

PRAYER FOR THE SPIRIT OF

Work

God our Father,
Creator and Ruler of
the universe,
in every age you
call us to use and
develop our gifts
for the good of others.
With St. Joseph
as our guide,
help us to do the work
you have asked and
come to the rewards
you have promised.
Please grant this through
Christ our Lord.
Amen.

ITALIAN FESTIVAL 2022

From the Deacon's Desk
Dear friends in Christ,

Some people have a lot of knowledge, but it does not always include wisdom. Only after insights or events have been reflected upon and integrated into one's life does wisdom find its birth in the human heart.

When I consider the wise people I have known, there's one virtue that stands out: humility. Whether these men and women were learned teachers with graduate degrees or persons who have no further than a high school diploma, they taught me a lot about their attitude toward knowledge and the insights that guide their lives with admirable integrity. They would not have claimed to be the sole source of their wisdom. They viewed themselves as a vessel of keen perceptions coming from the Holy Spirit who holds all wisdom.

While each of us can name important people and relationships in our lives that have a claim on our hearts, the Scriptures today wisely remind us of what needs to be the highest priority for each of us. Jesus unequivocally states that just as He will lay down His life on the cross, each of us who wish to be faithful disciples will be asked to make sacrifices in our own lives.

Each of us can be the receptacle of this profound gift of wisdom if our minds and hearts are open to receive it. Faithful discipleship demands complete surrender to God.

St. John the Baptist, pray for us!

Happy Labor Day!
Deacon Frank

Welcome to Deacon Paul Zemanek as our "Deacon of the Month." Deacon Paul was ordained in 2016 by Bishop Frederick Campbell and currently serves with me at Saint Brigid of Kildare Parish in Dublin. He also serves on the Advisory Board at Cristo Rey Columbus High School.

Future Italian Festival Meetings for 2022

Date	Executive Board	General
September 12	6:30 p.m.
September 26	5:30 p.m.	6:30 p.m.

Una Bella Serata “A Beautiful Evening” Dinner and Dance: Please join us as we start the opening of our Columbus Italian Festival week by celebrating with a dinner and dance at The Berwick on Monday, October 3, 2022, from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. $50.00/person includes a fabulous Italian dinner and Italian music by the spectacular Ray Massa’s EuroRhythms! You can reserve tables of ten (10) for $500.00. For tickets, see Margaret Panico-Harn or Carol Ristucci after Sunday Mass in Sala Hall or contact Aggie Howard in the parish office during the week at 614-294-5319. All tickets must be purchased by September 26 as NO TICKETS WILL BE SOLD AT THE DOOR! Each ticket purchased will also be good for a ONE-DAY free admission into the Columbus Italian Festival.

Altar Guild: The scores for the Altar Guild’s 2022 Ohio State season football pool were drawn after Mass on Sunday, July 31st, and copies are now available to all participants who signed up (see Gary Bosco in Sala Hall after any Sunday Mass). The first game is this Saturday, September 3 at home against Notre Dame. The OSU bowl game pool will go on sale just prior to Thanksgiving, and the Super Bowl pool the first week of January. Good luck to all who signed up.

PAVERS: The front Pavilion of St. John Church is covered with Pavers. These Pavers are available for purchase and engraving in remembrance of family members and loved ones. For more information, please call the office of St. John at 614-294-5319.

2022 ITALIAN FESTIVAL NEWS

Time to Volunteer at the Columbus Italian Festival. To sign up to volunteer, please go to the Festival website, <http://www.columbusitalianfestival.com>, and sign up on the genius app, or contact Carol Ristucci via text at 614-271-1007 or email cristucci06@yahoo.com.

The Columbus Italian Festival is quickly approaching. Volunteers are always welcome for the many Church booths and activities at the Festival. I appreciate your help in participation in this event. As you know, to make this event a success, it not only takes a lot of planning but also a lot of volunteers. Also, due to limitations on parking around the Festival grounds, free parking will be at Columbus State. Please refer to the Festival website for more information.

Cookie Booth: It is that time again; we’re calling out to all of our heavenly bakers for Pizzelle and Biscotti. You can make them at home, label and bring them to the kitchen area in Sala Hall and sign the sheet with your name and number of cookies you made. There will also be a sign-up sheet there where you can put the desired shifts you would like to work at the cookie booth, or go to bit.ly/cookieboothvolunteer to sign up. Cookie containers will be available in Sala Hall on the back table if needed. If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Marinello at 614-906-4866 or Carol Ristucci at 614-271-1007.

Learn Italian!! Join us on Saturday mornings at 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. starting Saturday, September 10 (There is no class October 8th or November 26.) This is a thirteen-week program that will introduce you to the beautiful language and culture of Italy. You do not need any prior knowledge of the language. All you need is a desire to learn and a love for all things Italian! The cost will be $200.00 per person for the entire 13 weeks and all materials will be provided. The class will be held at Saint John’s in the Italian Cultural Room at 168 E. Lincoln Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215. For more information and to sign up for the class, contact Maria Milano at 614-205-1156 or email milano727@sbcglobal.net.

Thank-you Note!
From the Women's Care Center

Deacon Iannarino,

As board members of the Women's Care Center, we would like to personally thank you and St. John the Baptist for your generous donation toward the Luxury Bingo.

Your gift reaches many families and saves so many babies.

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: September falls during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time which is represented by the liturgical color, green. Green is a symbol of hope, as it is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of September 2022: We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country.

The Office of Catholic Schools: A scholarship program was recently introduced in the State of Ohio that will impact Catholic schools. A Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO) has been established that allows donors to receive a 100% Ohio tax credit up to $750.00 per person, per year ($1,500.00 for those married filing jointly). This offers a wonderful opportunity to make a Catholic education accessible and affordable for all. Please go to education.columbuscatholic.org/tuition-assistance-fund for more information.

The Blue Mass: Friday, September 9th, 2022, at 5:00 p.m. Celebrant and Homilist, The Most Reverend Earl K. Fernandes Bishop of Columbus at St. Timothy Church, 1088 Thomas Lane, Columbus, Ohio 43220. "To honor our police, firefighters and emergency medical services, to ask for God's blessing, to keep them safe and to guide them in their duties."

Columbus Catholic Youth Conference: The Columbus Catholic Young Adult Conference's "Presence" will be held Saturday, October 15th, 2022 at Saint John Neumann Parish in Sunbury, Ohio. The Columbus Catholic Young Adult Conference is a Catholic conference in the Diocese of Columbus that seeks to empower young adults to transform their communities through their identity in Christ. Our approach is to inspire and transform conference participants through Christ, motivating them to return home to their parishes and get involved, not only as the future Church, but as the Church of today.

For more information or to register, go to: <https://www.ccyac.org>.

Today's Gospel: The Gospel is from St. Luke 14:25-33 and teaches us that the essential condition for true discipleship, demanded by Christ, was, and still is, total dedication, total commitment of oneself to Him. There can be no such person as a half-Christian. We cannot be for Christ on Sunday and against Him for the remainder of the week. To be His true disciples, His true followers, we must live our Christian life every day and all day. Following Christ is a life-journey. We must travel a certain distance each day. This does not mean that we must spend every day in prayer and meditation. There are other tasks to be done. It is by fulfilling these worldly duties in a Christian way that we dedicate ourselves to His service. The married man or woman who is loyal to his or her life-partner and to the family, if there is one, and who provides diligently and honestly for his own and the family's spiritual and temporal welfare, and who always does this with the intention of pleasing God, is following Christ and is moving steadily day by day towards heaven.

— Excerpted from The Sunday Readings Cycle C, Fr. Kevin O' Sullivan, O.F.M.

"Mercy is the experience of feeling welcomed, put back on our feet, strengthened, healed, encouraged. To be forgiven is to experience here and now that which comes closest to being resurrected."

Prayer

O God, by whom we are redeemed and receive adoption, look graciously upon Your beloved sons and daughters, that those who believe in Christ may receive true freedom and an everlasting inheritance.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Prayer For Labor Day

Lord on this Labor Day, we thank You for the blessing of work. We ask for strength to complete each day. We ask for rest when we are weary. We ask for Your guidance and hope for everyone seeking employment. We ask that You be with those whose faces we might never see but who work tirelessly each day for the good of all of us.

Amen.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, And I shall give you rest."

Matthew 11:28-30

Value life above all

What does it mean to renounce possessions? Monastic tradition recognizes that even owning a spoon is spiritually dangerous if the spoon possesses us back. Most of us own far more than utensils. We might consider the example of Lutheran humanitarian Dr. Albert Schweitzer. He wasn't a perfect man nor a flawless theologian. Schweitzer got a lot wrong about his medical mission in Africa. But he got one thing very right: Reverence for life is paramount, and society's resources should serve life as its primary ethical foundation. Place your worldly treasure at the service of life.

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 9:13-18b; Philemon 9-10, 12-17; Luke 14:25-33 (129). "Anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

Home is where the charity is

Today's commemoration of International Day of Charity got its start in Hungary to memorialize the death of Saint Mother Teresa (who died in 1997); the United Nations took it worldwide in 2012. The Missionaries of Charity, the order Mother Teresa founded with 12 members in 1950, continue her legacy by serving the "poorest of the poor." Now in 139 countries, the more than 5,000 sisters run orphanages and homes for those dying of AIDS, and care for refugees, the blind, disabled, aged, alcoholics, the poor and homeless, and victims of floods, epidemics, and famine. Despite the breadth of these efforts, Mother Teresa always said, "Love begins at home." Start your charitable activity there and watch where it takes you.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 5:1-8; Luke 6:6-11 (437). "I ask you, is it lawful to do good on the sabbath rather than to do evil, to save life rather than to destroy it?"

Let the children come

With Labor Day ending the summer, today is the first day of classes for millions of U.S. schoolchildren. Christian fantasy writer Madeleine L'Engle—who died on this day in 2007—once made a keen observation, which is helpful as children's faith formation classes begin anew: "No wonder our youth [are] confused and in pain; they long for God, for the transcendent, and they are offered, far too often, either piety or sociology, neither of which meets their needs." They encounter churches "which have become buildings that are a safe place to go to escape the awful [awesome] demands of God." Pray for parish religious ed programs today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 6:1-11; Luke 6:12-19 (438). "Everyone in the crowd sought to touch him."

Wednesday, Sep 07, 2022

Honor those who preserved the treasure

On this day in 1303, Pope Boniface VIII was attacked in his hometown of Anagni, Italy, where he was sought out for his refusal to grant favors to the French monarchy. He briefly escaped with the help of the townsfolk, but died three weeks later in Rome, refusing to back down in the face of the monarch's attempts to control the church. Pray for all those who have faced persecution and even death so that we could worship freely and without fear.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 7:25-31; Luke 6:20-26 (439).

"Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man."

Born free

Catholics have dozens of ways to honor Mary, and today's celebration of her birth fits into that larger picture of love and reverence. Today's date is nine months after the December 8 Feast of the Immaculate Conception and is also meant to celebrate Mary's sinless condition from her very beginning. Today's feast day tends to fly below the radar in the U.S. church, but in Mangalore, India, Catholics hold flower-festooned processions, pray novenas, and prepare festive meals. It's a good day anywhere to consider Mary's radical embrace of her calling and ask her help to do the same in our lives.

FEAST OF THE NATIVITY OF MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 5:1-4a or Romans 8:28-30; Matthew 1:1-16, 18-23 (636). "She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

Check for blind spots

Saint Peter Claver, S.J. (1580-1654) spent most of his life in Cartagena, Columbia ministering to enslaved people arriving at the ports. He left a lasting legacy that inspired the formation of the Knights of Peter Claver, the largest African-American Catholic fraternal order in the United States; the Apostles of the Sea, who continue to minister to seafarers around the world; and the Missionary Sisters of St. Peter Claver, who serve the poor, particularly in Africa. However, like any of us—even saints—Peter had his blind spots. Though he worked tirelessly to serve those arriving in shackles, he himself enslaved people. Many Catholics at the time spoke out against slavery; Peter did not, nor did the majority of the Catholic hierarchy. Enlightenment takes time. Like Peter Claver, show compassion as you strive for clearer vision.

MEMORIAL OF PETER CLAVER, JESUIT PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22b-27; Luke 6:39-42 (441). "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?"

Saturday, Sep 10, 2022

Help the pain

Since 2003, World Suicide Prevention Day has been observed by dozens of countries. Hosted by the International Association for Suicide Prevention, the World Federation for Mental Health, and the World Health Organization, today is marked by activities designed to make people aware of the human cost of suicide and the means of prevention. For instance, by some estimates, 22 American service veterans take their own lives every day. We've got to do everything in our power to help these souls who have been so damaged by the horror of war. Check with your local VA to see how you can help.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 10:14-22; Luke 6:43-49 (442). "Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' but not do what I command?"
