

A detail from Giotto di Bondone's fresco 'The Betrayal of Jesus'. Jesus, with a halo and a golden robe, is being kissed on the cheek by Judas Iscariot, who is wearing a red robe. They are surrounded by other figures, some holding spears. The scene is set against a background of warm, golden and red tones. The text 'But to you who hear I say,' is written in a black, sans-serif font, curving over the top of the central scene.

But to you who hear I say,

love your enemies

do good to those who hate you.

Luke 6:27

February 20, 2022 | Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk*Dear friends in Christ,*

FEBRUARY may be the month for choosing a sweetheart or valentine according to the retail industry, but as we reflect on this point in the liturgical year, the Gospels gave us somewhat less romantic – though by no means less significant – choices before us.

On the first weekend of February, there was the decision whether to place our faith in the Word of God “fulfilled in our hearing” – and hopefully, we’ll make a better choice than the people of Nazareth did. We were also called to decide whether to believe more in our own sinfulness or in the power of God to summon us to holy service.

On the next weekend, the challenge was to try to choose between the smorgasbord of blessings and woes available to those who follow or reject God’s ways.

This weekend, we must weigh the worldly practice of “even-steven” against the Gospel mandate to love our enemies and to give without getting.

Finally, on the last Sunday in February, where we will stand on the threshold of the month of March and the spring season, we will prepare to enter the Lenten wilderness, where we must choose between Jesus and the devil himself.

Wow...what a month of some challenging messages from Christ. I am sure, like me, you are doing your best to allow the Gospel messages during this chilly month of February to speak to you as best they can, right?

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us
Have a good rest of the month,
Deacon Frank

AROUND US

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of February 2022: We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.

Liturgical Calendar: The month of February is dedicated to the Holy Family. The entire month of February falls during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. Green is the symbol of hope and the color of sprouting seeds, reminding the faithful of the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.

40 Days of Adoration: Starting on Ash Wednesday (March 2), Parishes throughout the diocese will host a day of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament during Lent. The purpose of this is twofold. The first is to celebrate the great gift of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Secondly, this time of prayer is also meant to help the Diocese for planning for the future presence of the Church and her mission of evangelization in the local community. St. Joseph Cathedral has the privilege of being the first parish for these days of Adoration. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will begin following the 7:30 a.m. Mass and will continue until 8:00 p.m., interrupted by the 11:00 a.m., 12:05 and 5:15 p.m. Masses.

The 25th Annual Men's Conference returns to an in-person format for 2022, and we need your help to spread the word and bring men to Christ! The Conference Planning Team (and the entire Leadership Team) of Catholic Men's Ministry is requesting your assistance to inform and engage men from your parish – or within your sphere of influence – by providing information about the 2022 Catholic Men's Conference. The health and well-being of attendees is a priority, and the Ministry wants to be certain that this information is sent along with details about the Conference – it will truly be an amazing day of faith, incredible speakers, food, and fellowship – and we don't want our men to miss it!

- Saturday, February 26, Kasich Hall, Ohio Expo Center
- Adoration, 6:00 a.m.
- Conference, 7:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

We are closely following news and updates as we implement best practices regarding masks, sanitation, and social distancing. There will be ample room to spread out in the seating and eating areas of the Conference. Come join us!

The Legacy: Enhance our children's learning experience by supporting our Home & School Association. Supporting the teachers, administrators, and staff, providing expanded hands-on learning experiences, and creating community-building activities for the families of Trinity Catholic. Please join us for an evening of dinner, drinks, live music, and fundraising. February 26th, 6:30-10:30 p.m., Our Lady of Victory, 1559 Roxbury Road. Tickets available at <https://trinitycatholiclegacyinvitation.eventbrite.com>.

North High Deanery: In 2021, Pope Francis announced a worldwide synod to focus on the life and mission of the Church as we move forward together. The theme for this synod is, "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission." Rather than simply a meeting of bishops, Pope Francis has asked us, the People of God, to take part in the synod – to "journey together" with our brothers and sisters in Christ along the path of renewal, guided by the Holy Spirit.

Our Deanery will conduct a synodal listening session at the Marian Hall of Immaculate Conception Church, 414 East North Broadway, Columbus, on Saturday, March 12, 1:00-3:00 p.m. This session will provide an opportunity to share our thoughts and feelings, but more importantly to discern how the Holy Spirit is guiding us in our journey together. Please join us for this important event by registering at this link: <https://columbuscatholic.org/events/synod-listening-meeting-north-high-deanery>.

Ohio Dominican Hosts Instant Admission Day: Students who are interested in enrolling at or transferring to Ohio Dominican University for the fall 2022 semester will have an opportunity to begin and complete the admission process during ODU's Instant Admission Day on Monday, February 21. The free event will take place from 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. in the Bishop James A. Griffin Student Center, located on ODU's campus at 1215 Sunbury Road, Columbus 43219. Register today by visiting ohiodominican.edu/AdmissionDay.

To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. (Luke 6:27-31)

SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

It's a long road to freedom

Justice feels good—if we're on the side of the angels when it's meted out. Which means in most cases, the struggle for justice will cost us. This was certainly true for Frederick Douglass (1818-95), born enslaved yet becoming the first black American to gain a vote for president of the United States. As he wrote in his 1852 July Fourth speech: "The . . . conscience of the nation must be roused . . . the hypocrisy of the nation must be exposed; and its crimes against God and man must be denounced." On this World Day of Social Justice, consider the price you're willing to pay for justice.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23; 1 Corinthians 15:45-49; Luke 6:27-38 (81). "Do to others as you would have them do to you."

MEMORIAL OF PETER DAMIAN, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Turn toward the good

Saint Peter Damian had two brothers—one bad, one good. The first treated him like a servant, the second had him educated, which led to Peter becoming a Benedictine monk. Humble and pious, he only reluctantly accepted when his community chose him to be their leader—and he was so good at it that some of those he directed became saints themselves. It was said of him that "his genius was to exhort and impel to the heroic, to praise striking achievements and to record edifying examples—an extraordinary force burns in all that he wrote." Like Peter, we've all encountered people who hold us down and others who lift us up. Which influence do you allow to shape you?

TODAY'S READINGS: James 3:13-18; Mark 9:14-29 (341). "Everything is possible to one who has faith."

Tuesday, Feb 22, 2022

FEAST OF THE CHAIR OF PETER THE APOSTLE

Please be seated

The topic of papal infallibility relates to today's feast. A pope only makes infallible statements of faith when he speaks ex cathedra—Latin for "from the chair." Cathedra, from which we also get the word "cathedral," refers to a bishop's throne, a visual symbol of authority and governance harkening back to monarchical times. It's symbolic of a bishop being the seat of government for a particular locality. In this case, the pope is actually bishop of Rome, as Saint Peter was . . . and the Roman Catholic Church recognizes Rome's bishop as having authority over all the rest. Pray for Peter's successor today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Peter 5:1-4; Matthew 16:13-19 (535). "And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church."

Wednesday, Feb 23, 2022

MEMORIAL OF POLYCARP, BISHOP, MARTYR

Make our mark

Saint Polycarp was born around the year 69, and it is said he was a direct student of Saint John, the evangelist, and may have compiled, edited, and published many of the texts now found in the New Testament. He helped advance recognition of Paul as an apostle and the now common practice of biblical interpretation. He suffered a martyr's death by proclaiming a higher authority than the Roman emperor. His dying prayer included the words: "Lord God Almighty, I bless you, for having made me worthy of this day and hour." Let the breadth and strength of Polycarp's faith be an inspiration as you strive to trust in the Lord during challenging times.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 4:13-17; Mark 9:38-40 (343). "There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me."

Thursday, Feb 24, 2022

Take a step toward wholeness

Today's gospel refers three times to Gehenna. Typically, Gehenna is interpreted as another term for hell. Who is in hell? Can we go to hell after we die? These questions have puzzled believers and scripture scholars for centuries, and the living cannot answer them from direct experience. The church teaches in the catechism that "this state of definitive self-exclusion from communion with God and the blessed is called 'hell.'" We know what separates us from God, and we know what unites us with God. Take a step today, no matter how small, to unite yourself with God.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 5:1-6; Mark 9:41-50 (344). "Salt is good, but if salt becomes insipid, with what will you restore its flavor? Keep salt in yourselves."

Friday, Feb 25, 2022

When together forever is causing real harm

Sometimes relationships don't work out. In the case of marriage, the Catholic Church urges reconciliation and offers pastoral help. But sometimes even reconciliation is impossible, especially when harm is present. That is why the church encourages people not to enter into marriage lightly, or any life commitment for that matter. The tools of discernment, prayer, spiritual reading, and seeking wise counsel can help you as you determine your best path. If you or a loved one need more information about beginning or ending a marriage or other life vocation, seek out the church's help.

TODAY'S READINGS: James 5:9-12; Mark 10:1-12 (345). "The Lord is compassionate and merciful."

Saturday, Feb 26, 2022

Learn some childish ways

The question of how children were viewed and treated in biblical times is a complicated one, but it seems safe to say they were often not extended the full rights and protections we assume for them today. The fact that Jesus treats them as fully formed persons, in fact as possessing qualities of innocence and trust that are essential for a full embrace of his saving message, would have struck his followers as remarkable. But Jesus has a way of turning our expectations upside down. What can you learn from the little persons in your own life?

TODAY'S READINGS: James 5:13-20; Mark 10:13-16 (346). "Whoever does not accept the Kingdom of God like a child will not enter it."
