THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk*Dear friends in Christ,*

Today, we celebrate the 31st Sunday of Ordinary Time. It falls on the threshold as we begin the month of November by honoring the Feasts of All Saints/All Souls. November 1st is normally a Holy Day of Obligation. Because it falls on a Monday, the Holy Day is "abrogated" – which means that Catholics are not obliged to attend Mass.

However, if possible, I want to encourage you to attend Mass one of those days at a local parish near you and remember those family members and friends who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. Many local parishes will have special celebrations to honor their parishioners who died this last year. Once again, beginning this weekend, we will place the Book of the Remembrance of the Dead near the Saint Joseph Altar (patron of a happy death) for you to inscribe the names of those you know who have died. It will remain in our sanctuary throughout the month of November. Praying for those who have died is one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy and a wonderful way to Love God and Love our neighbor.

Love of God and Love of neighbor is at the core of the Christian Faith, but it is not unique to Christianity. In our readings this weekend from the Gospel of Mark, Jesus was speaking to a Jewish scribe as a Jewish man. Both the directive to love God above all else and the command to love your neighbor as yourself were drawn from the Hebrew Scripture (Old Testament). Jesus did not invent these two statements. The novelty of Jesus' interpretation was combining these two commandments together as being central to Jewish Law.

As we celebrate the Eucharist together today and, hopefully, in the next couple of days, may we go out into the world to share the Good News of Jesus Christ by keeping these two commandments at the core of our expression of faith, while never forgetting the importance of prayer for one another – living or sharing eternal life.

Saint John the Baptist – and all those in the Communion of Saints – pray for us.

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

AROUND US

A Guide to Plenary Indulgences for the All Souls' "Octave," November 1-8 Visiting a Cemetery: An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from November 1-8; on other days of the year, it is a partial indulgence.

Liturgical Calendar: With the exception of the last three days, the entire month of November falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. Green is a symbol of hope, as it is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. The liturgical color green is worn during the praying of Offices and celebration of Masses of Ordinary Time. The last portion of the liturgical year represents the time of our pilgrimage to heaven during which we hope for reward.

The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls. The month of November is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory, whose feast is celebrated on November 2. The last Sunday, which marks the beginning of Advent, the liturgical color changes to purple, representing a time of penance.

Holy Father's Intention for November 2021: We pray that people who suffer from depression or burnout will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

November 1: Solemnity of All Saints: Today, the Church celebrates all the saints: canonized or beatified, and the multitude of those who are in heaven enjoying the beatific vision that is only known to God. During the early centuries, the Saints venerated by the Church were all martyrs. Later, the Popes set November 1 as the day for commemorating all the Saints. We all have this "universal call to holiness." What do we need to do to join the company of the saints in heaven? We "must follow in His footsteps and conform [our]selves to His image seeking the will of the Father in all things. [We] must devote [our]selves with all [our] being to the glory of God and the service of [our] neighbor. In this way, the holiness of the People of God will grow into an abundant harvest of good, as is admirably shown by the life of so many saints in Church history" (Lumen Gentium, 40).

November: Month of Holy Souls: Our Catholic Faith teaches us to cherish the memory of our dead. It urges us to commune in prayer, especially at Mass, with the souls of those we loved while they walked this earth. We are continually reminded that "life is changed, not ended." Throughout November, St. John's Book of the Faithful Departed will be near the St. Joseph Altar. Please record the names of your loved ones. Those listed will be remembered at all Masses throughout November.

Sacred Heart Congress is celebrating their 10th Anniversary November 6, 2021, from 9:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m. at St. Paul the Apostle Church, 313 North State Street, Westerville, Ohio. Registration is at 9:00 a.m. and is $10.00 for Individuals and $20.00 for Families. Online streaming available at www.WelcomeHisHeart.com. Featuring fabulous presenters and Holy Mass with Bishop Brennan. Other presenters, Emcee Bill Messerly, Fr. Joseph Laramie, SJ, Fr. Peter John Cameron, O.P. and Emily Jaminet.

Catholic Men's Luncheon Club: Friday, November 5, 2021. Father Michael Hartge will address Catholic Men's Luncheon Club on Friday, November 5, 2021. Please join us Friday, November 5 at St. Patrick Church in downtown Columbus for lunch and to hear Father Michael Hartge, Moderator of the Curia, speak about the Columbus Diocese's Real Presence, Real Future initiative. Holy Mass (optional) begins at 11:45 a.m., followed by lunch at 12:10 p.m. and Father Hartge's remarks. Free parking available in the Columbus State Grant Avenue parking lot (25-S) across the street from St. Patrick. No reservations are necessary. $10.00 covers the lunch and meeting. Bring a friend! For information on Catholic Men's Luncheon Club, visit www.catholicmensministry.com/cmlc. Our December luncheon will feature newly ordained Fr. Stephen Ondrey.

"The preaching of the Gospel reinvigorates hope because it reminds us that god is present in everything. He accompanies us and gives us the courage and creativity we need to start forever anew"

~ From the Twitter account of Pope Francis (@Pontifex)

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these (Mk 12:28-31)."

Prayer: Almighty and merciful God, by whose gift Your faithful offer You right and praiseworthy service, grant, we pray, that we may hasten without stumbling to receive the things You have promised. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Now and at the hour of our death

All Hallows' Evening (contracted to Hallowe'en) begins the liturgical period of All Hallowtide, when saints, martyrs, and the departed in general are kept in special memory. Hallowed means consecrated, as the souls of the dead are in God's hands. All of the holy and troubled souls who have gone before us—represented by trick-or-treaters dressed as superheroes or vampires among others—are worthy of our mindful recollection and prayers.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 6:2-6; Hebrews 7:23-28; Mark 12:28b-34 (152). "Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone!"

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Keep on marching

There are more than 10,000 saints venerated by the Catholic Church. (The exact number is a little unclear since some early saints may be more legendary than historical.) A lot of them are fairly new—Pope John Paul II (himself a saint) canonized more saints than all the popes in the previous 500 years combined. What does it mean to be a saint? A saint is anyone in heaven, whether canonized or not, and could include your own late family and friends. It doesn't mean they were perfect in life, but that they kept trying to live a holy life. Saints form the "great cloud of witnesses" and they're all cheering for you as you strive to be a saint, too.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door

From the earliest days of Christianity—as believers shared Eucharist in the catacombs, alongside the dead—we Catholics have woven prayers for our dearly departed into many observances: every celebration of the Mass, praying the Rosary, annual parish-wide remembrances of the dead throughout November—even incorporating elements of Día de los Muertos from Latino tradition. We pray so that all souls who've been detoured through purgatory might, with our prayerful help, enjoy triumphant entry into heaven. As you remember your own dearly departed today, celebrate in Día de los Muertos style: Pray with their photos, visit their graves, enjoy their favorite foods.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40 (668). "Everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life."

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, RELIGIOUS

United in our diversity

Born in colonial Peru in 1579 to a mix of Spanish, African, and indigenous ancestors, Martin de Porres was barred from full membership in a religious order in his racially stratified society. Martin was not deterred, however, and his gifts as a healer and spiritual leader elevated him to a position of great renown and respect within the Dominican order and Peruvian society. Today, there is a 61 percent chance that two people selected at random in the United States will be of different racial or ethnic backgrounds, according to the 2020 Census. As patron saint of race relations and those of diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds, Martin offers inspiration to all of us to work for social justice in our increasingly diverse nation.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 13:8-10; Luke 14:25-33 (487).

"Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple."

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEIO, BISHOP

Times that try our souls

It's a tricky business to take stock of the "signs of the times," as Vatican II urged us to do. One person who was good at assessing the strengths and flaws of his culture was Saint Charles Borromeo (1538-84), a reformer who used his education and power as bishop to heal and repair the church. Pray that the Holy Spirit give us wisdom to perceive how God is present today, and to help bring about that presence where it seems to be lacking.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 14:7-12; Luke 15:1-10 (488). "There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people."

Friday, Nov 05, 2021

What would Jesus not do?

It's easy to understand why evangelism is so compelling. We can't wait to share the awesome news of finding our heart's treasure in Jesus the Christ and the Catholic faith. But we must also take great care in evangelism so that we do not end up "colonizing" others, that is, assuming there is nothing good or godly in another person or group and imposing our own "enlightened" ways upon them. Jesus certainly does not do this. Instead, he shows by his own life the love of God and he looks where God already is in the world and in people's lives. In what ways can we safeguard respect for others and God in our own call to be evangelists?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 15:14-21; Luke 16:1-8 (489). "I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me."

Inspiration knows no bounds

Jesus' life and ministry broke open the "old wineskins" of religious and social customs. Inspired by his example, the early church was remarkably diverse and creative, and women played key roles every step of the way. Priscilla (or Prisca, her formal name), along with her husband, Aquila, were companions of Saint Paul and prominent leaders in the early church—and Priscilla's name usually appears first when they are mentioned in the New Testament, a hint of her esteemed position. She instructed the learned Apollos, and some commentators think she may have had a hand in authoring the epistle to the Hebrews. Raise a glass to new wineskins—may they continue to pour out the Spirit!

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 16:3-9, 16, 22-27; Luke 16:9-15 (490). "Greet Prisca and Aquila, my co-workers in Christ Jesus, who risked their necks for my life."
