MARK 6:4

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk

Dear friends in Christ,

This weekend, once again, our country celebrates our Independence. No question, we continue to be a country and a world full of social division and unrest – not unlike the rebellious house of Israel that we hear about in our first reading. But God never abandons us. God fashioned and made us by loving into being and knitting us together in our mother's womb. God wants life for us and not merely any kind of life. Because God wants a good life for us, God has set up laws and has given us prophets to guide our way. Time and again, we struggle and falter. Therefore, God comes to lead the way. In the person of Jesus, He heals those who are sick and reveals a better life, an eternal life. God never gives up, no matter how many times it takes before we allow it to take hold.

As we gather this year with family and friends to celebrate, share time and food together and reflect specifically on our religious freedom, may we, in this Eucharistic meal always know that we share in God's Body and Blood and thus share in his eternal life. Take this food and be healed. Drink this cup and receive everlasting life. Now that is true freedom!

Saint John the Baptist pray for us!

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

Passionist Mission Vietnam: The Passionist Mission Vietnam began in 2005 with three Passionist missionaries, quietly, nervously, arriving in a war-torn country run by the communists, hoping to be of service to the brave local church, the church of martyrs. Around the world, the Passionists sit by the Cross of Jesus, and in their spiritual mission bring hope and joy to many suffering people, the crucified of today. Few places on earth have known persecution, war, and oppression like Vietnam, surely the land of the Cross.

The mission is most grateful to Bishop Robert Brennan, Sister Zephрина in the Columbus Mission Office of the Propagation of the Faith and Pastor, Father Adam Streitenberger and Deacon Frank Iannarino, Administrator at St. John the Baptist.

Fr. Jeff Foale, C.P., is working in Communist Vietnam training native missionaries under the very eyes of officials, in difficult conditions. They bravely go out to uplift the poor in remote regions of the country. Wonderful things are happening and worth supporting. He has trained 13 native priests and is caring for 35 seminarians.

Vietnamese Catholics, young and old, rise above their hostile environment with courage and generosity. Passionist missionary Fr. Jeff Foale has a story to tell of how God's call to love and life inspired them as they build beautiful communities of compassion and hope.

Today, there will be a special collection taken up at St. John's at our 9:30 a.m. Sunday Mass for The Passionist Mission Vietnam.

2021 Columbus Italian Festival

sponsored by Catholic Church News:

Deacon Frank Iannarino and the Executive Board of The Columbus Italian Festival have been meeting every month to insure a safe and successful Festival happens this year.

We are excited to share an update with all. Considering current State guidelines, as well as optimistically anticipated City of Columbus permit approval, the Board is enthusiastically formulating the 2021 Festival look. We are additionally requesting all Committee Chairs to attend our June 28th meeting at 7:00 p.m. at the Church Hall. Please stay tuned for our progress. We look forward to seeing everyone at the Festival!!!! We thank everyone for their past and continued support in this wonderful event.

St. John's Altar Guild UPDATE: 2021 Football OSU Football Pool – Please see Gary Bosco after Mass to reserve your squares on this year's OSU football pool. Cost per square is $60.00, which covers all 12 season games and provides 48 chances to win up to $100.00 per quarter ($400.00 paid out per game)! Proceeds go to the Altar Guild whose focus is on purchasing the needs of everything on the Altar at St. John's.

Altar Guild Membership – Interested in becoming a member of the Altar Guild? Join us on the second Sunday of each month at 11:00 a.m. in Marrapese Hall. Cost to join is $15.00 for an annual membership. We would LOVE to have some new members that could help us raise funds to support all needs on the Altar. Our first meeting will be Sunday, July 11, 2021 at 11:00 a.m.. Questions? See Margaret Panico-Harn or Patty Weimer.

Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament: Daily Masses at Sacred Heart will be offered at 8:00 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, starting at 7:00 p.m. Confessions will be heard during the time of Adoration. There is No Mass July 5, 2021.

PAVERS: The front Pavilion of St. John's Church is covered with Pavers. These Pavers are available for purchase and engraving in remembrance of family members and loved ones. For more information, please call the office of St. John at 614-294-5319.

AROUND US

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of July 2021: We pray that, in social, economic, and political situations of conflict, we may be courageous and passionate architects of dialogue and friendship.

Ordinary Time is Anything but Ordinary: The Sundays of Ordinary Time take us through the life of Christ. Green is the liturgical color of Ordinary Time. It is the color of life and hope. Ordinary Time is divided into two time periods. Following the Baptism of our Lord is the first period, which continues until Ash Wednesday. Pentecost Sunday starts the second period of Ordinary Time, the longest liturgical season, as it continues until the Advent season begins again. This is a time of conversion, maturation, and quiet growth. It comprises the longest time on the liturgical calendar when the faithful consider the fullness of Jesus' teachings and miracles while on this earth. One symbol often found in Ordinary Time is comprised of two fish and a basket of bread – symbolizing Jesus' "Loaves and the Fishes" miracle.

CCL Men's Team State Championships Reunion Golf Outing: For Players and Coaches from 1971-1992, Monday, July 12, 2021 at Pinnacle Golf Club, Grove City, Ohio 43123. 10:00 a.m., shotgun; 4:00 p.m., closing. Format: 4-man scramble. Cost is $400.00 per team. Includes 18 holes of golf w/cart at one of Central Ohio's Finest courses, along with box lunch provided by Cimi's Bistro. Most importantly, a chance to reunite with former teammates and coaches! For more information, contact Gary Metzger at 614-578-7896 or email garygbaby@aol.com.

Saints and Symbols for July: Saint Anne: The mother of Our Lady, whose loving care of her daughter is shown by the silver border with black masonry. The lily refers to the girlhood of the Virgin.

July Highlights: July is usually hot and a time for relaxing. It is also the time when crops planted in the spring are maturing and growing. Just as the crops are dependent upon summer rains not only to grow but to survive so our spiritual development is dependent upon our frequenting the sacraments and receiving the Blood of Christ. The month of July is dedicated to The Precious Blood of Jesus. The entire month falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful, the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. It is used in the offices and Masses of Ordinary Time.

As we celebrate let us remember to pray that God will strengthen and bless America and make our nation a haven of liberty and justice for all.

"When individuals and communities are guaranteed the effective exercise of their rights, they are not only free to realize their potential, they also contribute to the welfare and enrichment of society.

~ From Pope Francis' Remarks at Independence Hall (2015)

And on the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue; and many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get all this? What is the wisdom given to him? What mighty works are wrought by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house (Mk 6:2-4)."

Prayer

O God, who in the abasement of Your Son have raised up a fallen world, fill Your faithful with holy joy, for on those You have rescued from slavery to sin, You bestow eternal gladness. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

With so many Christian "brands" out there—Catholic and Protestant, evangelical and contemplative, high church or pop church—it's easy to wonder who's got Jesus right. Interpreting his significance is key to the church's mission. Still, Jesus' identity has been debated since his own generation. Mark's gospel, the earliest written, betrays a perceived shadow on Jesus' paternity: He's identified as Mary's son rather than the son of Joseph, as would have been customary. Later gospels replace what was seen at the time as a less-than-honorable reference by calling Jesus the "carpenter's son." The question remains: Is Jesus more than a human sage? Is he Lord of your life?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 2:2-5; 2 Corinthians 12:7-10; Mark 6:1-6a (101). "Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon?"

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL

Seek the common ground of reconciliation

The world is rife with conflict. Many friends, family, coworkers, and neighbors are at odds over politics, racial strife, and pandemic behavior and vaccines. After all this, it can be hard to ever feel the same way about certain people in our lives. But we're called to be peacemakers nonetheless—and that starts with our personal relationships. Saint Elizabeth of Portugal brokered peace in her family to stop civil war. We've never needed her brand of reconciliation more.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 28:10-22a; Matthew 9:18-26 (383). "Courage, daughter! Your faith has saved you."

Tuesday, Jul 06, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MARIA GORETTI, VIRGIN, MARTYR

A mission of mercy

Pope Francis proclaimed an extraordinary Year of Mercy in 2015, but it was one of the Catholic Church's youngest saints—11-year-old Maria Goretti—who took the message abroad. The Pilgrimage of Mercy, featuring Maria's major relics, traveled across the United States that year, attracting multitudes to veneration, prayer, and the sacrament of Reconciliation. Canonized a modern-day "virgin martyr," dying at the hands of a would-be rapist in 1902, this humble Italian girl became "The Little Saint of Great Mercy" for forgiving her murderer upon her deathbed. Who do you need to forgive? Let Maria's example be a reminder of what is possible.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 32:23-33; Matthew 9:32-38 (384). "His heart was moved with pity for them."

Wednesday, Jul 07, 2021

Harden not your heart

In 2018, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) issued a pastoral letter against racism: Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love. In that letter, the bishops remind us that as a nation "we have never sufficiently contended with the impact of racism." In a week when the United States honors the founding principles of this country and that all are created equal, people of faith are called to examine their own perceptions and practices and do their part to ensure equality for all people. Embrace the bishops' invitation to fight the evil of racism and take time this week to read and reflect on their letter:

Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 41:55-57; 42:5-7a, 17-24a; Matthew 10:1-7 (385). "As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

Thursday, Jul 08, 2021

Sometimes the miracle is endurance

The gospel for today refers to the amazing powers Jesus conferred upon his followers to cure and revive. But we know many people in Jesus' day and today do not experience a miracle cure but instead must bear a cross. Our faith gives us the wisdom to know how and when to bear suffering when a solution is absent and when to struggle against injustice; both can be paths to God. Indeed, miracles themselves, the church teaches, are not merely wondrous events; they are meant to transform us and bring us closer to God. Which way are you being called right now? To struggle against suffering and injustice? Or to bow to a cross in your life? Over a lifetime, we may be called to both paths.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 44:18-21, 23b-29; 45:1-5; Matthew 10:7-15 (386). "Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, drive out demons."

Friday, Jul 09, 2021

Hang in there

Each of us will be put to the test when it comes to our faith. How we react to tragedy, scorn, injustice, boredom, betrayal, illness, and loss will present moments of truth for us. Will our faith endure? Saint Paul tells the Romans that "tribulation brings about perseverance; and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope." Paul knew a thing or two about perseverance. His lengthy missionizing sea journeys covered something on the magnitude of 10,000 miles and many months on often rough seas. When you feel tested, turn to Paul for inspiration. Stay the course!

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 46:1-7, 28-30; Matthew 10:16-23 (387). "Whoever endures to the end will be saved."

Saturday, Jul 10, 2021

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Ever Virgin, ever esteemed

It is ironic but true that the Blessed Virgin Mary is mentioned more times in Islam's Qur'an than in the Christian New Testament. Parts of two chapters of the Qur'an are devoted to Mary. Much like in the gospel of Luke, one chapter tells the story of the events leading up to the birth of Jesus. The other speculates about Mary's family, her parents and siblings, making linguistic parallels to the family of Moses. As in Catholic tradition, Islam considers the Mother of Jesus the greatest of all women of faith. The spiritual influence of the Virgin Mary transcends even religious differences.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 49:29-32; 50:15-26a; Matthew 10:24-33 (388). "Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known."
