

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Behold

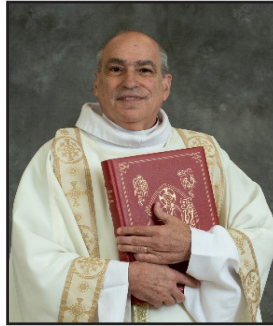

from now on will all ages call me blessed.

LUKE 1:48

August 14, 2022 • Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY AT
ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

From the Deacon's Desk
Dear friends in Christ,

In today's gospel, Jesus tells His disciples that He has come to bring fire on earth. He asked them, "Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth?" He then answers His own question "no." Perhaps the disciples had assumed that the answer would be "yes." But as Jesus carried out His public ministry it became clear that He was simply too radical for some people. His mere presence was enough to divide families into those who are in favor of Him and those who are against Him: father against son, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, and so on. For many, following Jesus was just too risky.

With all the divisiveness present in society, it seems like the last thing we need is a gospel text that seemingly encourages more division. However, sometimes we need to be shaken out of complacency. The message of Jesus is not just about being nice. It means being angry at times, confronting injustice and unfair systems, and making a stand. The gospel is a call to conversion.

Are you a lukewarm follower of Jesus or do you share His passion in spreading the kingdom according to your abilities? Following Jesus can bring us in confrontation with others, even with our closest and dearest. Let us seek wisdom and fortitude to know how best to deal with situations when our beliefs lead to differences with those around us.

Saint John the Baptist, pray for us

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

P.S. – Today we welcome Deacon Joe Ciaciura as our "Deacon of the Month". Deacon Joe was ordained in 2012 and is assigned at Saint Paul Catholic Church in Westerville.

P.S.S. – Tomorrow, August 15th, is The Feast of the Assumption of Our Blessed Mother. Normally it is a Holy Day of Obligation but because it falls on a Monday this year, it is abrogated, and Catholics are exempt from attending Mass. However, I encourage you to attend Mass if you are able at a Catholic Church near you. Feel free to join me at Saint Brigid in Dublin or check out the churches near Saint John here in Italian Village and downtown for their Mass times.

The Mass is available on St. John's Facebook page or YouTube channel: Saint John the Baptist, Cbus. Go to our website: www.sjbitaliana.com under Livestream Mass.

If you would also like to join me for daily Mass at St. Brigid of Kildare, please go to the St. Brigid YouTube channel and to the St. Brigid parish Facebook page.

Mass celebrant for August 21, 2022, is Fr. Noble assisted by Deacon Frank

Confessions Heard before Mass
Sundays at 9:00 a.m.

Requiescat in pace! In the charity of your prayers, please remember the family and friends of:

Gina Bishop, Parishioner and Cantor of St. John the Baptist, whose mother Arlene Weissenstein passed away this week. May she Rest in Peace with the Risen Lord!

Future Italian Festival Meetings for 2022

Date	Executive Board	General
August 29	6:30 p.m.
September 12	6:30 p.m.
September 26	5:30 p.m.	6:30 p.m.

Una Bella Sarata “A Beautiful Evening” Dinner and Dance: Please join us as we start the opening of our Columbus Italian Festival week by celebrating with a dinner and dance at The Berwick on Monday, October 3, 2022, from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. $50.00/person includes a fabulous Italian dinner and Italian music by the spectacular Ray Massa’s EuroRhythms! You can reserve tables of ten (10) for $500.00. For tickets, see Margaret Panico-Harn or Carol Ristucci after Sunday Mass in Sala Hall or by contacting Aggie Howard in the parish office during the week at 614-294-5319. All tickets must be purchased by September 26 as NO TICKETS WILL BE SOLD AT THE DOOR! Each ticket purchased will also be good for a ONE DAY free admission into the Columbus Italian Festival.

Altar Guild: The scores for the Altar Guild’s 2022 Ohio State season football pool were drawn after Mass on Sunday, July 31st, and copies are now available to all participants who signed up (see Gary Bosco in Sala Hall after any Sunday Mass). The first game is Saturday, September 3 at home against Notre Dame. The OSU bowl game pool will go on sale just prior to Thanksgiving, and the Super Bowl pool the first week of January. Good luck to all who signed up.

PAVERS: The front Pavilion of St. John’s Church is covered with Pavers. These Pavers are available for purchase and engraving in remembrance of family members and loved ones. For more information, please call the office of St. John’s at 614-294-5319.

Learn Italian!! Join us on Saturday mornings at 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. starting Saturday, September 10 (There is no class October 8th or November 26.) This is a thirteen-week program that will introduce you to the beautiful language and culture of Italy. You do not need any prior knowledge of the language. All you need is a desire to learn and a love for all things Italian! The cost will be $200.00 per person for the entire 13 weeks and all materials will be provided. The class will be held at Saint John’s in the Italian Cultural Room at 168 E. Lincoln Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215. For more information and to sign up for the class, contact Maria Milano at 614-205-1156 or email milano727@sbcglobal.net.

AROUND US

2022-23 School Year TOOLS FOR CATHOLIC SCHOOLS School Supply Drive: This year the Office of Catholic Schools is asking for financial contributions to meet the need of student school backpacks and supplies through a bulk buying process. You can contribute by sending a check to: Tools for Catholic Schools, 197 E. Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215. Your generosity is appreciated by students and their families in need. An even more important gift will be your prayers for a safe and successful school year.

CATHOLIC MEN'S LUNCHEON CLUB – FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 2022: Columbus Police Officer Mark Hauenstein will speak at our September luncheon on “The Challenges and Graces of being a Catholic Police Officer.” Please join us Friday, September 2 at St. Patrick Church in downtown Columbus for lunch followed by Officer Hauenstein’s talk. If you missed Fr. Dailey’s series on “Re-Building A Christian Culture,” videos of the talks are available along with information about Catholic Men’s Luncheon Club on the web at <https://www.catholicmensministry.com/about-cmlc>. Holy Mass (optional) begins at 11:45 a.m. followed by lunch at 12:10 p.m. and Officer Hauenstein’s talk. Free parking available in the Columbus State Grant Avenue parking lot (25-S) across the street from St. Patrick. No reservations are necessary. $12.00 covers the lunch and meeting. Bring a friend! Our next luncheon is October 7 and will feature newly ordained Dominican priest and Parochial Vicar at St. Patrick, Fr. Paul Marich. Please plan to join us then for Fr. Marich’s talk.

Liturgical Calendar: The entire month falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. It is used in the offices and Masses of Ordinary Time. The month of August is dedicated to The Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Eucharistic Revival 2022-2025: The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery. They started last June and the work will continue until 2025. For more information, please visit <https://go.virtualcatholicconference.com>.

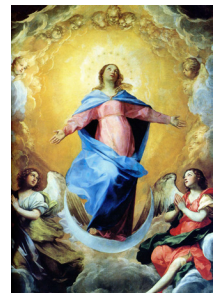

The Holy Father’s Intentions for the Month of August 2022:
For small businesses: We pray for small and medium-sized businesses; during economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

The Office of Catholic Schools: A scholarship program was recently introduced in the State of Ohio that will impact Catholic schools. A Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO) has been established that allows donors to receive a 100% Ohio tax credit up to $750.00 per person per year ($1,500.00 for those married filing jointly). This offers a wonderful opportunity to make a Catholic education accessible and affordable for all. Please go to education.columbuscatholic.org/tuition-assistance-fund for more information.

OFFICE FOR SOCIAL CONCERNS: Walking with Moms in Need (WWMIN) – Bishop Fernandes’ recent letter to priests and administrators says the Dobbs decision “can be a defining moment to demonstrate the Church’s commitment to life by walking with and supporting women and families struggling with pregnancy decisions and supporting those families after the birth of a child.” WWMIN’s process is a well-defined 5-step process. Volunteer or ask your pastor to identify your parish champion and send the name and contact information to Erin Cordle at socmailbox@columbuscatholic.org.

August 15 – The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary: The Assumption is the oldest feast day of Our Lady, celebrating the belief whereby the Blessed Virgin Mary, at the close of her earthly life, was taken up, body and soul, into the glory of heaven.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Today’s Gospel: The Gospel is from St. Luke 12:49-53. We who appreciate what He has done for us, and who are striving hard against our natural weaknesses to profit by His salvific work, can do something to console Him for the desertion of so many that He still loves dearly. God wants no human being lost eternally. He detests sin but He still loves the sinner. He is always ready to grant a full pardon for each and every sin a man commits, if only the sinner has the humility to say “mea culpa.” Let us put aside all past prejudices and opinions. We are responsible for our own actions today. We are failing Christ if we do not take a sincere and active interest in the noble and truly Christian work of ecumenism.

Prayer

O God, who have prepared for those who love You good things which no eye can see, fill our hearts, we pray, with the warmth of Your love, so that, loving You in all things and above all things, we may attain Your promises, which surpass every human desire. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

Make some noise for justice

Civil rights activist and Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient Congressman John Lewis hoped young Americans might get in trouble. "Good trouble, necessary trouble," he specified. Lewis wished that a passion for what's right might compel our young citizens to "find a way to get in the way" of injustice. A young prophet named Jeremiah once got in the way, winding up at the bottom of a well and nearly starving to death for causing trouble for his king. Jesus promises the same sort of trouble in our families if some members are baptized with fire while others don't feel the burn. Find yourself some good trouble.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10; Hebrews 12:1-4; Luke 12:49-53 (120). "He will die of famine on the spot, for there is no more food in the city."

Grief requited

Given that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was likely in her teens when she gave birth, she was probably only in her late 40s when Jesus died 33 years later. Life expectancy was a lot shorter then, but potentially Mary could have been alive for many years after seeing her son for the last time. One ancient historian wrote that she died 11 years later. It must have been a time of intense longing for her. Whether she died before she was bodily assumed into heaven or was assumed before she died is left open-ended by the church. Either way, it was an extraordinary reunion with the Lord befitting her status. Consider your own reunion with God. Plan ahead!

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY (NOT AN OBLIGATORY SOLEMNITY THIS YEAR)

TODAY'S READINGS: Vigil: 1 Chronicles 15:3-4, 15-16; 16:1-2; 1 Corinthians 15:54b-57; Luke 11:27-28 (621); Day: Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; 1 Corinthians 15:20-27; Luke 1:39-56 (622). "He has looked with favor on his lowly servant."

Embrace the mystery of communion

Brother Roger Schütz, founder of the Taizé movement, died on this date in 2005. Brother Roger began Taizé in 1940 in the French countryside, envisioning a humble monastic community to respond to the needs of war-torn refugees—but also to welcome followers from all Christian denominations. The simple house he purchased eventually blossomed into a global place of pilgrimage, especially for young people. Taizé is especially known for beautiful chants still used in congregations all over the world. "The Church is a mystery of communion," Brother Roger wrote, where we "can discover an aurora of reconciliation and the practicing of a simple joy." Pray with Taizé through their website.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 28:1-10; Matthew 19:23-30 (420). "For God all things are possible."

To each is given a mission

On this day in 1887, Marcus Garvey, one of the most influential black activists of his generation, was born in Jamaica. Founder of Universal Negro Improvement Association, a fraternal organization that he grew into an international powerhouse after emigrating to the United States, he is credited with coining the term "Black is beautiful" to encourage racial pride. Though controversial in many of his views, he is remembered for his advocacy for racial equality and economic justice. Be a voice for equality and justice as you live out your unique Christian mission.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:1-11; Matthew 20:1-16 (421). "You have made them equal to us."

Be willing to look closely

On this day in 1998 the renowned Holocaust scholar Harry James Cargas died. Most of his teaching and writing focused on the Christian response to the Holocaust. What haunted him, he once said, was that "probably every Jew killed in the Holocaust was murdered by a baptized Christian." Cargas could have chosen an easier academic path, but instead he forced Christians to take stock of their complicity. Today's Psalm is a good help for examining our own cooperation with contemporary sin: "A clean heart create for me, O God."

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 36:23-28; Matthew 22:1-14 (422). "Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Keep it simple

Saint John Eudes, a 17th-century priest and mystic, worked tirelessly to spread the gospel message, which he feared was being corrupted by various heresies. For Saint John, Christianity wasn't complicated: "The Christian life is a continuation and completion of the life of Christ in us. We should be so many Christs here on Earth, continuing His life and His works, laboring and suffering in a holy and divine manner in the spirit of Jesus." And just what was Christ's work? Look no further than the two great commandments he gave us: "Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind," and "Love your neighbor as yourself."

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 37:1-14; Matthew 22:34-40 (423). "The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Schism-saver

In 1130, Pope Honorius II was dying. In anticipation of his death, a group of cardinals agreed on Cardinal Gregory Papareschi as the next pope. Upon Honorius' death, Papareschi was elected Pope Innocent II. But another group of cardinals had another cardinal in mind for the position, Cardinal Pietro Pierleoni, and elected him as Pope Anacletus II. The church then had a pope and an antipope. Question was, which was which? Saint Bernard of Clairvaux threw his considerable weight and hard work behind Pope Innocent, who eventually prevailed, preventing what easily could have spiraled into a schism. Remember this lesson from Bernard: "If you are to do the work of a prophet, what you need is not a sceptre but a hoe."

MEMORIAL OF BERNARD, ABBOT, FOUNDER, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 43:1-7a; Matthew 23:1-12 (424). "The greatest among you must be your servant."
