FOLLOW ME

JUNE 26, 2022 • THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk
Dear Friends in Christ,

Most of us have, at one time or another, walked past a huddled sleeping bag in a shop doorway, spread out beneath the bridge, across a park bench, or standing by the roadway intersection perhaps with a sign asking for money. We might worry that it's money to spend on drink or drugs – but then perhaps the person might use it to find a bed for the night, or to buy a hot drink and a sandwich. We're afraid of being conned by someone's hard luck story that might or might not be true. Yet we should remember that a few people are homeless by choice. Some opt for opulent luxury but mistakenly believe that fame and fortune are their own reward. Instead of a home, they create a gilded cage. Others are physically homeless because circumstances force them into a desperate search for the basics of survival for themselves and their families.

Yet others may, in a sense, describe themselves as having no fixed home simply because they have chosen to accept Jesus' call to follow Him. Just as His home was nowhere because it was everywhere, so can the same be said for His followers. They do not occupy a mindless routine that restricts their minds and activities, because their hearts are alive and sensitive to the beauty and intricacies of the people around them. The proverb tells us that "home is where the heart is" – and so they find Jesus everywhere and in everyone. Jesus told us to make our home in Him just as He makes His home in my heart, your heart, our hearts.

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us.

God bless,
Deacon Frank

Altar Guild: Starting Sunday, June 26, the Altar Guild will once again be selling entries to its annual Ohio State season football pool. As always, 100% of the money received is paid back out, with 80% going to the 4 weekly winners and 20% to the Guild. The Guild income is spent only on items needed for our church altar. In the past, that has included items such as altar cloths, banners, vestments for our priests and deacons and the new tabernacle. Entry cost is $60.00 a square and that covers all 12 games during the season which means 48 opportunities to win. Winner payout is $100.00 a quarter for scores at the end of the first, second, third quarters, and the end of the game score. Once all the entry squares have been sold, the numbers for each game will be drawn in public in Sala Hall after the next Sunday Mass. If you are interested in signing up, see Gary Bosco after any Mass in Sala Hall. This is a fun way to cheer our Buckeyes on each week in a way that also supports our beloved St. John.

Today's Gospel: Jesus calls us to follow Him as He makes His way toward Jerusalem, where the mystery of death and rebirth is to be accomplished. To follow Him requires wholehearted commitment, the commitment of love. Nothing less is fit for the reign of God. (catholicculture.org)

As they were going along the road, a man said to Him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man has nowhere to lay his head." Luke 9:57-58T

"God makes himself tiny, like a morsel of bread. That is precisely why we need a large heart so we can recognize, adore and receive him."
@Pontifex

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening; you have the words of everlasting life.

John 6:68

Respect your freedom

The Statue of Liberty is the symbol of our nation's reverence for personal freedom. Yet too many of us lose our liberty to substance abuse and other addictive behaviors, including gambling, pornography, overeating, and compulsive consumerism. More subtle than these overt practices are patterns of thinking and feeling we may be losing control over: anxiety, depression, rage, racism. Today is the World Day Against Drug Abuse and Trafficking. Prayerfully reflect on behaviors or emotional states that make you feel less free, and take a step today toward liberty.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21; Galatians 5:1, 13-18; Luke 9:51-62 (99). "For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery."

Everyone needs a mother's love

Saint Cyril of Alexandria died on this day in 444. He is remembered for many things—admittedly not all of them good—as the archbishop of his city, which was at the height of its influence over the Mediterranean world during his time. One of his most enduring legacies was his hard-fought teaching on Mary as the “Mother of God,” which created the basis for all other theology about Mary. Saints aren't perfect, and neither was Cyril—the man who helped connect us to a tender, loving mother in Mary also committed acts of violence and injustice. Perhaps his deep flaws illustrate just how much all of us—even saints who champion Mary—need her intercession.

MEMORIAL OF CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 2:6-10, 13-16; Matthew 8:18-22 (377). "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

Tuesday, Jun 28, 2022

Come alive with faith

For Irenaeus, the Incarnation says as much about the redeemed as it does our Redeemer. Yes, Christian doctrine teaches that Jesus Christ is both fully human and fully divine. And, yes, Irenaeus battled the heresy known as Gnosticism—which emphasized the divine nature of Jesus at the expense of his humanity. But for Irenaeus, the Incarnation also meant that the “glory of God is a human being fully alive.” He believed that God became human so that humans might become divine. How will you choose to be “fully alive” today, in order to glorify God?

MEMORIAL OF IRENAEUS, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 3:1-8; 4:11-12; Matthew 8:23-27 (378). "The men were amazed and said, 'What sort of man is this?'"

Wednesday, Jun 29, 2022

Rest in peace

You might think that the two foundational giants of the Christian tradition who share a feast day would have been best buddies, but in fact Peter and Paul had their differences, especially around the question of whether people who weren't Jews needed to observe Jewish Law in order to become followers of Jesus. It is not entirely clear whether they fully reconciled their differences before they were both martyred in Rome (on the same day, tradition says), though it is clear that Paul's position carried the day over time.

Perhaps there's a message for today's divided church—we can disagree with one another, even on matters of great importance, and still rest together in the same great tradition.

SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Acts 12:1-11; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18; Matthew 16:13-19 (591). "Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Thursday, Jun 30, 2022

Keep their memory alive

It is a deeply human act to remember the dead, especially those who died as result of acts of violence. Today's memorial for the First Martyrs of the Church in Rome places the church squarely within this tradition of remembrance. We recall innumerable Christians who were put to death in gruesome ways by the emperor Nero, who blamed Christians for a devastating fire in Rome in the year 64. Nero did not crush the church, and neither has the memory of those early martyrs been erased. Your reading these words keeps alive their memory and their sacrifice.

MEMORIAL OF THE FIRST MARTYRS OF THE CHURCH IN ROME

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 7:10-17; Matthew 9:1-8 (380). "He then said to the paralytic, 'Rise, pick up your stretcher, and go home.'"

Friday, Jul 01, 2022

Mixed legacies

On April 1, 2022, Pope Francis offered an historic apology to Inuit, Métis, and First Nations delegations for the church's role in harming Canadian Indigenous Peoples in Catholic residential schools. This is no small thing to do—for the church or for us individually. It is difficult to admit that we, and members of the church we call our own, have at times harmed others. Yet it is essential to begin the journey of healing. With Pope Francis, let us commit to an honest reevaluation of the church's colonial-era missionary efforts, such as those of Junípero Serra in what is now California. Let us also be aware of our own shortcomings, seeking forgiveness with humility and making meaningful amends wherever possible.

MEMORIAL OF JUNÍPERO SERRA, FRANCISCAN PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 8:4-6, 9-12; Matthew 9:9-13 (381). "Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land!"

Saturday, Jul 02, 2022

Woe is me

The Pharisees get a bad rap in the gospels, typically portrayed as Jesus' antagonists, narrow-minded and legalistic, focused on outward ritual rather than inner renewal. And surely there are elements that ring true. At the same time, some of their beliefs were quite compatible with Christianity as it evolved, including the belief in life after death, the resurrection of the body, keeping the Sabbath holy (i.e., Sunday Mass obligation), and the priority to spread the faith. It's easy to see the blind spots and shortcomings of others. Harder to see our own. Are you aware of your own inner Pharisee?

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 9:11-15; Matthew 9:14-17 (382). "Why do we and the Pharisees fast much, but your disciples do not fast?"
