MARK 10:43

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk

Dear friends in Christ,

Where do I begin? Many, many, many thanks go out to all who were involved in the 41st Columbus Italian Festival last weekend here on the campus of Saint John the Baptist. There were so many parishioners involved and, with the help of the wonderful weather God gave us, this parish will once again be able to do so much good by helping those throughout our diocese that are needy, as well as help our young people to continue their education through the Marrapese Scholarship opportunities that were the founding purpose when the Festival began in 1981.

- To Gina Bishop, John Huffman, Rick Brunetto, Pat Rossetti, Blaise Marcucci, Ed Pagnanelli, Dale Romick, Mark Agriesti, Patty Weimer, the Ushers, Kevin Koesters and Jeff Squeo, the Knights of Columbus, and Statue Honor Guard who oversaw, assisted, and set up the 10:30 a.m. outdoor Mass. I received so many compliments on how sacred the Mass was prayed both in English and Italian. The music was inspiring, and we were doubly blessed to have Bishop Brennan with us. We continue to wish him well as he begins his new journey as the Bishop of the Diocese of Brooklyn.
- I can't begin to tell you how much we owe to the Italian Festival Executive Board. They consistently give of their time and expertise to oversee and steer this event year after year: Rick Brunetto, Landa Masdea-Brunetto, John Contino, Michael Cua, Amy Militello, Vince Militello, Margaret Panico-Harn, Carol Ristucci, Dave Ross, Pat Rossetti, and Tina Solazzo. They are THE BEST!
- To our Executive Assistant, Aggie Howard; our secretary, Vicky Gammell; the Festival's Executive Director, Adam Montemarano of Rising Star Productions; and the Festival's Budget and Finance Director, Susan Guy. They are here day after day working behind the scenes making sure the wishes of the parish and the Executive Board are carried out. They make it possible for a true weekend of Faith, Family and Friends.

Finally, I wish I could mention every name of the countless volunteers, neighbors, sponsors, and supporters who tirelessly give their time; work the booths; decorate; clean tables, stack chairs, pick-up trash, sweep sidewalks, etc. and basically did anything they could to help anyone who needed assistance. You truly showed us exactly who Jesus is in today's gospel:

"...whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave to all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve..."

May Almighty God continue to bless you abundantly and may good Saint John the Baptist and all the founders and former workers of this wonderful event who have gone before us and now share everlasting life...PRAY FOR US!

Have a great week and, hopefully, we will see you next year for the 42nd Columbus Italian Festival!

Grazie!
Deacon Frank

It emphasizes the fact that Christ is the salvation of all men, especially of the repentant sinner and of the lowly.

"If we desire a more fraternal world, we need to educate the younger generation to acknowledge, appreciate and love each person, regardless of physical proximity, place of birth or where they live."

~ From the Twitter account of Pope Francis (@Pontifex)

And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him, and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" (Mk 10:35-38)

Prayer:

Almighty ever-living God, grant that we may always conform our will to Yours and serve Your majesty in sincerity of heart. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Come face-to-face with Jesus

Spiritual truths often sound mysterious and paradoxical. God is a Trinity; Jesus is human and divine; the last will be first. But not everything in the life of faith is a mystery. Take poverty. It's where Jesus said we'd always see him face to face. Poverty's roots are well understood: malnutrition, limited healthcare, unsafe housing, dangerous work conditions, unequal access to justice, and no political voice. In founding today's Poverty Eradication Day, French priest Joseph Wresinski dared us to rewrite these terms of modern civilization. Pray the Rosary's Sorrowful Mysteries and commit to undercutting poverty's roots.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 53:10-11; Hebrews 4:14-16; Mark 10:35-45 (146). "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant."

FEAST OF LUKE, EVANGELIST

First in line for Marian devotion

As the author of the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles, Luke the Evangelist penned over a quarter of the New Testament—more than anyone else. The Virgin Mary has a special place in his gospel—it is only here that we find the story of the Annunciation, her visit to Elizabeth, the Presentation of the infant Jesus in the temple, and the finding of the child Jesus preaching in the temple. In art, Luke is sometimes depicted painting images of Mary (and he is the patron saint of painters). Revisit the richness of what we know about Mary thanks to Luke by giving his gospel another good read.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 4:10-17b; Luke 10:1-9 (661). "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN DE BRÉBEUF AND ISAAC JOGUES, PRIESTS, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Learn the language of God's love

In 1642, Jesuit missionary John de Brébeuf penned "The Huron Carol." Drawing from the experience of indigenous Americans, it lauds a babe born into modest means—wrapped in a "ragged robe of rabbit skin." Instead of shepherds and Magi, Native American hunters and chiefs arrive to pay homage to "Jesus, your King." While the famous Canadian carol comes under some cultural scrutiny in modern times, it also gets credit for preserving the Huron/Wendat language it was written in. Mostly, it reminds us to speak other people's languages—figuratively, if not literally—when sharing the Good News.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 5:12, 15b, 17-19, 20b-21; Luke 12:35-38 (474). "Where sin increased, grace overflowed all the more."

MEMORIAL OF PAUL OF THE CROSS, PRIEST

Need some passion in your life?

"Passion" is a fiery word with various meanings, from an intense love relationship to an activity that we give our all to. Christians also have a unique understanding of "passion" as the suffering and death of Jesus. Saint Paul of the Cross was so fired up by this that he founded a religious community dedicated to the Passion of Jesus. But wait a minute, how did we get from intense love to suffering? Paul makes the connection for us—the Passion is about Jesus' great love, a love so great that he was willing to suffer and die for us. Take a moment to reflect anew what you live—or would die—passionately for.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 6:12-18; Luke 12:39-48 (475). "But thanks be to God that . . . you have become obedient from the heart."

Thursday, Oct 21, 2021

God at work

Summer vacations are now a faded memory as workplaces and schools operate at full swing. The Catholic Church has a rich tradition of seeing work as more than a necessity and duty. Through work we transform nature—a creative act, just as God's ongoing creation of the world is a creative act. A job that contributes to well-being can also be a path toward personal fulfillment. Whatever your work involves today, offer it up to God and take note of how God is able to work through you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 6:19-23; Luke 12:49-53 (476). "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!"

MEMORIAL OF JOHN PAUL II, POPE

Reasonable faith

In this era of "alternative facts," it is challenging to find the truth. Saint John Paul II gave us good counsel on seeking truth. In the encyclical letter Fides et Ratio ("Faith and Reason") he wrote, ". . . believers do not surrender. They can continue on their way to the truth because they are certain that God has created them 'explorers,' whose mission it is to leave no stone unturned, though the temptation to doubt is always there. Leaning on God, they continue to reach out, always and everywhere, for all that is beautiful, good and true." How might you be an "explorer" in situations where truth is difficult to find?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 7:18-25a; Luke 12:54-59 (477). "Why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?"

Saturday, Oct 23, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOHN OF CAPISTRANO, PRIEST

You get as good as you give

Jesus, his disciples, and the early evangelists were all clear about one thing: "the wages of sin is death." Beyond physical death, the selfishness of sin cuts off our relationship with God and the opportunity for true peace and joy. Paying attention to the needs of others as well as yourself keeps us alive in Christ. Study after study shows that happiness comes from social connectedness and a spirit of generosity. Franciscan Saint John Capistrano says of the faithful: "The brightness of their wisdom must make them like the light of the world that brings light to others." Ponder the ways that you can acquire wisdom to share with others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 8:1-11; Luke 13:1-9 (478). "The concern of the flesh is death, but the concern of the spirit is life and peace."
