2021 Columbus Italian Festival
sponsored by Catholic Church News:

Deacon Frank Iannarino and the Executive Board of the Columbus Italian Festival have been meeting every month to insure a safe and successful Festival happens this year.

We are excited to share an update with all. Considering current State guidelines, as well as optimistically anticipated City of Columbus permit approval, the Board is enthusiastically formulating the 2021 Festival look. We are additionally requesting all Committee Chairs to attend our June 28th meeting at 7:00 p.m. at the Church Hall. Please stay tuned for our progress. We look forward to seeing everyone at the Festival!!!! We thank everyone for their past and continued support in this wonderful event.

Bishop's Annual Appeal: Your gift to the 2021 Bishop's Annual Appeal is vital to the success of this diocesan wide-campaign. As of June 15, St. John's has received pledges of $15,560.00 towards our goal of $16,108.91, which brings our new parish goal to $548.91. Thank you to all those families that have made a gift or pledge. If you have not yet made your gift to this year's Appeal, please consider doing so in the days ahead. Your gift will help to continue the vital work of the various ministries and services that reach so many in need. Please pray for the success of the Appeal and remember, no amount of giving is too small. Together, we can bring hope that can change lives.

Passionist Mission Vietnam: The Passionist Mission Vietnam began in 2005, with three Passionist missionaries, quietly, nervously, arriving in a war-torn country run by the communists, hoping to be of service to the brave local church, the church of martyrs. Around the world, the Passionists sit by the Cross of Jesus, and in their spiritual mission bring hope and joy to many suffering people, the crucified of today. Few places on earth have known persecution, war, and oppression like Vietnam, surely the land of the Cross.

The mission is most grateful to Bishop Robert Brennan, Sister Zephрина in the Columbus Mission Office of the Propagation of the Faith and Pastor, Father Adam Streitenberger and Deacon Frank Iannarino, Administrator at St. John the Baptist.

Fr. Jeff Foale, CP is working in Communist Vietnam training native missionaries under the very eyes of officials, in difficult conditions. They bravely go out to uplift the poor in remote regions of the country. Wonderful things are happening and worth supporting. He has trained 13 native priests and is caring for 35 seminarians.

Vietnamese Catholics, young and old, rise above their hostile environment with courage and generosity. Passionist missionary, Fr. Jeff Foale has a story to tell of how God's call to love and life inspired them as they build beautiful communities of compassion and hope.

The first weekend in July there will be a special collection taken up at St. John's at our 9:30 a.m. Sunday Mass and the 4:00 p.m. and 11:00 a.m. Mass at Sacred Heart for The Passionist Mission Vietnam.

Thank you for your support to the Bishop's Annual Appeal

June Highlights: As we begin to feel the warmth of summer, we can reflect that we celebrate the feasts of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. God is Love and the Sacred Heart of Jesus – present on earth in the Blessed Sacrament – is the human manifestation of God's Love for men. Appropriately, June is considered the month for weddings where human hearts join and cooperate with the Creator in bringing forth new life. The family they create is a human reflection of the Blessed Trinity.

~ From www.catholicculture.org

Dear God, help me to enter into a time of quiet each day with you. Let me hear your voice every morning in the silence of my heart. Refresh me with your word and renew my spirit that I may zealously do everything for your glory. Amen.

Saints of June: Saints Peter and Paul – The interwoven symbols of Saints Peter and Paul are used at Winchester, where the cathedral church is dedicated to these saints. Veneration of the two great Apostles, Peter, and Paul has its roots in the very foundations of the Church. They are the solid rock on which the Church is built.

"The Eucharist heals because it unites us with Jesus: it makes us assimilate His way of living, His ability to be broken up and given to brothers and sisters, to respond to evil with good."

And a great storm of wind arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care if we perish?" And he awoke and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you no faith?"

~ Mark 4:37-40

Prayer

Grant, O Lord, that we may always revere and love Your holy name, for You never deprive of Your guidance those You set firm on the foundation of Your love. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Heal the human family

Fathers are an unpredictable lot. Some are lovingly remembered as protective and dependable captains who sailed their families to calmer waters through every domestic storm. Others may be lamented as the source of many a squall themselves. We pray this day for both kinds of fathers: those who stayed and those who abandoned ship, the faithful and the faithless, the tender and the tyrant. The church teaches that our world can't be whole until our families are healed. This Father's Day, we pray especially for those who volunteer as benevolent father figures for children in need of one.

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 38:1, 8-11; 2 Corinthians 5:14-17; Mark 4:35-41 (95). "[Jesus] woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Quiet! Be still!'"

MEMORIAL OF ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, RELIGIOUS

Sometimes you have to swim upstream

Discerning one's vocation can be tricky enough, but once you've figured out God's call, you might encounter resistance from others in answering it. Saint Aloysius Gonzaga can relate. As an aristocrat in Renaissance Italy, he was expected to join decadent courtly life and have an accomplished military career. But even in his early teens, Aloysius was dismayed by the violence and licentiousness of his time. Deeply devout, he bucked family and societal expectations and sought a different path. He renounced his inheritance and became a Jesuit. When we encounter pressure to ignore God, may Aloysius help us all stay true.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 12:1-9; Matthew 7:1-5 (371). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Tuesday, Jun 22, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOHN FISHER, BISHOP AND THOMAS MORE, MARTYRS

Truth trumps tyranny

Thomas More shares this feast day with John Fisher—both beheaded for daring to cross England's King Henry VIII in his power grab. Significantly, Henry moved up Fisher's execution day so it wouldn't fall on the feast of another sainted John—John the Baptist, who likewise was beheaded by a king for opposing royal tyranny. It's always the right time to speak truth to power, even when the cost is high.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 13:2, 5-18; Matthew 7:6, 12-14 (372). "Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction."

Wednesday, Jun 23, 2021

Let's make the world a better place

Today the United Nations celebrates Public Service Day to honor the public servants who selflessly work to promote the common good. Each of us, however, is called to make the world a better place through service. As Pope Francis says in Fratelli Tutti: Service means caring "for the vulnerable members of our families, our society, our people . . . Service always looks to their faces, touches their flesh, senses their closeness . . . and tries to help them." Whether as emergency responders, sanitation workers, public advocates, teachers, community volunteers, or whatever your vocation or profession may be, take the opportunity to recognize the humanity of the vulnerable and offer your help.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18; Matthew 7:15-20 (373). "So by their fruits you will know them."

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

Catch fire

Although American Catholics in general don't tend to make a fuss over the Nativity of John the Baptist, today's solemnity is one of the church's earliest, and it used to be widely celebrated in Europe with bonfires and outdoor festivities. Some regions still hold celebrations for John, who prepared humanity for the coming of Christ. The bonfires recognize the fire within this zealous, outspoken saint. Do you harbor a fire for Christ? If your passion has ebbed, pray to Saint John the Baptist to intercede that you might reignite your fire for the kingdom of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Isaiah 49:1-6; Acts 13:22-26; Luke 1:57-66, 80 (587). "He asked for a tablet and wrote, 'John is his name.'"

Friday, Jun 25, 2021

Confirm your spiritual identity

Most seventh-graders are thrilled by two things about Confirmation: the possibility of having a tongue of fire hover over their heads and choosing a new name. It's not that anything is necessarily wrong with their given names, but it seems awesome to choose one's very own name. Many spiritual traditions and rites employ the custom of taking a new name, signifying a new moment in our life with God. Though a sacrament and public witness in the church, Confirmation is also a personal confirmation of our own selves as unique and beloved of God. What can you do today to confirm your relationship with God?

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 17:1, 9-10, 15-22; Matthew 8:1-4 (375). "Do not call her Sarai; her name shall be Sarah. I will bless her."

Saturday, Jun 26, 2021

We are worthy of healing

In these divisive times, it is heartening to have examples of the healing power of a word. The gospels tell the story of a centurion, a powerful military leader of the Roman army that occupied Jewish lands, who had such great faith in Jesus that he only needed Jesus to speak a healing word. No ordinary centurion, this fellow had been a great friend of the Jewish people of Capernaum, even building their synagogue. Where are such examples today? Speak a word of healing across all that seems to divide: across the aisle, the religions, the races and ethnicities, the neighborhoods, languages, genders, and sexualities that distinguish us but do not have to divide us. Only say the word and healing shall begin.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 18:1-15; Matthew 8:5-17 (376). "Only say the word and my servant will be healed."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
