ITALIAN FESTIVAL 2022

From the Deacon's Desk
Dear friends in Christ,

The famous legend of King Arthur and the Knights of the Roundtable conveys a desire to break down barriers to equality. No one was to have precedence. Arthur and the knights sat at a round table, signifying equality and unity. The issue of importance was thereby put to rest.

As an example, when putting together the table seating for a wedding, families can debate for hours who will go where. Can Aunt Rosina sit next to Cousin Guido? Whose feelings will be hurt if they are too far in the back? It can be enough to make a couple want to elope!

At a round table, those seated really must look at each other. With an oblong table, you can ignore most of the people. However, really looking at someone can change our perception of that person. We are not looking down at them, but are making a connection to them.

In our Gospel this Sunday, Jesus calls us to reconsider how we view others and live a new way. This takes a unique kind of humility. True humility leads to community. And God is the source of all that is, and everything we have comes from God. No one is better than anyone else in God's eyes. All are equal. When we realize that God is God – and we are not – then we have true humility because we recognize our place in the world.

God's banquet table is the model of what the world should look like. All are united with God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – in unity, and we partake of Communion as a symbolic action of our unity before God. As we gather this weekend for Mass to receive Our Lord at the Eucharistic table, let us keep in mind that the oneness we experience at this banquet will bring us a glimpse of the great banquet the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit has in store for all who believe.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us.

Have a good week,
Deacon Frank

P.S. – Next weekend, we welcome Deacon Paul Zemanek from Saint Brigid of Kildare Parish as our “Deacon of the Month.” Deacon Zemanek was ordained in 2016 by Bishop Frederick Campbell.

The Mass is available on St. John's Facebook page or YouTube channel: Saint John the Baptist, Cbus. Go to our website: www.sjbitaliana.com under Livestream Mass.

If you would also like to join me for daily Mass at St. Brigid of Kildare, please go to the St. Brigid YouTube channel and to the St. Brigid parish Facebook page.

Una Bella Sarata “A Beautiful Evening” Dinner and Dance: Please join us as we start the opening of our Columbus Italian Festival week by celebrating with a dinner and dance at The Berwick on Monday, October 3, 2022, from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. $50.00/person includes a fabulous Italian dinner and Italian music by the spectacular Ray Massa’s EuroRhythms! You can reserve tables of ten (10) for $500.00. For tickets, see Margaret Panico-Harn or Carol Ristucci after Sunday Mass in Sala Hall or contact Aggie Howard in the parish office during the week at 614-294-5319. All tickets must be purchased by September 26 as NO TICKETS WILL BE SOLD AT THE DOOR! Each ticket purchased will also be good for a ONE-DAY free admission into the Columbus Italian Festival.

Altar Guild: The scores for the Altar Guild’s 2022 Ohio State season football pool were drawn after Mass on Sunday, July 31st, and copies are now available to all participants who signed up (see Gary Bosco in Sala Hall after any Sunday Mass). The first game is Saturday, September 3 at home against Notre Dame. The OSU bowl game pool will go on sale just prior to Thanksgiving, and the Super Bowl pool the first week of January. Good luck to all who signed up.

PAVERS: The front Pavilion of St. John Church is covered with Pavers. These Pavers are available for purchase and engraving in remembrance of family members and loved ones. For more information, please call the office of St. John at 614-294-5319.

2022 ITALIAN FESTIVAL NEWS

Time to Volunteer at the Columbus Italian Festival. To sign up to volunteer, please go to the Festival website; <http://www.columbusitalianfestival.com>, and sign up on the genius app, or contact Carol Ristucci via text at 614-271-1007 or email cristucci06@yahoo.com.

The Columbus Italian Festival is quickly approaching. Volunteers are always welcome for the many Church booths and activities at the Festival. I appreciate your help in participation in this event. As you know, to make this event a success, it not only takes a lot of planning but also a lot of volunteers. Also, due to limitations on parking around the festival grounds, free parking will be at Columbus State. Please refer to the festival website for more information.

Cookie Booth: It is that time again calling out to all of our heavenly bakers for Pizzelle and Biscotti. You can make them at home, label and bring them to the kitchen area in Sala Hall and sign the sheet with your name and number of cookies you made. There will also be a sign-up sheet there where you can put the desired shifts you would like to work at the cookie booth, or go to bit.ly/cookieboothvolunteer and use the genius to sign up. Cookie containers will be available in Sala Hall on the back table if needed. If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Marinello at 614-906-4866 or Carol Ristucci at 614-271-1007.

The Blue Mass: Friday, September 9th, 2022, at 5:00 p.m. Celebrant and Homilist, The Most Reverend Earl K. Fernandes Bishop of Columbus at St. Timothy Church, 1088 Thomas Lane, Columbus, Ohio 43220. "To honor our police, firefighters and emergency medical services, to ask for God's blessing, to keep them safe and to guide them in their duties."

Columbus Catholic Youth Conference: The Columbus Catholic Young Adult Conference's "Presence" conference will be held Saturday, October 15th, 2022 at Saint John Neumann Parish in Sunbury, Ohio. The Columbus Catholic Young Adult Conference is a Catholic conference in the Diocese of Columbus that seeks to empower young adults to transform their communities through their identity in Christ. Our approach is to inspire and transform conference participants through Christ, motivating them to return home to their parishes and get involved, not only as the future Church, but as the Church of today. For more information or to register, go to: <https://www.ccyac.org>.

Today's Gospel: The Gospel is from St. Luke 14:1, 7-14, in which Jesus had been invited to dine in the house of a leading Pharisee. The Pharisees were so convinced of their own perfect knowledge and observance of the law, that they thought nobody else could possibly know it or observe it as perfectly as they did. In a very simple parable, Jesus told them where their pride would lead them. A proud Christian, that is, a proud follower of the humble Christ, is a contradiction in terms. Christ, the Son of God, lowered Himself to our level when He took our human nature. He was born in a stable, reared in the obscure village of Nazareth, earned His meager meals as a country carpenter, died on a cross as a malefactor with two thieves as companions and was buried in a God's banquet. Thank God, there are few whose pride leads them to these extremes, but there are far too many who set themselves up as judges over their neighbor and appoint themselves as the models to be imitated by all others. There is a little demon of pride in each one of us. We must keep this demon in check and not let him grow in us. Any gifts of mind or body that we have are from God – our duty is to use them properly and to thank God for the loan of them.

MATTHEW 23:12

Prayer

God of might, giver of every good gift, put into our hearts the love of Your name, so that, by deepening our sense of reverence, and, by

Your watchful care, keep safe what You have nurtured. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

A Prayer For Labor Day

Lord on this Labor Day, we thank You for the blessing of work. We ask for strength to complete each day. We ask for rest when we are weary. We ask for Your guidance and hope for everyone seeking employment. We ask that You be with those whose faces we might never see but who work tirelessly each day for the good of all of us.
Amen.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are heavy burdened, And I shall give you rest."

Matthew 11:28-30

Make us meek, again

We're trained in the art of competition early. First, we barter for our parents' attention with siblings or tasks that distract them from celebrating us. In school, we compete for grades; in sports, for victories. By the time we arrive in the workplace, in marriages, or in adulthood in general, we're primed to fight for what seems rightfully ours: the spotlight. Saint Thomas Aquinas recommends the way of humility as the virtue that "most effectively removes the main obstacle to our spiritual welfare, the preoccupation with earthly greatness." Cede the floor. Surrender the talking stick. Cherish humility.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29; Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a; Luke 14:1, 7-14 (126). "Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place."

Tough love is needed

We have to find ways to publicly discourse—respectfully—if we are to have any hope of remaining a society. It's increasingly common to retreat to our corners out of frustration and disgust. That's the easy way out. John the Baptist, for one, proposed a harder path of standing up for beliefs but also of generously giving oneself "in love, in truth" as Pope Francis said of John on the memorial of his passion. Is it possible to have hard conversations with disagreeable neighbors, co-workers, and family—and still "love your enemy"? Could you have those conversations by treating them as you would like to be treated?

MEMORIAL OF THE PASSION OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5 (431); Mark 6:17-29 (634). "Herod feared John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man, and kept him in custody."

Hot off the presses

On this day in 1464, Pope Paul II became our 211th pontiff. While Paul II raised eyebrows over a certain Renaissance ostentatiousness that had him amassing jewels and fine clothing, along with an extravagant remodel of Palazzo Venezia, Paul II also organized relief work among the poor and promoted the preservation of antiquities. Most notably, just a few years after Gutenberg printed his famous Bible, he brought the first printing presses to Rome, which made books more affordable and accessible to all. Open a Bible today in print or online and give thanks for the inventions that have contributed to worldwide evangelization.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 2:10b-16; Luke 4:31-37 (432). "We speak about them not with words taught by human wisdom, but with words taught by the Spirit."

Wednesday, Aug 31, 2022

The healing power

The laying on of hands is a practice with a long tradition in our faith. Jesus laid on hands to heal and, after in his post-Ascension appearances, to bestow the Holy Spirit on his followers. Christians ever since have done the same in Christ's name. God works through us, literally, in the laying on of hands. From a hug to a blessing to an anointing, touch has the power to heal. It is what Pope Francis means by the Christian "culture of encounter." It is an invitation to be moved with compassion toward others "and then to draw near, to touch and to say: 'Do not weep' and to give at least a drop of life." Reach out today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 3:1-9; Luke 4:38-44 (433). "At sunset, all who had people sick with various diseases brought them to him. He laid his hands on each of them and cured them."

Thursday, Sep 01, 2022

Be creative in protecting creation

Today is World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. These worldwide, ecumenical efforts are meant to bring together Christians in prayer, action, and advocacy for protection of the environment. One of the "great moral issues of our time [is] the preservation of God's creation," Pope Francis has stated. While the climate crisis and related issues are daunting in scale, most people can take small actions that add up: from praying for our planet, to voting for candidates who prioritize environmental issues, to running errands by bicycle. What can you do today?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 3:18-23; Luke 5:1-11 (434). "When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him."

Friday, Sep 02, 2022

Let the feast begin

We all know that fasting is a common spiritual practice. But did you know that feasting is also a spiritual practice? Consider our Catholic experience. We speak of "feast days" to celebrate saints and significant church events. We call Easter the "Feast of Feasts," ending our fasts and celebrating with special meals. We proclaim the wedding feast at Cana and the many stories of Jesus feasting with friends. Feasting can be fully enjoying any experience such as being with friends or watching the sunset. How might you incorporate it as one of your spiritual practices?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 4:1-5; Luke 5:33-39 (435). "Can you make the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them?"

Build upon existing foundations

New cities rise on the ruins of former times. New traditions build on existing ones. This is how history proceeds. Gregory the Great, the leader the early church needed in 590, understood this better than most. Instead of having temples to earlier gods destroyed, he instructed missionaries to bless them with holy water and repurpose them. The same with festivals associated with other gods. He suggested that their meaning be tied to "good fellowship," with food offered not as sacrifices to pagan gods but "for the glory of God." In this way pre-Christian Europe was converted to Christianity. Build upon the past as you help shape the future church and society.

MEMORIAL OF GREGORY THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 4:6b-15; Luke 6:1-5 (436). "The Son of Man is lord of the sabbath."
