John 20:20

Pentecost Sunday — June 5, 2022

The Italian Catholic Community at
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk

Dear friends in Christ,

Think of the times you have witnessed or experienced a warm breeze in the spring, the wind on a hike in nature, or a cool breeze in the late summer or early autumn. Conversely, think of a hurricane, tornado, uncontrolled fire that causes immense power and even devastation. Wind and Fire can be gentle and can be all powerful.

With this weekend's feast of Pentecost, the wonderful season of Easter - the great 50 days - comes to an end. One would think that there could be no greater expression of God's power and love than God being born into our humanity for the purpose of offering himself up to die (and to die as a sacrifice for us), only to rise from the dead and ascend to the Father. What could God possibly do to show more power and love? How about give himself to us, sharing with us his very self through the gift of the Holy Spirit poured out on our world? It is this wondrous gift that we celebrate today!

The scene of that day of Pentecost that we will hear in the Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles is filled with wonder, awe, fear, confusion, and amazement. The room where the apostles has gathered in anticipation of "something big" is filled, we were told, with a thunderous roar of a mighty wind and "tongues as a fire". Two very powerful images of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

On this feast of Pentecost, we are invited by the church to reflect upon how the Holy Spirit is alive in us: in our church and in our world! We do well this day to give thanks to God for so great a gift and to explore with all humility how much we allow that Spirit to enter ourselves and how much more we can do to put the gift of God's Spirit into action in our lives.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us.

Have a good week,
Deacon Frank

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: The Month of June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart. The Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus on the Friday following the second Sunday after Pentecost. In addition to the liturgical celebration, many devotional exercises relate to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Of all devotions, devotion to the Sacred Heart was, and remains, one of the most widespread and popular in the Church. The beginning of June falls within the liturgical season of Easter, which is represented by the liturgical color, white — the color of light, a symbol of joy, purity and innocence (absolute or restored). The remainder of the month falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color, green.

Register Today for the Rescue Project LIVE experience with Fr. John Riccardo on June 18: The Rescue Project Live will engage you to answer the deepest cry of your heart. We live in a confusing time, and we need unshakable confidence in Jesus to live life passionately and with a clear purpose. Join Fr. John Riccardo for the first-ever Rescue Project LIVE, a one-day experience at the Ohio Expo Center in Columbus, Ohio on June 18th, 8:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m. You will be blessed by the music of Damascus Worship throughout this experience. Space is limited, so register early. You. Truly. Matter. Visit stgabrielradio.com to register.

Mini-Retreat for Couples Challenged with Infertility: The Marriage & Family Life Office and Springs in the Desert are co-sponsoring a free morning event at St. Matthew Parish on June 25 for couples carrying the cross of infertility. For more information and to register, please direct couples to springsinthedesert.org/columbus.

Pentecost Sunday: Pentecost, with Christmas and Easter, ranks among the greatest feasts of Christianity. It commemorates not only the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles, Mary, and Disciples, but also the fruits and effects of that event: The completion of the work of redemption, the fullness of grace for the Church and its children, and the gift of faith for all nations. "And when the days of Pentecost were drawing to a close, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues as of fire, which settled upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in foreign tongues, even as the Holy Spirit prompted them to speak." Acts 2:1-4

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
John 20:19-23

Prayer

O God, who by the mystery of today's great feast sanctify Your whole Church in every people and nation, pour out, we pray, the gifts of the Holy Spirit across the face of the earth and, with the divine grace that was at work when the Gospel was first proclaimed, fill now once more the hearts of believers. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

REFLECTION:

In the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as free men...

~1 Cor 12:13

Here on earth, racial or economic distinctions are sometimes considered to be important.

The Spirit reminds us that these things are insignificant in the light of our salvation.

We are all loved by God, and no matter who we are or what we do, we can all respond to that call and share in God's bounty.

PRAYER.

Spirit of Truth, help me to see our earthly distinctions for what they are.

Embody your faith

Being church is a different identity than simply going to church. If we are truly the Body of Christ, then we embrace this identity with a sense of purpose. Saint Paul describes the church as a body with many parts that function for the sake of the whole. Some of us have obvious gifts like preaching, teaching, or offering a healing presence. Others may benefit from prayer, spiritual direction, faith sharing, or a discernment retreat to come to an awareness of the particular service to which we're called. Joy is in the discovery of the Spirit's personal invitation to you.

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

You will not be orphaned

Although the devotion to Mary as "Mother of the Church" is ancient, today's memorial is relatively new—having been instituted in 2018 by Pope Francis when he decreed it will be celebrated annually on the Monday after Pentecost Sunday—to "encourage the growth of the maternal sense of the church." Reflect on how you can "mother" the church—as well as your family and friends, your community and work place, and even yourself. You don't have to be or have a mother in the traditional sense to know how to offer loving care. Standing beneath the cross, said Francis, Mary "welcomed all people in the person of the beloved disciple as sons and daughters"—that means you, too.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572a). "He said to his mother, 'Woman, behold, your son.'"

Let go and let God

On this day in 1925, Blessed Matt Talbot—40 years sober—died enroute to Sunday Mass. Though Alcoholics Anonymous wouldn't exist for another 10 years, Talbot had already discerned the central truth of AA's Twelve Steps. "It's as hard to give up the drink as it is to raise the dead to life again," he said. "But both are possible and even easy for our Lord. We have only to depend on him." Talbot is the patron of those who struggle with alcohol addiction. Ask his intercession for yourself or another who needs to kick a harmful habit.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 17:7-16; Matthew 5:13-16 (360). "Your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Honor and emulate a trailblazer for racial justice

On this day in 1910, Father Stephen Theobald was ordained for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul-Minneapolis, the first black diocesan priest ordained on U.S. soil. Theobald was born in Guyana in 1874 and later worked as a journalist in Canada before being recruited to Minnesota by Archbishop John Ireland, a fierce racial justice advocate. For his entire priestly career, Theobald served at Saint Peter Claver Catholic Church in Saint Paul, the only black parish in the state. He also served in the local chapter of the NAACP, advocating tirelessly for black lives. May we all follow his lasting example of saying "Yes!" to God and "No!" to injustice.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:20-39; Matthew 5:17-19 (361). "Let it be known this day that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant."

Thursday, Jun 09, 2022

Sing with the Syrian saint

Although you may never have heard of him, today's saint left a lasting imprint on the church. Ephrem of Syria (306-373) is known for his writing—primarily for works that battled heresies—but even more so for introducing singing as a form of worship and education. Known as the Harp of the Holy Spirit, he cleverly wrote lyrics that educated the faithful against false teaching. Syriac churches still sing hymns that originated with him. The next time a hymn moves you, say a prayer of thanksgiving to Saint Ephrem.

MEMORIAL OF EPHREM OF SYRIA, DEACON, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 18:41-46; Matthew 5:20-26 (362). "[B]e reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift."

Friday, Jun 10, 2022

Let's get our bearings

"Why are we here?" is an age-old question. As Dostoyevsky writes in The Brothers Karamazov: "The mystery of human existence lies not in just staying alive, but in finding something to live for." One might think that Christians have it easy because Jesus clearly spells out our purpose for living: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind . . . [and] you shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22:37-39). But on a day-to-day basis in any given situation, it is not always obvious what the loving response is and whether we are prepared to offer it. That is where prayer comes in. It can provide just the right environment for hearing God's finest whispers leading to the path of love.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-16; Matthew 5:27-32 (363).

"There was a tiny whispering sound. . . . A voice said to him, 'Elijah, why are you here?'"

One, holy, catholic, apostolic

In our recitation of the Nicene Creed at Sunday Mass, we profess our belief in "one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church." Those four adjectives are called the four "marks" or "attributes" of the church. One, because despite the many divisions and denominations of Christianity all worship one God, one Spirit, and one Lord, Jesus Christ. Holy, because, like sacred objects, the church is set apart for God's purpose. Catholic, from the Greek word for "universal," because it is for all without excluding any group or class of people. Apostolic, because it arises out of the efforts of the apostles, both the original 12 and others, like today's saint, Barnabas, who were later named apostles. And like you and me, called today to embody these same attributes.

MEMORIAL OF BARNABAS, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:21b-26; 13:1-3; Matthew 5:33-37 (580; Gospel 364). "Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.'"
