SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY • MAY 30, 2021
THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's DeskDear friends in Christ,

There's a family I know that reminds me of the Trinity. Each member of that family is a unique individual with many outside interests and distinct qualities. Within the family are artists, musicians, scholars, business professionals, and adventurers. And yet their interests and qualities blend so well together that they are clearly all one family. Their individual interests flow from and support their common interest, which seems to be enjoying life itself and helping others to do so as well. Communication flows easily among them, and love does, too. They hold each other in mutual respect and they each gain strength from the love and support of the others. To be in their presence is to enter more deeply into life.

When I was a kid, trying to understand the Trinity made my head hurt. I think that was because we often approached the mystery of the Trinity as a math problem: three divine persons equal one God. I was never that good at math. Now I think the best way to understand the Trinity is as a family unit. Families I understand....especially Italian Families. And because of the good families I have known, I've come to better understand God the Father, God the Son, and God the loving Spirit between them.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us.
Have a good week,
Deacon Frank

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: The month of May is dedicated to The Blessed Virgin Mary. The first 23 days fall within the liturgical season of Easter, which is represented by the liturgical color white – the color of light, a symbol of joy, purity and innocence (absolute or restored). The remainder of the month (beginning the Monday after Pentecost) is in Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of May 2021: Let us pray that those in charge of finance will work with governments to regulate the financial sphere and protect citizens from its dangers.

There will be No Mass or Holy Hour at Sacred Heart on Monday, May 31, Memorial Day, Monday, June 7th or Wednesday, June 9th, 2021.

May is National Foster Care Month! As Christians, we are encouraged to open our lives to the most vulnerable, and there is no better way to embody the Lord's love and grace than caring for those who have no one else to care for them. If you've ever considered becoming a foster parent, now is a great time to learn more. For more information, connect with St. Vincent Family Center at fostercare@svfc.org.

St. Vincent Family Center's 2021 Corcoran Awards: Each year, St. Vincent Family Center honors the work and mission of Monsignor Lawrence Corcoran, by celebrating community members who contribute to the well-being of the children and families they serve. Just as Monsignor Corcoran was known for working tirelessly to improve conditions for the underserved and emphasizing dignity for all humans, St. Vincent Family Center recognizes extraordinary individuals who are passionate about making a difference in the lives of others. This year, St. Vincent Family Center is honoring a new class of Corcoran Award winners and hosting a free, livestreamed Virtual Round Table – a conversation with SVFC's behavioral health experts, addressing the mental wellness of parents, families and professionals and the social-emotional health of the children they care for.

Walking with Moms in Need Update: Several parishes have begun working on the USCCB initiative. A good way to identify resources in your communities is to work collectively within the deaneries. There is no need to duplicate efforts, and it can provide opportunities for us to connect as a diocesan community. Please identify and send the name of your parish WWMIN coordinator to Erin Cordle in Social Concerns at 614-241-2540 or socmailbox@columbuscatholic.org. The cost of the retreat is $40.00. For more information or to register, visit <http://www.seekholiness.com/quo-vadis/> or contact Michael Haemmerle at columbusquovadis@gmail.com.

Trinity Sunday: The fundamental dogma, on which everything in Christianity is based, is that of the Blessed Trinity in whose name all Christians are baptized. The feast of the Blessed Trinity needs to be understood and celebrated as a prolongation of the mysteries of Christ and as the solemn expression of our faith in this triune life of the Divine Persons, to which we have been given access by Baptism and by the Redemption won for us by Christ. Only in heaven shall we properly understand what it means, in union with Christ, to share as sons in the very life of God.

Prayer

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race Your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore Your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

For you are my God

There's a difference between prayer and theology. Most of us don't think of ourselves as doing theology when we pray—and yet we are. How we pray involves a preconception of the God with whom we are engaging. Is God a loving parent to us, or a merciless accountant? Is God an ATM we visit to supply our daily needs; a companion on the journey; the source of every good thing; or the one who best loves and understands us? When you pray, take a moment to orient yourself toward the God you really believe in.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40; Romans 8:14-17; Matthew 28:16-20 (165). "Know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God . . . and that there is no other."

FEAST OF THE VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Believe the impossible

National holidays frequently take precedence over our daily routines, and this Memorial Day is no exception as the country honors those who gave their lives in service. In the midst of your holiday activities, however, take a moment to ponder today's Feast of the Visitation. It's a wonder-filled account of God's power to transform human life, as two holy women—cousins Mary and Elizabeth—embrace their unusual and graced pregnancies. Their joy trumps any worry as they glorify the Lord who lifts up the lowly and fills the hungry with good things. Mary's words have echoed through centuries of faith, calling all believers to see the presence of God in the unexpected. Ask for the grace to see the Holy today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Zephaniah 3:14-18a or Romans 12:9-16; Luke 1:39-56 (572). "My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God, my savior."

MEMORIAL OF JUSTIN, MARTYR

Wise up!

Justin sought a universal truth in the Greek philosophies of his day—among Stoics, Platonists, and Pythagoreans—but it was an old man he met, walking along the sea one day in 135, who finally enlightened him. The man simply recounted the story of the Hebrew prophets and Christianity. Justin was hooked. He donned philosopher's robes to speak of faith and reason, writing persuasively about Christianity. Justin's writings are most famous for providing a vivid snapshot of the early church—describing in detail how the Eucharist and Baptisms were celebrated, also the practice of reading aloud from the gospels. Seek the truths of the faith in your own way.

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 2:9-14; Mark 12:13-17 (354). "Do not regard a person's status but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth."

On we go

By the time of Jesus, the possibility of life after death had been in the theological discussion for at least a century. In response to the Book of Job, which questioned why bad things happen to good people, the Book of Wisdom, written in the first century before Christ, declared that the "souls of the just are in the hands of God" and that God's justice was at work even after death. The Sadducees in today's gospel contest the idea, while Jesus supports it. Our faith in God's eternal presence helps us to endure the injustices of life and bear wrongs patiently. Remember today that we believe in life everlasting.

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 3:1-11a, 16-17a; Mark 12:18-27 (355). "When they rise from the dead . . . they are like the angels in heaven."

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES LWANGA AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Faith rises from the ashes

Twenty-two men and boys, many of them pages in King Mwanga's court in Uganda, were murdered between 1885 and 1887 for refusing to denounce their Catholic faith. Most were burned to death at Namugondo after a two-day death march from the palace. Within several decades, a church was erected near the site of the gruesome executions to honor the martyrs. Now a basilica stands on this holy ground in thanksgiving for the canonization of the Ugandan martyrs in 1964. "A martyr is a witness," Pope Francis said during a 2015 visit to Uganda. "Past glories were a beginning, but you are called to create future glories. This is what the church asks of you." This is what the church asks of all of us. How will you witness the glory of the gospel today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 6:10-11; 7:1bcde, 9-17; 8:4-9a; Mark 12:28-34 (356). "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart."

What a blessed day this be

As the northern hemisphere revels in the glories of spring, it's a fitting time to say a few "Glory Be's" and "Blessed Be's" in thanksgiving. The "Glory Be," or "Doxology," is a short hymn of praise and affirmation of faith: "Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen." The "Blessed Be's," also known as the "Divine Praises," are a litany honoring the Trinity, the Blessed Mother, and the angels and saints: "Blessed be God. Blessed be His Holy Name. Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man. . . ." It is typically recited during Benediction and Eucharistic Adoration. But anytime, particularly a sunny day, is the right time to acknowledge how blessed we are to be loved by God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 11:5-17; Mark 12:35-37 (357). "Blessed be God, and praised be his great name."

MEMORIAL OF BONIFACE, BISHOP, MARTYR

Animate your life story

Saint Boniface (c. 673-754), born in Devonshire, England, entered the Benedictine Monastery at Exeter and was ordained a priest at 30. Despite his happy life as a monk, he decided to travel to Holland and then Germany as a missionary. He's now known as the "Apostle to Germany" and is credited with unifying the church in Europe. Boniface's chief concern throughout his life was purity of faith. He saw his mission as ensuring that men and women—lay, clerics, and religious—live holy lives. He exhorted the faithful: "Let all your actions be animated with charity, and according to the gospel, you will possess your souls in patience." May you experience the peace that comes with a life motivated by love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Tobit 12:1, 5-15, 20; Mark 12:38-44 (358). "Do good, and evil will not find its way to you."
