THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St. John the Baptist Church

From the Deacon's Desk*Dear friends in Christ,*

Today, we welcome Deacon Jim Kelly as our "Deacon of the Month." Deacon Jim was ordained in 2008 by Bishop James Griffin at Saint Joseph Cathedral. He has served in diaconal ministry since his ordination at Saint Pius X Parish in Reynoldsburg.

We see in our readings this weekend examples of total giving. Yet, Jesus does not discount the rich who gave some. He simply pointed out that the widow gave much more. Giving is not always about money. Giving, which should feel good even if it hurts a little, should not cause guilt. We are not called to be destitute. Sometimes a small gift can be priceless. God appreciates all that we give. Sometimes we give more than at other times.

No matter how much or how little we have, God calls us to give our entire lives to God. Every Eucharist links us with the Passion, death, and Resurrection of Jesus, giving us the grace to live out our Baptism – whether the situation is easy or difficult.

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us!

Have a good week,
Deacon Frank

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: With the exception of the last three days, the entire month of November falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. Green is a symbol of hope, as it is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. The liturgical color green is worn during the praying of Offices and celebration of Masses of Ordinary Time. The last portion of the liturgical year represents the time of our pilgrimage to heaven during which we hope for reward.

The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls. The month of November is dedicated to the Souls in Purgatory, whose feast is celebrated on November 2. The last Sunday, which marks the beginning of Advent, the liturgical color changes to purple, representing a time of penance.

November: Month of Holy Souls: Our Catholic Faith teaches us to cherish the memory of our dead. It urges us to commune in prayer, especially at Mass, with the souls of those we loved while they walked this earth. We are continually reminded that “life is changed, not ended.” Throughout November, St John’s Book of the Faithful Departed will be near the St. Joseph Altar. Please record the names of your loved ones. Those listed will be remembered at all Masses throughout November.

Holy Father's Intention for November 2021: We pray that people who suffer from depression or burnout will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

National Vocation Awareness Week, November 7-13:

Today begins Vocation Awareness Week. As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations – and teaching young people how to discern God's call – is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life – children, grandchildren, students, and friends – to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life.

100% Focused on Increasing Vocations

The mission of Vianney Vocations is to renew the Church by inspiring a new generation of priestly and religious vocations.

We are a team of communications experts, committed to Jesus and His Church, who help Vocation Offices to effectively reach young Catholics and inspire them to open their hearts to God's call.

Since 2009, Vianney Vocations has focused solely on promoting priestly and religious vocations, working with more than one hundred Vocation Offices.

Discernment Opportunities

For Men: Melchizedek Project at the Josephinum, 7625 N. High Street. Led by Seminarians. Meets the first and third Wednesday of the month (began November 3) at 6:00 p.m. Includes dinner and discussion and concludes with Night Prayer. Email seminarian John Haemmerle at columbusquovadis@gmail.com to RSVP or for more information.

For Women: AVOW at St. Brendan Church, 4475 Dublin Road, Hilliard. Led by Dominican Sisters (but discerning among all of the religious orders). The group meets on the first Thursday of each month from 6:30-7:30 p.m. Contact Fr. Hahn, Director of Vocations, 614-221-5565, vocations@columbuscatholic.org if you are interested.

Committed to Renewal

Our goal is the same as yours: to create a culture in which all Catholics – from children to adults – view the priesthood and religious life as worthy vocations to serve Christ and His Church.

We believe that the basic, underlying condition for an increase in vocations is committed Christian discipleship. Only when young people fully give their lives to Jesus will they be truly open to His call in their lives.

From these disciples, we believe God is calling a sufficient number of future priests and religious who are "ardent yet gentle heralds of the Gospel." But it is up to the whole Church to amplify God's call. For more information, go to Vianneyvocations.com.

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development: The CCHD Collection will be on the weekend of November 21-22, the Sunday before Thanksgiving. Help break the cycle of poverty. For more information about how CCHD is working on the margins, go online at www.usccb.org/cchd or contact the diocesan Office for Social Concerns at (614) 241-2540.

CATHOLIC MEN'S LUNCHEON CLUB: Newly-ordained Father Stephen Ondrey will address Catholic Men's Luncheon Club on Friday, December 3, 2021. Traditionally, one of the newly-ordained priests in the diocese speaks at the December luncheon and shares his vocation story. Please join us Friday, December 3 at St. Patrick Church in downtown Columbus for lunch and to hear newly-ordained Father Stephen Ondrey, Parochial Vicar at Seton Parish, share his vocation story. The December luncheon is sponsored by the Serra Clubs of Columbus that promote and support vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. More information about Serra Clubs of Columbus is available at www.serracolumbus.org. Holy Mass (optional) begins at 11:45 a.m. followed by lunch at 12:10 p.m. and Father Ondrey's remarks. Free parking available in the Columbus State Grant Avenue parking lot (25-S) across the street from St. Patrick. No reservations are necessary. $10.00 covers the lunch and meeting. Bring a friend! For information on Catholic Men's Luncheon Club, visit www.catholicmensministry.com/cmlc. Our next luncheon is February 4, 2022, when the 2022 Catholic Man of the Year will be honored.

November 17: The Feast Day of St. Elizabeth of Hungary: Next week, the Church celebrates the memorial of St. Elizabeth of Hungary, religious. She was the daughter of Andrew II, King of Hungary, and wife of Duke Louis IV of Thuringia. She is famous for her great kindness and inexhaustible charity towards the poor and the sick. O God, by whose gift Saint Elizabeth of Hungary recognized and revered Christ in the poor, grant, through her intercession, that we may serve with unflinching charity the needy and those afflicted. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood (Mark 12:41-44)."

Prayer: Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep from us all adversity, so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart the things that are Yours. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A joyous calling

When we hear the word "vocation," the first thing that may come to mind is "sacrifice." Doesn't it imply God is asking us to give up something precious—like the rest of our lives and our freedom? No wonder we run from the idea whenever it surfaces! But if you ask a priest or religious sister or brother about what vocation means to them, words frequently uttered include joy, meaning, and peace. Listen to some who answered their inner longing speak of their joy here, and pray for vocations this National Vocation Awareness Week.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 17:10-16; Hebrews 9:24-28; Mark 12:38-44 (155). "[This widow], from her poverty, has contributed all she had."

Mary, all the way

Nuestra Señora de los Treinta y Tres, or Our Lady of the Thirty-Three, also known as the Liberator of Uruguay, is the patron of that country. The image of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary was venerated by a group of 33 revolutionaries whose actions led to the founding of modern Uruguay, and there are still pilgrimages every November to the cathedral where this image is enshrined. Mary helps all of us along the way, on the pilgrimage of life, to the liberation of her son. Honor her on her feast day today by offering prayers of praise to the one who set us free from sin.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 1:1-7; Luke 17:1-6 (491). "If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him."

Tuesday, Nov 09, 2021

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

We gather together

Saint Paul says we're each a temple of the Holy Spirit. Saint Peter calls us the "living stones" of the church. But having a physical place to gather and worship is of practical importance, too; it's where we forge the bonds of Christian community and celebrate Christ's Incarnation. And so, after Emperor Constantine's edict in 313—allowing persecuted Christians to come out of hiding and be public in their practice—it's significant that he gifted a young church with the Lateran properties. How can you help your own parish maintain Christian community, knowing COVID has kept many from physically gathering?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "No one can lay a foundation other than the one that is there, namely, Jesus Christ."

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Follow the good doctor's advice

The Latin word "doctor" means teacher, and so we have a number of them within the church to whom we look for inspiration and guidance on matters of significance of faith and belief. Leo the Great, whose feast we celebrate today, is one of those "doctors" whose teachings have helped form the foundation upon which we stand today as Catholic Christians. In Saint Leo's case, it was his defense of the doctrine of Christ's Incarnation—that Jesus is fully human and fully divine—that won him fame as a stalwart of the faith. Honor Leo by living fully the divine love showered upon you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 6:1-11; Luke 17:11-19 (493). "Authority was given you by the Lord and sovereignty by the Most High, who shall probe your works and scrutinize your counsels."

Thursday, Nov 11, 2021

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

Give us wisdom to confront and ease poverty

Saint Martin of Tours, today's saint, is famous for tearing his cloak in two to give half to a beggar. With poverty entrenched in our world, knowing how to overcome it ourselves or how to help those who are afflicted is a constant. Perhaps the Wisdom of God, uplifted in the first reading for today, can give guidance. In the footsteps of Saint Martin, we Christians turn to "Wisdom a spirit intelligent, holy, unique" to respond to the many kinds of pain inflicted by poverty.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 7:22b—8:1; Luke 17:20-25 (494). "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you."

Friday, Nov 12, 2021

MEMORIAL OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

Don't let passion trump compassion

Saint Josaphat, Basilian monk and church reformer, born around 1580, worked to consolidate the Eastern and Western Christian Churches and was part of the "uniat" camp in Lithuania that supported union with Rome. Try as he might, Josaphat couldn't persuade all of his compatriots of the value of a unified Catholic Church, and his detractors claimed he had "gone Latin." Those against the union eventually stormed the bishop's residence and murdered him. Passions run deep when it comes to religion and politics, but, like Josaphat, never lose sight of the ultimate commandment for Christians: to love neighbor, friend, and enemy alike.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 13:1-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). "If they so far succeeded in knowledge that they could speculate about the world, how did they not more quickly find its Lord?"

Saturday, Nov 13, 2021

MEMORIAL OF FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI, FOUNDER

Celebrate a saint for immigrants

As we wrap up National Vocation Awareness Week, we celebrate one of the truly great American vocations of the 20th century, Frances Xavier Cabrini. Mother Cabrini was the first U.S. citizen to be made a saint. She came to the United States from Italy in 1889 to help the flood of immigrants coming to America. Starting with nothing, she founded schools, orphanages, and hospitals to provide support for her fellow immigrants. In her spirit, reach out to immigrants in need—documented or otherwise—they are everywhere to be found these days.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 18:14-16; 19:6-9; Luke 18:1-8 (496). "Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
