

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
June 12, 2022

He will glorify me

because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. John 16:14

The Italian Catholic Community at
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's DeskDear friends in Christ,

Last week, the great season of Easter ended with the giant exclamation point of the feast of Pentecost. But since the church really likes to do things in threes, the Easter season really ends with three Sunday feasts of exclamation points: the feast of Pentecost, the feast of the Blessed Trinity, and the feast of the Body and Blood of Jesus (known as Corpus Christi).

Our readings this weekend all emphasize the eternal presence and workings of the Holy Spirit: the Book of Wisdom reminds us that the Spirit was with the Father and the Son before creation came into being; Saint Paul reminds us that God's love is poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit; and in the Gospel of Saint John, Jesus teaches us that since the immensity of God's revelation of self and His plan of salvation for the world is too much for us to take in, the Holy Spirit will "guide us to all truth."

So, as we ponder this great mystery of God's revelation of self, we celebrate our God as a Trinity of Persons (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) whose very being – as Love – is a perfect union of relationship. Today, may we celebrate the union of Persons who, from the beginning of time, has created us, has redeemed us, and continues to guide us in our lives' journeys of growing in the likeness of Love until the great day when Love will welcome us home, where all divisions will cease and the fullness of life will be found in the eternal embrace of our God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us.

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

P.S. – Many thanks to the Solazzo Family for spearheading and organizing our Saint Anthony Bread procession, Novena, blessing, and celebration today. What a wonderful tradition we have restored since the outbreak of the pandemic. May good Saint Anthony of Padua – whose feast day is Monday, June 13th – pray for us.

Thanks,
Deacon Frank

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: The Month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart. The Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus on the Friday following the second Sunday after Pentecost. In addition to the liturgical celebration, many devotional exercises relate to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Of all devotions, devotion to the Sacred Heart was, and remains, one of the most widespread and popular in the Church. The beginning of the June falls within the liturgical season of Easter, which is represented by the liturgical color white — the color of light, a symbol of joy, purity and innocence (absolute or restored). The remainder of the month falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green.

Register Today for the Rescue Project LIVE experience with Fr. John Riccardo on June 18: The Rescue Project Live will engage you to answer the deepest cry of your heart. We live in a confusing time, and we need unshakable confidence in Jesus to live life passionately and with a clear purpose. Join Fr. John Riccardo for the first-ever Rescue Project LIVE, a one-day experience at the Ohio Expo Center in Columbus, Ohio on June 18th, 8:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m. You will be blessed by the music of Damascus Worship throughout this experience. Space is limited, so register early. You. Truly. Matter. Visit stgabrielradio.com to register.

Diocesan Council of Catholic Women Conference: “Women of Faith and Action” June 14 at St. Mary Church, 61 S. Paint Street, Chillicothe, 8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m.

This conference is open to all women of the Diocese 16 and older. It will begin with Mass at 8:30 a.m. Speakers will follow in the Family Life Center. A box lunch will be included. Please indicate choice of bacon turkey club or a veggie sandwich. Door prizes and a basket and quilt raffle will also be offered. The cost for the day is $25.00. Send a check made out to DCCW to 197 E. Gay Street, Columbus, OH 43215.

Trinity Sunday: The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God, and in this one God, there are three Divine Persons: the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet, there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Prayer to the Holy Trinity

Glory be to the Father,

Who by His almighty power and love created me, making me in the image and likeness of God.

Glory be to the Son,

*Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell,
and opened for me the gates of heaven.*

Glory be to the Holy Spirit,

*Who has sanctified me in the sacrament of Baptism,
and continues to sanctify me*

by the graces I receive daily from His bounty.

*Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity,
now and forever.*

Amen.

“Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.”

John 15:16

Prayer

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race Your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore Your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

Mirror the unconditional love of God

On this day six years ago, 49 people were murdered and 53 wounded in a mass shooting at a nightclub in Orlando. Most victims were members of the LGBTQ community and people of color. Expressions of horror and support poured in from around the world. Archbishop, now Cardinal, Blase Cupich of Chicago said: “Our prayers and hearts are with the victims of the mass shooting in Orlando, their families and our gay and lesbian brothers and sisters. . . . In response to hatred, we are called to sow love. In response to violence, peace. And, in response to intolerance, tolerance.” And Cardinal Sean O’Malley of Boston further crystallized the message: “We must meet the challenges of combining freedom, pluralism, and unity in our increasingly diverse society if the United States is to continue to be a beacon of hope to the world.” Sow love, champion diversity, and be the hope.

Saint of the lost and found

Many folks, when they lose track of their car keys, glasses, or phone, say a quick prayer to Saint Anthony. He’s probably best known as the patron saint of lost objects—think of the countless prayers for his intercession he’s received! The story goes that he lost a precious book once, feared it had been stolen, and prayed to find it. Soon after, it was returned by the novice who had taken it. Little losses can feel like big annoyances, but what about the big things lost that slip away little noticed? Like our relationship with God and with others that slowly disappear when neglected. Pray to Anthony for help in holding close the things most dear in life.

My country ’tis of thee

The love of God and country, it is said, are as American as apple pie. On this Flag Day, it’s helpful to realize that Catholic social teaching supports the love of one’s country, so long as it’s expressed as a form of solidarity rather than supremacy. Pope John Paul II spoke of it when addressing his Polish compatriots: “Love of our motherland unites us and must unite us above all the differences. It has nothing in common with narrow nationalism or chauvinism,” he wrote. “It is the measure of human nobility.” Read more in his 1978 Letter to the People of Poland.

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Kings 21:17-29; Matthew 5:43-48 (366). “But I say to you, love your enemies.”

A contemplative pioneer in the North Star State

On this day in 1947, Father Prosper Edward Meyer, O.S.B. was ordained to the priesthood in Collegeville, Minnesota as the first black Benedictine in the United States. He was an early AfricanAmerican priest at Saint John’s Abbey, among the first U.S. Catholic seminaries (religious or diocesan) to lift bans on black applicants. Meyer would go on to serve for 14 years in priestly ministry, including overseas in the Bahamas, until his untimely death in 1961 at the age of 49. His willingness to persevere in faith and in his vocation serves to inspire us all to holiness and fortitude in our respective states of life.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Kings 2:1, 6-14; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (367). “But when you pray, go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you.”

In praise of down time

Traditionally this is the time of year for summer vacation. The Christian tradition has had a love-hate relationship with leisure— often embracing work as a sign of virtue and salvation (a more common emphasis within Protestant churches but affecting American culture in general). However, from early on, Christians have respected leisure, instituting a Sabbath Day and touting the concept of “holy leisure” (otium sanctum). Monks promoted the concept because prayer and contemplation cannot thrive in constant activity. If you’re taking a vacation soon, embrace it fully, and let it be restorative physically, mentally, and spiritually.

TODAY’S READINGS: Sirach 48:1-14; Matthew 6:7-15 (368). “Your Father knows what you need before you ask him.”

History makes perfectly clear our imperfect past

Last year President Joe Biden proclaimed June 19 as Juneteenth National Independence Day, a federal holiday commemorating the final emancipation of enslaved African Americans. As much as freedom is something to celebrate, our history of slavery cannot be ignored. In the words of U.S. poet Maya Angelou: “History, despite its wrenching pain, cannot be un-lived: however, if faced with courage, need not be lived again.” That is why we study history, mark its days of tragedy and good fortune, and learn from prior generations’ successes and failures. Studying history is what makes us human. It is self-reflection that can lead to progress, or as Saint Augustine put it: “This is the very perfection of a man, to find out his own imperfections.”

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Kings 11:1-4, 9-18, 20; Matthew 6:19-23 (369). “All the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet.”

Take a moment to hail Mary

If there were an angel in heaven keeping track of which prayer gets said the most, the Hail Mary, being prayed now for more than a thousand years, would likely win hands down. In a single recitation of the Rosary, the Hail Marys outnumber the Our Fathers 53 to six. The first half of the Hail Mary is taken from the first chapter of Luke, the greetings to Mary by the Angel Gabriel and her relative Elizabeth. The last half, the petition, was added around the time of the Council of Trent in the 1500s. It takes about 15 seconds to recite the prayer. Pray it regularly as a way to center your heart and soul.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Chronicles 24:17-25; Matthew 6:24-34 (370). “But seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides.”
