the Dead in our church. I have placed the names of all those who have been buried here from our parish at Saint John the Baptist since last year in our book that is now located in front of the beautiful Madonna Mosaic as you enter the Baptismal Chapel. Please feel free to inscribe the names of anyone you wish to remember and light a small vigil candle in their memory. If you are not attending Mass due to the pandemic restriction, you may call the parish office at 614-294-5319 and we will inscribe the name and light a candle for you. You can also email Vicky at vgammell@sjbitaliana.org or Aggie at ahoward@sjbitaliana.org to let us know the names you would like written in the book.

PAVERS: The front Pavilion of St. John's church is covered with Pavers. These Pavers are available for purchase and engraving in remembrance of family members and loved ones. For more information, please call the office of St. John's at 614-294-5319.

Kroger Plus Cards Earn for St. John the Baptist – You could be earning money for St. John the Baptist just by using your Kroger Plus Card. Simply link your Kroger Plus Card to St. John the Baptist through Kroger's website at www.kroger.com.

Once your card is linked, a portion of your purchase price will be donated to St. John's. Participation in this program WILL NOT have any effect on earning fuel perks. The process takes just a few minutes and is an easy way to help our parish. Thank you for your support!

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: The month of November is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory, whose feast is celebrated on November 2. With exception of the last two days, the entire month of November falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green.

Holy Father's Intention for November 2020: We pray that the progress of robotics and artificial intelligence may always serve humankind.

Why Do Catholics Celebrate Feast Days? Every family has significant events to celebrate yearly: birthdays, graduations, anniversaries. Feast days are the Catholic Church's family events. Many feast days celebrate events in the lives of Jesus and Mary, such as the Annunciation, the Immaculate Conception, or Jesus' Baptism. Other feast days celebrate the saints as role models of holiness. Celebrating feasts gives us a break from regular life. The Church is a big family so there is always something to celebrate.

4 Angles for Preaching on Vocations on All Saints Day

Who will you bring to heaven? Every vocation is focused on loving other souls. Discovering your vocation is answering the question: Who does God want me to bring with me to heaven? "Each one of you must be holy also in order to help your brothers pursue their vocation to sanctity."

~ St. John Paul II

Vocation as the path to holiness. "Be the best version of yourself." "Become who you were meant to be." Long before these self-help mantras became popular, the Church already had a concept for seeking your "best self." We call it "discerning your vocation."

What would the saints say? Imagine ten thousand saints in heaven enjoying all eternity. If you were to interview them, they would all tell you that their most important decision, aside from following Jesus, was finding and living their vocation.

The goal of life. "The only real sadness, the only real failure, the only great tragedy in life, is not to become a saint."

~The famous last line in Leon Bloy's The Woman Who Was Poor

ONE LINK: Find links to everything in this resource at vianneyvocations.com/nvaw. Password GODCALLS2020.

Feast of Christ the King: The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, formerly referred to as "Christ the King," was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 as an antidote to secularism, a way of life which leaves God out of man's thinking and living and organizes his life as if God did not exist. The feast is intended to proclaim in a striking and effective manner Christ's royalty over individuals, families, society, governments, and nations.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) Collection is November 21-22: Please be generous in this week's special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people lives in poverty. With this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

Catholic Charities Christmas Help 2020 is a listing of items needed to help clients of our diocesan-sponsored Catholic charities. The people who they serve need the basics: food, clothing, personal hygiene products, and household items. They also need volunteers. To access the bulletin list online, visit www.columbuscatholic.org/social-concerns-office.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Diocesan Celebration: A diocesan-wide celebration in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe will take place on Saturday, December 12, 10:00 a.m.-noon at St. Joseph Cathedral. There will be songs, dance, a keynote speaker, and Rosary. The event will culminate with Mass with Archbishop Christophe Pierre, the Apostolic Nuncio to the United States. Due to the pandemic, there will be a limited number of invited guests in the Cathedral that day. However, everyone is encouraged to participate virtually via television (NBC4), radio (103.1 La Mega), and social media (YouTube). The event will be in Spanish, with English translation available. If you have any questions regarding this celebration, please email Lisset Mendoza at lmendoza@columbuscatholic.org.

"Jesus Christ is the King who reigns not by dominating us but by freeing us from all that prevents us from loving and being loved."

Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry, and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.'

Matthew 23:34-40

Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, whose will is to restore all things in Your beloved Son, the King of the universe, grant, we pray, that the whole creation, set free from slavery, may render Your majesty service and ceaselessly proclaim Your praise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

You decide

The church year ends this week. Along with that we're invited to consider another ending: our mortality. What goes on in eternity, anyway? Thomas Aquinas declares that God and eternity are the same. When we go from here, we go to God. How we experience the Divine Presence depends on whether our lives have become fully compatible with Love. Francis de Sales envisions Jesus saying to us: "Be it done as you desire; and because of what you have done, come, enjoy eternity." The desire of my heart will be answered: Will the choice be a life of love?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17; 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28; Matthew 25:31-46 (160). "These will go off to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

MEMORIAL OF BLESSED MIGUEL AUGUSTÍN PRO, PRIEST, MARTYR

¡Viva Cristo Rey!

Mexican Jesuit priest Miguel Pro was executed on fabricated charges in 1927 by a fiercely anti-clerical government. Pro had served the persecuted church by secretly celebrating the sacraments. He was killed by firing squad while holding a rosary in one hand and a crucifix in the other, his arms stretched out in imitation of the crucified Christ, shouting "Long live Christ the King!" His death energized the resistance. We may not be called to such dramatic sacrifice, but can we give up some comfort and convenience to fight for the greater good?

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 14:1-3, 4b-5; Luke 21:1-4 (503). "This poor widow put in more than all the rest."

Tuesday, Nov 24, 2020

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW DŨNG-LẠC, PRIEST, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Holiness in high numbers

Nine times in the liturgical lineup of feast days we memorialize a canonized person or two "and companions." All were martyrs and many had been foreign missionaries. Today's memorial honors Andrew Dũng-Lạc, a Vietnamese priest beheaded in 1839 for promoting Christianity instead of the official state religion; he's joined by another 117 killed in Vietnam, tortured and martyred during the 18th and 19th centuries. Just as we began this month with the feast of All Saints—honoring a multitude of holy unknowns—may every instance of "and companions" encourage us to call to mind the "great cloud of witnesses."

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 14:14-19; Luke 21:5-11 (504). "Reap the harvest, for the time to reap has come."

Wednesday, Nov 25, 2020

MEMORIAL OF CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA, VIRGIN, MARTYR

Raise your voice

Christian tradition holds that Catherine of Alexandria (287-305) was an eloquent young Christian convert who challenged the Emperor Maxentius' persecution of Christians. That faithful courage led to her own martyrdom. The United Nations has declared today the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women, asking the world to recognize that "violence against women and girls is one of the most widespread, persistent, and devastating human rights violations in our world today." We honor the courage of Saint Catherine by paying attention to the violence that others endure, speaking up in defense of the voiceless, and adding our prayers for those whose suffering too often goes unnoticed.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 15:1-4; Luke 21:12-19 (505). "They will seize and persecute you . . . they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name."

THANKSGIVING DAY

Give thanks, indeed

This Thanksgiving won't be celebrated the way many of us hoped and imagined back when the pandemic started. And yet, we are alive. Most of us reading these words can breathe freely. The virus has reminded us to never again take these simple matters for granted. One of our wisest teachers about prayer, Dominican priest Meister Eckhardt (1260-1329), said: If the only prayer you ever said in your entire life is thank you, that would suffice. Even amid hard times, giving thanks to God is appropriate. Let it be your prayer today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 18:1-2, 21-23; 19:1-3, 9a; Luke 21:20-28 (506). "But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand."

Turn the page

The "Book of Life" is mentioned several times in the Bible. A bit like the contact list you keep on your phone, the Book of Life is the figurative expression of how God is said to keep track of those heading for heavenly repose united with the Divine. According to Jewish tradition, God opens the Book of Life on Rosh Hashanah and leaves it open for 10 days, until Yom Kippur. During those days, believers spend time repenting of their sins and amending their lives in order to be written into the Book of Life. If there's something you need to repent, today is a good day to turn the page.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 20:1-4, 11—21:2; Luke 21:29-33 (507). "Then another scroll was opened, the Book of Life. The dead were judged according to their deeds."

Saturday, Nov 28, 2020

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Call forth your best self

Perhaps you've heard that Jesus' life was foreshadowed in passages from the Hebrew scripture that predated him. But were you aware that Mary's life and role in salvation history might have been as well? The prophet Isaiah (7:14) speaks of a young woman (sometimes translated as a "virgin") who will give birth to a son she will name Emmanuel, meaning "God with us." Mary has been "going ahead" of us for generations, a role model beckoning us to live our best lives, regardless of how improbable, even miraculous, that might turn out to be.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 22:1-7; Luke 21:34-36 (508). "These words are trustworthy and true."
