THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk

Dear friends in Christ,

In the long view, life seems to be a series of transitions that never get any easier. Major life transitions vary from person to person – for example, going off to college, marriage, having children, moving to a new home, career changes, divorce, religious conversion, retirement, the death of a loved one, etc. Different as the transitions may be for each person, they are often both the difficult and defining moments of one's life.

As we celebrate this first Sunday of Lent, today's Gospel presents Jesus amid a major life change: His transition to public ministry. Almost nothing is said about Jesus life before His public ministry. When the time was right, Jesus steps out from the hidden life and into a public life that He knows will lead to suffering and death on the cross. To prepare for this traumatic life shift, Jesus goes to the desert for 40 days.

Transitions involve moments of struggle but also pause and promise, moments that can pattern our life in gratitude, help us find our center, and send us forth with the courage to trust God. As we embrace this Lenten season may it provide us an opportunity for repentance and new beginnings. This Lent, let us remember that God is with us as we orient our lives towards Gospel values.

St. John the Baptist, pray for us.
Happy Lent,
Deacon Frank

P.S. The Mass is available on St. John's Facebook page or YouTube channel, Saint John the Baptist, Cbus. Go to our website: www.sjbitaliana.com under Livestream Mass.

SACRED HEART
ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

There will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at Sacred Heart Church on April 2, 2022, from 9:00 a.m.-8:00 p.m. There will be a sign-up sheet in the Sala Hall on the back table for those who are interested in half-hour or 1-hour slots.

ST. JOSEPH'S DAY CELEBRATION
PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The Altar Guild: St. Joseph Day Pancake Celebration is Sunday, March 20, 2022, after Mass. The price $12.00/person (cash or check-checks made payable to St. John Altar Guild). Children 6 and under are free. The breakfast menu consists of pancakes, scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, fresh fruit, juice, and coffee. Please bring a dessert to share for the St. Joseph table. Tickets are available and will be sold by members of the Altar Guild as well as after Mass on Sundays. Thank you to Vince Militello and his team for volunteering to prepare breakfast for this celebration!

Thank you! A big thank-you to those who participated in the Ohio State and Super Bowl football pools! Congratulations to all the winners. An even bigger thank-you to Gary Bosco for spearheading the pools and contacting the winners. Lastly, all the money raised by the Altar Guild goes directly to the guild fund and is used to purchase items for our beautiful altar.

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: Except for the first day, the entire month of March falls during the liturgical season of Lent, which is represented by the liturgical color violet or purple – a symbol of penance, mortification and the sorrow of a contrite heart.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of March 2022: May Christians continue to defend the dignity of all human life with prayer and action.

Prayers for Ukraine: With the outbreak of war in Ukraine, the Diocese of Columbus urges all to join together today and every day in deep prayer for an immediate end to hostilities and a return to diplomatic dialogue that assures a real and lasting peace for all people in Ukraine, Europe, and the world. Pope Francis said "I encourage believers in a special way to dedicate themselves intensely to prayer and fasting. May the Queen of Peace preserve the world from the madness of war." In calling for fervent prayer around the world, Pope Francis also noted that, "Once again the peace of all is threatened by partisan interests" and appealed for those "with political responsibility to examine their consciences seriously before God, who is the God of peace and not of war, who is the Father of all, not just of some, who wants us to be brothers and not enemies."

Acts XXIX: The Rescue Project Live: This is another exciting opportunity for our Diocese to engage in prayer, to encounter Christ in the Eucharist and the Gospel, and to renew our call to conversion in our Real Presence, Real Future initiative.

Spring Cleanup: St. Joseph, Resurrection, Holy Cross and Mt. Calvary Catholic Cemeteries will begin removing wintertime decorations beginning March 15, weather permitting. Families are advised to remove any personal keepsakes they wish to retain as soon as possible.

SYNODAL PROCESS MEETINGS

Question 1:

The Synodal process invites each one of us - the People of God to recall that we journey together. Moreover, in that journey of faith, we are called to listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit.

- As you listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit, what have been the joys and obstacles in your journeying together with the church?
- Please share a brief story that illustrates your experience.

Question 2:

"Listening is the first step, but it requires an open mind and heart, without prejudice." (Preparatory Document no. 30) and "All are invited to speak with courage and parrhesia, that is, in freedom, truth, and charity." (Preparatory Document no. 30).

- How have you experienced the Church reaching out to those who are on the peripheries and marginalized, including cultural groups, women, the disabled, those who experience poverty, marginalization, or social exclusion?
- What enables or hinders you from speaking up courageously, candidly, and responsibly in your parish and society?

Question 3:

"Synodality is at the service of the mission of the Church, in which all members are called to participate. A Synodal church is a participatory and co-responsible Church." (Preparatory Document no. 30).

- How do we promote participation in decision-making within hierarchically structured communities?
- What hinders people from being active in your parish?
- How is authority or governance exercised in your local parish?

REUNIONES DEL PROCESO SINODAL

Pregunta 1:

"El proceso sinodal invita a cada uno de nosotros-el Pueblo de Dios- a recordar que "caminamos juntos". Además, en este camino de fe, estamos llamados a escuchar la voz del Espíritu Santo". (Documento preparatorio).

- Mientras escucha la voz del Espíritu Santo, ¿Cuáles han sido las alegrías y obstáculos que ha experimentado en su caminar con la Iglesia?
- Por favor comparta una breve historia que ilustre su experiencia.

Pregunta 2:

"La escucha es el primer paso, pero exige tener una mente y un corazón abiertos, sin prejuicios" y "Todos están invitados a hablar con valentía y parresía, es decir integrando libertad, verdad y caridad". (Documento preparatorio #30).

- ¿Ha experimentado que la Iglesia vaya en busca de los que se encuentran en las periferias y los marginados, incluyendo grupos culturales, mujeres, discapacitados, y aquellos que experimentan pobreza, marginación, o exclusión social?
- ¿Qué le permite o qué le impide a usted hablar en forma valiente, abierta y responsable en su parroquia y sociedad?

Pregunta 3:

"La sinodalidad está al servicio de la misión de la Iglesia, en la que todos sus miembros están llamados a participar. Una Iglesia sinodal es una Iglesia participativa y corresponsable". (Documento Preparatorio #30).

- ¿Cómo promovemos la participación en la toma de decisiones dentro de las comunidades jerárquicamente estructuradas?
- ¿Qué impide a las personas ser activos en sus parroquias?
- ¿Cómo es el ejercicio de la autoridad o gobierno en su parroquia?

Fr. John Riccardo, from Acts XXIX, is coming to Columbus on Corpus Christi weekend, June 18 & 19, to launch The Rescue Project Live – a weekend experience to awaken the faith of parishioners – with the ultimate goal of mobilizing them for mission, to go out from our parishes and ignite the faith in the hearts of many others.

The Rescue Project Live will work with our Catholics to ignite or re-ignite a strong faith in our Lord and our Church, which will help all of us in the local church be renewed in our relationships with Christ and experience the Holy Spirit in our lives. The Rescue Project Live will help the good people in our communities with the many possible changes we will all be undergoing in the next few years in our Diocese. Soon after March 1st, more information will be provided.

North High Deanery: In 2021, Pope Francis announced a worldwide synod to focus on the life and mission of the Church as we move forward together. The theme for this synod is, “For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission.” Rather than simply a meeting of bishops, Pope Francis has asked us, the People of God, to take part in the synod – to “journey together” with our brothers and sisters in Christ along the path of renewal, guided by the Holy Spirit.

Our Deanery will conduct a synodal listening session at the Marian Hall of Immaculate Conception Church, 414 East North Broadway, Columbus, on Saturday, March 12, 1:00-3:00 p.m. Please join us for this important event by registering at this link: <https://columbuscatholic.org/events/synod-listening-meeting-north-high-deanery>.

Catholic Relief Services' Rice Bowl: The Rice Bowl is a Lenten faith formation program for the entire United States. It allows CRS to help with fundraising efforts that benefit the poor in countries all around the world. Please participate in this year's Rice Bowl program as we celebrate Christ's mission of love for those in need. Seventy-five percent of the money collected supports the worldwide efforts of CRS, while 25% helps fight hunger and poverty in our own community. Rice Bowls can be found on the tables in the church entrance.

Lenten Practices: Prayer, fasting and almsgiving are the three pillars of Lenten practices. Prayer is our necessary communication with God, reminding us of our very intimate relationship with God, our creator. Fasting can help us curb our body's appetites and put our soul in control. Fasting does not have to be limited to avoiding food. We can also fast from different forms of entertainment and our over-reliance on the smartphone. Lent can be an opportunity to give up these forms of escape and replace them with some good spiritual reading. Almsgiving is the third pillar. When we give alms, we are reminded that the monetary resources that we have are ultimately the result of God's blessings which are meant to be shared, especially with the poor.

~ Father Kitzmiller

Church Regulations Regarding Fasting and Abstinence during Lent: Abstinence from meat (beast or fowl) is to be observed by all Catholics fourteen years and older on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays of Lent. This obligation prohibits the eating of meat, but not eggs, milk products or condiments of any kind, even though made from animal fat. The law of fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday applies to all Catholics from age 18 through age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. Those who are ill or pregnant may be dispensed from their obligation.

It is Fish Fry Time: One of the great parts of Lent is the return of that wonderful Catholic institution, the Friday Fish Fry. The Fish Fry is a chance to not only make a personal sacrifice but also strengthen your bond with your spiritual community by joining other Catholics at these weekly gatherings. Please go to columbuscatholic.org for a complete schedule of the Fish Fries offered throughout the Columbus area during Lent.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT; RITE OF ELECTION

Dig a little deeper this Lent

If practicing our religion is easy, we're not practicing our religion. This is one valuable lesson we glean from the time Jesus spends in the desert. Challenges to spiritual discipline are many: the desire for creature comforts, the hunger to be admired, the quest for control. Engaging this 40-day exercise each year strengthens the will and purifies the heart. It enables us to prepare for the real temptations that life offers. Is my prayer vital? Have I grown self-indulgent? Is my hand open to others? Our Lenten practice should be a response to those probing questions.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 26:4-10; Romans 10:8-13; Luke 4:1-13 (24). "[Jesus] was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil."

MEMORIAL OF PERPETUA AND FELICITY, MARTYRS

My peace I leave you

Saints Perpetua and Felicity shared an intense intimate bond. These two North African women were young new mothers imprisoned together by the Roman Empire for being Christians. Perpetua was a noblewoman and Felicity was her enslaved servant—but their unequal relationship was upended by their new faith, in which Saint Paul said there is "neither slave nor free." The two held each other in the moments before their grisly public executions in an amphitheater and gave each other the kiss of peace before dying. In the face of any horror—from slavery to persecution to execution, all of which still exist in our modern times—love has power over hate.

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 19:1-2, 11-18; Matthew 25:31-46 (224). "When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?"

MEMORIAL OF JOHN OF GOD, RELIGIOUS

Give your life in noble pursuit

The Order of Brothers Hospitallers honors the work of Saint John of God, who was born and died on this day. John's tumultuous path—as orphan, then soldier, then suffering from mental illness—eventually led to a humble spiritual life of tending the sick and dying poor. John died as he lived, in noble pursuit: He succumbed to pneumonia after rescuing a drowning man. Founded on the Rule of Saint Augustine, the order consoles the world's sick and poor but also, officially, oversees medical care of the pope. Pray Augustine's "Watch, O Lord" prayer to remember the sick and dying today—and all who comfort them.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:10-11; Matthew 6:7-15 (225). "So shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; it shall not return to me void, but shall do my will."

Wednesday, Mar 09, 2022

MEMORIAL OF FRANCES OF ROME, RELIGIOUS

Let your legacy be one for the ages

On this second day of National Catholic Sisters Week, we celebrate the feast of Saint Frances of Rome. Her renown as a servant of the poor was so great that centuries after her death, she became an inspiration for the first community of black nuns in America: Baltimore's Oblate Sisters of Providence, founded in 1829 by Servant of God Mary Lange (one of the church's six venerated African Americans). Dedicated to teaching black children during slavery, the Oblates named their flagship school in the Italian noblewoman's honor, and St. Frances Academy is today the oldest continually operating black Catholic school in the nation. Like those holy sisters, let's model the charism of Saint Frances this day and always.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 11:29-32 (226). "My sacrifice, O God, is a contrite spirit; a heart contrite and humbled, O God, you will not spurn."

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Let faith lead you to freedom

Today is the death date of abolitionist Harriet Tubman (1820-1913), whose life embodied Christian liberation. A deeply religious woman, Tubman risked her life repeatedly to lead enslaved men and women to freedom, relying on a deep bond with God for strength during these dangerous missions. Today, many people suffer injustice and lack of freedom. Whether it be a phone call to a legislator or an act of solidarity with an exploited group, take one step today that honors the tradition of Harriet Tubman.

TODAY'S READINGS: Esther C:12, 14-16, 23-25; Matthew 7:7-12 (227). "For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened."

Friday, Mar 11, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Second chances are a first principle

The good news of God's forgiveness is the most confounding of Christian teachings. For those who rarely turn away from God in sin, it seems unjust that God's mercy is indiscriminate, and for those who have turned away time and again and finally come to terms with their sinfulness, it seems impossible that God's mercy is at hand. As Benedictine Sister Joan Chittister, O.S.B. says, "Perhaps forgiveness is the last thing mentioned in the Creed because it is the last thing learned in life." Lent is our annual crash course in the practice of forgiving—ourselves and others.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 18:21-28; Matthew 5:20-26 (228). "If the wicked man turns away from all the sins he committed, . . . none of the crimes he committed shall be remembered against him."

Saturday, Mar 12, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

To those to whom much is given . . .

Jewish diarist Anne Frank, whose death is observed today, once wrote: "Why can't people who have more than they need for themselves give that surplus to their fellow citizens?" In most societies, alas, gaining wealth seems more the point than giving it away. But during Lent, Catholics customarily practice almsgiving, the tradition of sharing our wealth with those in need. Remembering that "charity covers a multitude of sins" (1 Pet. 4:8), what better time than Lent to send some of our money to our diocesan Catholic Charities or Catholic Relief Services?

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 26:16-19; Matthew 5:43-48 (229). "Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
