Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Which of these three was neighbor

to the robbers' victim?
Luke 10:36

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk
Dear friends in Christ,

When Jesus tells a lawyer that to inherit eternal life, he must love God and love his neighbor as much as he loves himself, the question immediately follows, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus does not define who the lawyer's neighbor might be, but he tells him a story instead – the famous parable of the good Samaritan, which we hear this weekend.

Jesus intended the story to demonstrate the nature of love in God's kingdom. The response to "Who is my neighbor?" is that everyone, including my enemy, is my neighbor. The Samaritan's compassion was costly.

1. It involves making himself vulnerable to attack by robbers because he was walking instead of riding after given the beaten man his mount.
2. He also made a financial payment to an innkeeper to look after the victim without any expectation of being repaid.
3. He might even have been ostracized by his own people for assisting a Jew.

Jesus directly asked the lawyer which of the three travelers was a neighbor to the injured man. "The one who took pity on him," he replies. To underline the message still further, Jesus instructs the lawyer to "Go, and do the same yourself."

Jesus asked that we care about our neighbors with the same intensity that we care about ourselves. We are to love as He loved us, and even an enemy is redefined as a neighbor. Active involvement with people who are downtrodden and oppressed is a key feature of loving outreach in God's kingdom.

1. It might mean taking initiatives to reach out to vulnerable and destitute people in our community who could never repay our favors.
2. It might mean taking up campaigns for justice and peace that try to tackle the causes of suffering at home and overseas.
3. Working to highlight root causes of violence and war where whole groups of people are demonized as "enemies" will almost certainly draw criticism, since this goes against the prevailing culture, but it is what God expects of us.

Today Jesus is teaching us that it is possible to go beyond the boundaries human society has constructed and to do things in a different and revolutionary way.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us!

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

Altar Guild: The Altar Guild is once again selling entries to its annual Ohio State season football pool. As always, 100% of the money received will be paid back out, with 80% going to the 4 weekly winners and 20% to the Guild. The Guild income is spent only on items needed for our church altar. In the past, that has included items such as altar cloths, banners, vestments for our priests and deacons and the new tabernacle. Entry cost is $60.00 a square and that covers all 12 games during the season, which means 48 opportunities to win. Winner payout is $100.00 a quarter for scores at the end of the first, second, third quarters, and the end of the game score. Once all the entry squares are sold, the numbers for each game will be drawn in public in Sala Hall after the next Sunday Mass. If you are interested in signing up, see Gary Bosco after any Mass in Sala Hall. This is a fun way to cheer our Buckeyes on each week in a way that also supports our beloved St. John.

Like the Good Samaritan, may we not be ashamed of touching the wounds of those who suffer, but try to heal them with concrete acts of love.

— Pope Francis —

AZ QUOTES

Today's Gospel: The Gospel is from St. Luke 10:25-37 and tells the parable of the good Samaritan. This parable leaves no doubt about who our neighbor is — anyone (without distinction of race or relationship) who needs our help; nor about how we should love him — by taking pity on him, being compassionate towards his spiritual or corporal needs; and it is not just a matter of having the right feelings towards him: we must do something, we must generously serve him.

“The existence of the human person is but a breath, his or her affairs are fleeting, but those who pray know they are precious in God's eyes.”
@Pontifex

Gospel Excerpt, Luke 10:33-34:
But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds, and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn and cared for him.

Prayer: O God, who show the light of Your truth to those who go astray, so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honor. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Right neighborly of you

Mister Rogers sang to children daily about the pleasure and importance of being a good neighbor. A Presbyterian minister, Fred Rogers was aware of the biblical power in identifying others as neighbors—rather than competitors, outsiders, or enemies. Jesus flips the traditional meaning of the word when he claims the true neighbor not as one who is geographically near to us, but one who is dear to us and merits our compassion. We recognize our neighbors not by who they are or where they live, but who we are and how we treat them. Choose to be a neighbor to everyone you meet.

Worth pondering, as a rule

Saint Benedict, the "Father of Western Monasticism," established Christian monasticism as we know it with the founding of the Benedictine order in the sixth century, making it the oldest religious order in the Western Church. For 1,500 years, Benedictine women and men have been living communally in monasteries all over the world according to the Rule of St. Benedict, a succinct guide that emphasizes prayer, work, simplicity, and hospitality. They take unique vows of stability and ongoing conversion. Draw from the ancient wisdom of the Benedictines by reading the Rule yourself and see how this way of life might enrich your own.

Education for everyone

The United Nations has decreed today International Malala Day—after the Pakistani activist, Malala Yousafzai, who wowed the world with her address to the U.N. on July 12, 2013, which also happened to be Malala's 16th birthday. Only the year before, the young woman was shot in the head by the Taliban for her advocacy of young girls getting an education. Malala was later an attendee at the 2015 U.N. General Assembly, listening as Pope Francis gave his first address there and insisted that the "right to education—also for girls, excluded in certain places"—be "ensured first and foremost." Learn how Caritas Pakistan continues Catholic advocacy for women and children.

Let nothing hold you back

On this day in 1918, Carlos Manuel Rodríguez Santiago was born into a Catholic family in Puerto Rico. While two of his siblings entered religious life, he was unable to achieve his goal of becoming a priest due to poor health. Even so, he maintained a fervent devotion to promoting the faith, running a magazine and discussion groups covering Catholic liturgy. Illness prevented him from completing college, but he nevertheless became a musical master and anticipated the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council by promoting active lay participation and vernacular celebrations. He died at age 44 from cancer in 1963, shortly after the Council began, and was beatified in 2001. May Blessed Carlos ever intercede for us to persevere in faith and inspire greater devotion among the faithful!

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 10:5-7, 13b-16; Matthew 11:25-27 (391). "Although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned, you have revealed them to the childlike."

Make cultural connections

Today's saint, Kateri Tekakwitha (1656-1680), suffered the distrust of both of the cultures she belonged to. Many among her tribe of Mohawks rejected her embrace of Christianity. French Canadians, who dominated the Montreal church that she joined, sometimes held her at arm's length—when she and a devout companion, also indigenous, proposed founding a religious order, church authorities nixed the plan. But as a woman with a foot in both worlds, Kateri is seen today as a bridge between indigenous and European cultures in North America. Reconciliation between different groups is sorely needed today: Saint Kateri, pray for us!

Know your net worth

"If you do not know your own dignity and condition, you cannot value anything at its proper worth," says the wise Saint Bonaventure, noted 13th-century Franciscan theologian and doctor of the church. Take time to think about that admonishment today. Tally your credits and debits—the good and bad you've wrought, your accomplishments and failures. Then remember that nothing goes unnoticed by God: "Even the hairs of your head are all counted" (Matt. 10:30). Why? Because you are God's alone. Let that knowledge shape your understanding of everything. As Bonaventure puts it: "Every creature is a divine word because it proclaims God."

MEMORIAL OF BONAVENTURE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 38:1-6, 21-22, 7-8; Matthew 12:1-8 (393). "I desire mercy, not sacrifice."

Choose a path of devotion

The Third Order of Carmel is an association of lay persons who live according to the spirit of the Carmelite Order and share in its mission. Their charisms are prayer, community, and ministry. Lay Carmelites attend a monthly meeting in which they wear the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel as a sign of their dedication to the Virgin Mary. If possible, they participate in daily Mass and try to spend a half hour in meditation each day, reflecting on scripture. Lay Carmelites also pray the Morning and Evening Prayer of the Divine Office. Though they are not professed religious, they practice the virtues of poverty, chastity and obedience. Pray to Our Lady of Mount Carmel to inspire your own spiritual practice.

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 2:1-5; Matthew 12:14-21 (394). "Many people followed him, and he cured them all."
