AUGUST 8, 2021 • NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's DeskDear friends in Christ,*

So, food-wise, what is your guilty pleasure? What do you find yourself craving after a day when everything has gone wrong, or after a tough day at work, or upon hearing bad news that you can't make better? For me, it's a steaming bowl of orecchiette pasta, translated "little ears," covered with Sunday tomato sauce and Romano cheese, freshly grated. My Mom used to make it and now, as a married deacon, my wife, Peggy, has continued to make Mamma Iannarino's sauce that still hits the spot. Maybe that's why it satisfies me, protects me, nourishes me, and heals me. It's my comfort food of choice.

For someone else, it could be a hot fudge sundae or red beans and rice or pot roast or pierogis or French fries. For a noticeably depressed Elijah, as we heard in the first reading, it was an angelic hearth cake and a jug of cold water, perhaps because it reminded him of the manna that fed the Chosen People as they wandered the desert after leaving Egypt.

Jesus wants the people to understand that He is the Bread of Life, more nourishing and life-sustaining than even the historic manna. And so, He is saying to us that, whatever ails us, whatever our problems, we need only to come to the table of plenty where the Eucharist will give us all the comfort we need. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord!

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us.

2021 Columbus Italian Festival
Sponsored by Catholic Church News

GREAT NEWS: The 2021 Columbus Italian Festival is a go. With no city or state restrictions we are moving forward. Please go to the website for updates and volunteer opportunities. We have a form to complete if you want to volunteer. Please stay tuned for our progress. We look forward to seeing everyone at the Festival!!!! We thank everyone for their past and continued support in this wonderful event.

Italian Festival – Beer and Alcohol Server Training will be Sunday, August 8, at 11:00 a.m. at St. John the Baptist Church, 720 Hamlet Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, Parking lot at the southwest corner of Hamlet Street and E. Lincoln Street. Meeting in Marrapese Hall.

Alcohol Server Knowledge (ASK) Training is now required for all those wishing to distribute beer and alcohol. The training, led by Agent Kelly Murnane, will provide us with the essentials to protect you and the Festival from violating the law while volunteering. Agent Murnane will share with us the requirements in serving an individual as well as the personal consequences should any of us serve to those that are restricted.

WHY: It's REQUIRED. No, you will not be distributing alcohol if you do not attend. Along with protecting yourself and the Church with these regulations, we would also very much appreciate the opportunity for open dialogue regarding your experience serving. We seek to provide a great experience for all those visiting the Festival by efficiency with workflow at entry, ticket sales and alcohol distribution. We also seek consistency in serving beer and alcohol to ensure reasonable yields and customer satisfaction.

TRAINING DURATION: A short 45-60 minutes is all we are anticipating. Maybe shorter depending on the number of questions and dialogue we have.

“Rather than being concerned only with material bread, let us welcome Jesus as the bread of life and, starting out from our friendship with him, yearn to love each other; Freely and without calculation.”

~ Pope Francis

“Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die (John 6:46-50).”

Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, whom, taught by the Holy Spirit, we dare to call our Father, bring, we pray, to perfection in our hearts the spirit of adoption as Your sons and daughters, that we may merit to enter the inheritance which You have promised. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Let living water flow

Jesus said, "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink" will be rewarded (Matt. 10:42). How much more so if we champion clean water rights for all. Have you ever tried to run a bath, only to have sludge emerge from the pipes? Have you visited a familiar lake and found its normally clear water unfit for swimming? Have you gotten sick from drinking from a contaminated spring, or developed a rash from washing in your own sink? Folks around the world and in parts of our own country have had this experience often. Take time to learn what you can do locally and globally to ensure access to what Pope Francis calls a "basic and universal human right"—safe drinking water.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:4-8; Ephesians 4:30—5:2; John 6:41-51 (116). "Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water."

MEMORIAL OF TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS, VIRGIN, MARTYR

Pick up a page-turner of faith

Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross was born Edith Stein in 1891 and was killed at Auschwitz in 1942. She was a German Jewish philosopher who had been an atheist, although she had admired Christians she knew. She shocked everyone by becoming Catholic and, 11 years later, a Carmelite nun. Her conversion was prompted by an all-night reading of the autobiography of Saint Teresa of Ávila, a 16th-century Carmelite also of Jewish origins. Pick up a copy of the autobiographies of both these riveting saints—and see how they contribute to your own ongoing conversion.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 10:12-22; Matthew 17:22-27 (413). "And they were overwhelmed with grief."

Tuesday, Aug 10, 2021

FEAST OF LAWRENCE, DEACON, MARTYR

Find your way to serve

Lawrence was one of seven deacons martyred in Rome under Emperor Valerian in 258. The word deacon—from the Greek word for service—describes the work of these early ministers: beginning with the first seven deacons mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles, appointed to serve the everyday needs of the flock while the apostles busied themselves with evangelization. Today's Catholic deacons are ordained; permanent deacons can preach at Mass and preside over weddings, Baptisms, and funerals—while transitional deacons later become priests. Learn more at nadd.org.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 9:6-10; John 12:24-26 (618). "Where I am, there also will my servant be."

Wednesday, Aug 11, 2021

MEMORIAL OF CLARE, VIRGIN

Hope lights the way

Saint Clare, founder of the Poor Clare order of nuns, is part of a long line of women and men who gave up everything for the sake of following Christ, and, in turn, inspired others to join them on their holy journey. Often meeting significant resistance, these brave souls persevered, driven by a passion to bring God's Good News to the world. "Like a shooting star against the dark sky of injustice and ignorance, founders of religious communities lit up the landscape with a burst of hope," says Precious Blood Father Joe Nassal. Saint Gaspar, the founder of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, like Saint Clare hoped to free people from the chains of societal conformity. Clare chose to do it within the confines of a cloister; Gaspar, as an itinerant preacher. Both were being true to themselves and the gospel. Follow your own path toward hope.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 34:1-12; Matthew 18:15-20 (415). "His eyes were undimmed and his vigor unabated."

Thursday, Aug 12, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL, RELIGIOUS

Love lifted her higher

Jane Frances de Chantal, a French widow who founded the Visitation Nuns in 1610, was a well-off, educated woman with administrative talent and deep faith who was widowed at age 28. Obligated to live with a cruel father-in-law, she coped by pouring herself into charity work and spiritual development, eventually teaming up with Saint Francis de Sales to found a religious community. Have you ever coped with difficulties by trying to become a better person? What trial in your life could nudge you toward greater goodness?

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 3:7-10a, 11, 13-17; Matthew 18:21—19:1 (416). "Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan."

Friday, Aug 13, 2021

MEMORIAL OF PONTIAN, POPE, AND HIPPOLYTUS, PRIEST, MARTYRS

What unites is greater than what divides

Pope Pontian and Hippolytus were both imprisoned in Sardinia during Roman persecutions. Before their deaths in 235, Pontian and Hippolytus reconciled, because for a time the two were archenemies. Indeed, Hippolytus had been elected antipope by his followers who were in stark opposition to Pontian's tolerant stance on reconciling returning Christians to the church. In the end, Pontian and Hippolytus realized that their shared love of Christ far surpassed any differences. Finding one common element with an enemy is the first step toward reconciliation. Perhaps we can start with our shared humanity and work our way from there.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 24:1-13; Matthew 19:3-12 (417). "I gave you a land that you had not tilled and cities that you had not built, to dwell in."

Saturday, Aug 14, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MAXIMILIAN KOLBE, PRIEST, MARTYR

Give a piece of your heart

Maximilian Kolbe shook up the rules for saint-making. At Kolbe's 1982 canonization, Pope John Paul II named him a "martyr of charity." No longer could one become a martyr only by being killed because of "hatred for the faith." Now one killed because of charitable work, as Maximilian was, could also be a martyr. This opened the door to sainthood for others who were murdered for their good work, like Notre Dame Sister Dorothy Stang of Brazil, the Adorers of the Blood of Christ sisters of Liberia, or the Maryknoll sisters of El Salvador. We are all called in some way to be martyrs, even if we give away only a part of our lives. Give away a piece of your life today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Joshua 24:14-29; Matthew 19:13-15 (418). "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
