JOHN 6:10

THE ITALIAN
CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk*Dear friends in Christ,*

Wow ...what a difference two years have made in my life! It was two years ago this weekend when I received word that Bishop Robert Brennan needed me to replace Fr. Bob Kitsmiller as the Administrator of Saint John the Baptist. Needless to say, the time has flown by and, as I have reflected on my diaconal ministry, it continues to be a wonderful assignment and experience.

I am grateful to all of you for your continued support, advice, and cooperation as we steered our way through the changes that needed to take place throughout the campus so we could continue to be a welcoming and spiritual home established by our Italian ancestors over the last 125 years. I'm also immensely grateful for all we did together to get through the pandemic. I continue to pray that all of us stay healthy and safe. I received the vaccine and want to encourage many of you, who have not been vaccinated, to consider doing so – especially now that this new Covid variant is affecting so many who have not been vaccinated.

I hope you have enjoyed the rotating priest schedule with Msgr. Cody, Father Klinger and Father Cotton each month; along with a couple “guest appearances” over the last few months from Bishop Brennan, Msgr. Anthony Missimi, and Father Mike Lumpe.

Aggie Howard, Vicky Gammell, Gina Bishop and John Huffman have been a “God-send” as they oversee the day-to-day operation of the parish. I am also grateful to Adam Montemarano, Susan Guy, and the Italian Festival Executive Board, as we prepare for another exciting 41st Italian Festival the weekend of October 8, 9 and 10.

On a final note, beginning in August, I will implement a “Deacon of the Month Club” from a few of my brother deacons. Once a month, you may see another Deacon assisting at Mass some weekends. Their names will be announced each week in our bulletin and on our newly designed web site: www.sbjitaliana.com. This gives me a weekend off once a month, so I can give attention to my other diaconal ministries as Diaconate Director, Bishop Watterson Chaplain, and continue my responsibilities at Saint Brigid of Kildare Parish in Dublin. It also gives me a weekend for a little “R & R” with my family.

Please be assured that all of you will continue to be in my daily prayers, and I look forward for all we will do in the days, months, and years ahead.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us.
Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

2021 Columbus Italian Festival
 sponsored by Catholic Church News

GREAT NEWS: The 2021 Columbus Italian Festival is a go. With no city or state restrictions, we are moving forward. Please go to the website for updates and volunteer opportunities. We have a form to complete if you want to volunteer. The next general meeting for Chair persons will be July 26, 2021 at 6:30 p.m. Please stay tuned for our progress. We look forward to seeing everyone at the Festival!!!! We thank everyone for their past and continued support of this wonderful event.

Italian Festival – Beer and Alcohol Server Training: Wednesday, July 28th at 6:30 p.m. and Sunday, August 8, at 11:00 a.m. Where: St. John the Baptist Church, 720 Hamlet Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, Parking lot at the southwest corner of Hamlet Street and E. Lincoln Street. Meeting in Marrapese Hall.

Alcohol Server Knowledge (ASK) Training is now required for all those wishing to distribute beer and alcohol. The training, led by Agent Kelly Murnane, will provide us with the essentials to protect you and the Festival from violating the law while volunteering. Agent Murnane will share with us the requirements in serving an individual, as well as the personal consequences should any of us serve to those who are restricted.

WHY: It's REQUIRED. No, you will not be distributing alcohol if you do not attend. Along with protecting yourself and the Church with these regulations, we would also very much appreciate the opportunity for open dialogue regarding your experience serving. We seek to provide a great experience for all those visiting the festival by efficiency with workflow at entry, ticket sales and alcohol distribution. We also seek consistency in serving beer and alcohol to ensure reasonable yields and customer satisfaction.

TRAINING DURATION: Short 45-60 minutes is all we are anticipating. Maybe shorter depending on the number of questions and dialogue we have.

Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament: Daily Masses at Sacred Heart will be offered at 8:00 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, starting at 7:00 p.m. Confessions will be heard during the time of Adoration.

There will be No Mass or Adoration at Sacred Heart, Tuesday, August 3, 2021.

Summer Parish Festivals Are Back: It is that wonderful time of year! The weather is warmer, and the sun is shining. Consider spending some time celebrating local Catholic communities by attending a Local Parish Festival! The food will be delicious and the company divine!! Visit www.columbuscatholic.org/festivals for a schedule of area Festivals.

Bethesda Healing Ministry: This is a Catholic Christian ministry in the Diocese of Columbus since 1993 that provides healing and hope for women and men who are struggling from past abortion experiences. Through a community of love and acceptance, women and men share a rich healing journey through fellowship, prayer, the Sacraments, a structured scriptural/experiential manual, retreats, and days of recollection. For more information about how to help, call 614-309-0157 or visit <https://bethesdahealing.org>.

Today is the first World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly:

"It is important for grandparents to meet their grandchildren and grandchildren to meet their grandparents, because — as the prophet Joel says — grandparents, before their grandchildren, will dream, and have illusions [great desires], and young people, taking strength from their grandparents, will go forward and prophesy."

– Pope Francis, January 31, 2021

Natural Family Planning Awareness Week: July 25-31, 2021: "To have... To hold... To honor, Natural Family Planning, Supporting God's gifts of love and life in marriage" is the theme of this year's National Natural Family Planning Awareness Week, an educational campaign of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) to celebrate God's vision for marriage and promote the methods of Natural Family Planning. Natural Family Planning (NFP) is a general title for ethical, natural, safe, and effective methods for both achieving and avoiding pregnancy in marriage. NFP methods teach couples how to observe and interpret the wife's signs of fertility and infertility. In the words of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, NFP methods "respect the bodies of the spouses, encourage tenderness between them and favor the education of an authentic freedom." (CCC, no. 2370) The Catholic Church invites all the faithful to embrace God's plan for married love. Learn more about these beautiful teachings which support the use of NFP in marriage at usccb.org/topics/natural-family-planning/church-teaching.

Saints and Symbols for July – St. Brigid:

Patron saint of Sweden. Brigid married a young prince and lived happily with him for 28 years, bearing him eight children. St. Catherine of Sweden was their daughter. After her husband died, Brigid founded the Order of the Most Holy Savior, erecting at Vadstena a double monastery for monks and nuns. Following the guidance of the Holy Spirit, she later went to Rome, where she worked for the return of the Popes from Avignon.

"Accept the Risen Jesus into your life. Even if you have been far away, take a small step towards him: He awaits you with open arms."

~ Pope Francis

Prayer

O God, protector of those who hope in You, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy, bestow in abundance Your mercy upon us and grant that, with You as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Celebrate mom-and-pop operations

However few dollars there are, parents make them stretch until payday. However uncertain the way ahead, they shoulder the decision-making for their brood. However dark the night and scary the storm, parents hug their little ones through it. Today our nation celebrates Parents' Day, honoring the grownups who make children's lives safer, happier, and healthier. While they may not multiply loaves and fishes quite like Jesus, parents do perform minor miracles of sufficiency every day across this country. They take imperfect human love and weave a blanket of protection and possibility for their tribe. Support your local parents!

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 4:42-44; Ephesians 4:1-6; John 6:1-15 (110). "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

MEMORIAL OF JOACHIM AND ANNE, PARENTS OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Family ties

Jesus' ancestry through Joseph is extensively traced in two of the gospels, but there's nothing there about his maternal line. The names of his grandparents—Mary's parents—aren't mentioned in scripture, but tradition has dubbed them Joachim and Anne. Whatever their names were, they had to have been remarkable people to have raised the mother of God. The courage and faith they passed on to Mary is a precious gift all parents can pass to their children. Treasure your own intergenerational bonds.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:15-24, 30-34; Matthew 13:31-35 (401). "The birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches."

Tuesday, Jul 27, 2021

Parables of trying and trust

Jesus favored parables—short allegories featuring people, places, and things familiar to ordinary listeners—to get his point across. Typically, they were about the kingdom of God, standing in stark contrast to the current world. "The kingdom of God, even if it requires our cooperation, is firstly a gift of the Lord," Pope Benedict XVI reminded pilgrims in 2012. Not that humans shouldn't lift a finger. Such parables, Benedict said, echo a famous saying from Ignatius of Loyola: "Act as if everything depended on you; trust as if everything depended on God." Where do you need to trust God more and where, perhaps, do you need to act?

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 33:7-11; 34:5b-9, 28; Matthew 13:36-43 (402). "Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Stay the course

Father Stanley Rother is one step away from canonization and being named publicly as a saint of the Catholic Church. Born in Oklahoma in 1935, ordained a priest in 1963, missioned to Guatemala in 1968, Rother immersed himself among the Tz'ujujil Mayan communities. When civil war broke out and his name appeared on a death list, after briefly departing he decided to return, saying, the "shepherd cannot run." On July 28, 1981, three men entered the rectory where he lived and killed him. Now recognized as a martyr for the faith, Rother was beatified by the Vatican in 2016. As we await the canonization of this first American martyr, pray that you, too, might be a sign of Christ's love to the people close to you, even when it comes at a cost.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 34:29-35; Matthew 13:44-46 (403).

"When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it."

MEMORIAL OF MARTHA

Lesson learned

Any memorial honoring Saint Martha includes a well-deserved nod to those who quietly serve. But Martha's role in salvation history goes well beyond her hospitality to Jesus and lies in the example of her maturing faith. When Jesus admonished her about her anxiety, Martha listened. She grew in wisdom and understanding, so much so that when her brother Lazarus dies, she runs to meet Jesus and declares: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Martha provides an inspiration to all of us to persevere in knowing God, loving Christ, and serving others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 40:16-21, 34-38 (404); John 11:19-27 or Luke 10:38-42 (607). "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing."

Open the door to your own ministry

Do you ever think about your daily activities as a ministry? No activity is outside the realm of a possible ministry. Take Blessed Solanus Casey, for example. One of Solanus' jobs was as a porter, that is, a door keeper. Open/shut case, right? Not at all! Solanus understood his simple job as being a true ministry, service of God through service of others. He did not merely answer the door; he opened his heart to everyone who entered. In doing so, Solanus was able to reflect God's love and healing to others in a way that truly made a difference. How do you open your heart to others during your daily routine?

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 23:1, 4-11, 15-16, 27, 34b-37; Matthew 13:54-58 (405). "Is he not the carpenter's son?"

MEMORIAL OF IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA, PRIEST

Book your biblical excursion

Never underestimate the power of a book to change lives or history. Ignatius of Loyola was a young Spanish soldier from a prominent military family. While recovering from a serious war injury, he came upon Vita Christi, a spiritual biography of the life of Christ by 14th-century German Catholic monk Ludolph of Saxony. In the book he found the meditative technique of immersing oneself in a biblical scene from the life of Jesus. The book changed Ignatius' life, and the technique became foundational to the development of Ignatian spirituality and the famed Spiritual Exercises. Try the technique: Open a gospel, read a story, and place yourself at the scene. Really be there. See what happens.

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 25:1, 8-17; Matthew 14:1-12 (406).

"This fiftieth year you shall make sacred by proclaiming liberty in the land for all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
