EASTER BLESSINGS

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk

Dear friends in Christ,

The "Paschal Mystery" which is the "passing over" from death to life of Jesus, did not end with His Ascension to heaven. In this week's Gospel, we are getting a foretaste of Pentecost. Jesus promised to be with us through His own spirit: "I am going away, and I will come back to you."

Jesus did come back, to stay. He did it for the early members of the church when He poured His spirit upon them at Pentecost. He does it for us in Baptism and Confirmation. Through His spirit, Jesus is within us, around us. We can't see His Holy Spirit – but we can't see radio waves either – even though they are in the air all around us.

And there is more. Jesus invites us to join Him in that circle of going to the Father and still living here on earth. That is exactly what we do here at Mass in the Eucharist. When the gifts of bread and wine are placed on the altar table, they represent us. In the Eucharistic prayer, the action of Christ in His dying, rising, and ascending is made present to us. We join with Him in going to God and giving ourselves entirely to God.

Jesus takes us with Him and yet every time we receive Him, we continue here on earth as NEW PEOPLE – transformed daughters and sons of God – living a different kind of life.

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us.
Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

P.S. – Today, we welcome the National Honor Society members from Cristo Rey Columbus Catholic High School. They will be selling baked goods. I hope you will take some home with you.

P.P.S. – Next Sunday, we welcome Deacon Jeffrey Fortkamp from Our Lady of Peace Parish as our "deacon of the month." Deacon Fortkamp was ordained in 2008 by Bishop James Griffin.

The Mass is available on St. John's Facebook page or YouTube channel, Saint John the Baptist, Cbus. Go to our website: www.sjbitaliana.com under Livestream Mass.

Prayer

Grant, almighty God, that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion these days of joy, which we keep in honor of the Risen Lord, and that what we relive in remembrance we may always hold to in what we do. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus, O merciful, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Amen.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

How to find the missing peace

The first step to peace is to ensure the hungry are fed. This requires that workers are fairly compensated. Labor priest George G. Higgins, who died on this day in 2002, recognized a vital connection between workers' unions and Catholic social teaching. He actively supported Cesar Chavez in arbitrating for farm workers. Higgins also advocated for the United Auto Workers and Kentucky coal miners. Higgins acknowledged that, "All members of the white community and especially those of us who have benefited most from the system are responsible, in varying degrees, for the tragic plight of black Americans." Learn about the seven themes of Catholic social teaching.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29; Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23; John 14:23-29 (57). "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Here comes everybody

We hear a lot about "inclusion" these days—in our schools, workplaces, churches, and communities at large. For Christians, inclusion isn't just a buzzword—it's at the heart of our faith. Jesus didn't just include the marginalized, he put them front and center. Saint Paul emphasized repeatedly that we are one in Christ. The very word catholic means "universal." And yet, humanity has never been more rife with division—from the world stage down to our own families. How can we strive to overcome differences? To respect the dignity of every person? To celebrate diversity while living in solidarity? Everyone belongs. Let's commit to that much, at least.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:11-15; John 15:26—16:4a (291). "The hour is coming when everyone who kills you will think he is offering worship to God."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Our Lady of Sheshan, pray for us

Today marks the World Day of Prayer for the Church in China, established in 2007 by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. Benedict's original proclamation included pastoral guidelines for a church that had been driven underground by years of Communist rule, plagued with complicated issues relating to the separation of church and state. One year later, the pontiff penned a special prayer for today, seeking the intercession of Our Lady of Sheshan—the Chinese equivalent of "Mary, Help of Christians," whose feast is also today. Use Benedict's prayer as you ask God to guide and further bless China's embattled Catholic community.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:22-34; John 16:5-11 (292). "His household rejoiced at having come to faith in God."

MEMORIAL OF MARY MAGDALENE DE' PAZZI, CARMELITE MYSTIC

This little light

The life of a mystic may seem romantic and exciting, with ecstatic visions and union with God at your fingertips. The reality is something else, as the life of Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi, 16th-century Carmelite mystic from Italy, attests. It was truly a tale of agony and ecstasy. After a period of visions, at the tender age of 19 she experienced five long years of desolation. She referred to her heart as a pitch-dark room with only a feeble light shining that only made the darkness deeper. Thankfully her trials ended in 1590 with mystical union once again. Though perhaps not so dramatic, trials of one sort or another visit all of us. Hold onto the feeble light if that is all you see at the moment. Have faith that it will brighten.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 17:15, 22—18:1; John 16:12-15 (293). "When he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth."

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Save me a seat

The epic movie version of the Ascension, today's feast, is exciting to imagine: Christ floating upward, astonished disciples gaping, full orchestra swelling as the Earth becomes a blue ball below Jesus. However it happened, the Catechism of the Catholic Church says the point is that "Christ's ascension marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain." He is there, says the catechism, preparing a place for us. The mystics tell us that we don't have to wait for death for that place next to Jesus; we can go there in prayer. Now that's epic!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23 or Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23; Luke 24:46-53 (58). "As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Be a voice in the wilderness

Nobody ever sets out to be a prophet. And why would they? Scripture and history have both taught us that prophets are often treated poorly because people don't want to hear their message, especially when it calls them to change their ways. Prophets in scripture were people called to speak on behalf of God. Like prophets today, they called people and communities to be their best selves, to truly live as people of God and people for others. Today's prophets include folks like Pope Francis and Malala Yousafzai, Pakistani activist for female education and a Nobel Peace Prize laureate. They may even include you. Search your own heart. How is God calling you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 18:9-18; John 16: 20-23 (295). "Do not be afraid. Go on speaking, and do not be silent, for I am with you."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Who do you say he is?

People of faith have been debating the precise nature of Jesus—fully human? fully divine? both?—since the earliest days of the church. It's understandable—after all, Jesus could not be contained by our existing categories. He broke the mold, with stunning insights, powerful works, and unlimited compassion. After centuries of debate, the church at the Council of Nicaea settled the question as best we mere mortals could manage, deciding that Jesus can only be understood as fully human and fully divine. How fortunate are we that he is both relatable and unsurpassable. Spend some time with him today; he is always available!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 18:23-28; John 16:23b-28 (296). "I came from the Father and have come into the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father."
