ITALIAN FESTIVAL 2022

From the Deacon's Desk
Dear friends in Christ,

There are two very short and true stories I would like to share with you:

1.) A Kansas City airport worker returned a lost cargo bag that had fallen out of an armored car and lay on the side of the road. It contained $266,000.00 in jewelry. He simply turned all of it back to the armored car company.

2.) Several months earlier, a New York City cabbie tracked down a passenger who had left a jeweler's bag in his trunk containing 31 diamond rings. "I'm a hard worker," said the soft-spoken cabbie, originally from Bangladesh – one of the poorest countries on Earth, per capita. "I enjoy my life. I'm satisfied. I'm not going to take someone else's money or property to make me rich. I don't want it that way."

How would we react if we found a bag of jewels? None of us will really know, barring the unlikely event that we face such a test. But we can use Jesus' guideline from today's Gospel to gage our likely response: "If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours?"

Let us take every small opportunity to be honest stewards of wealth, so that if we face the greater test, we will have developed the wisdom and integrity to react as did the airport worker and the cabbie.

Saint John the Baptist pray for us.

Have a blessed week,
Deacon Frank

2022 ITALIAN FESTIVAL NEWS

Time to Volunteer at the Columbus Italian Festival. To sign up to volunteer, please go to the Festival website, <http://www.columbusitalianfestival.com>, and sign up on the SignUpGenius app, or contact Carol Ristucci via text at 614-271-1007 or email cristucci06@yahoo.com.

The Columbus Italian Festival is quickly approaching. Volunteers are always welcome for the many Church booths and activities at the Festival. I appreciate your participation in this event. As you know, to make this event a success, it not only takes a lot of planning but also a lot of volunteers. Also, due to limitations on parking around the Festival grounds, free parking will be at Columbus State. Please refer to the Festival website for more information.

Cookie Booth: It is that time again; we're calling out to all of our heavenly bakers for Pizzelle and Biscotti. You can make them at home, label and bring them to the kitchen area in Sala Hall and sign the sheet with your name and number of cookies you made. There will also be a sign-up sheet there where you can put the desired shifts you would like to work at the cookie booth, or go to bit.ly/cookieboothvolunteer to sign up. Cookie containers will be available in Sala Hall on the back table if needed. If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Marinello at 614-906-4866 or Carol Ristucci at 614-271-1007.

Altar Guild: The scores for the Altar Guild's 2022 Ohio State season football pool were drawn after Mass on Sunday, July 31st, and copies are now available to all participants who signed up (see Gary Bosco in Sala Hall after any Sunday Mass). The OSU bowl game pool will go on sale just prior to Thanksgiving, and the Super Bowl pool the first week of January. Good luck to all who signed up.

PAVERS: The front Pavilion of St. John Church is covered with Pavers. These Pavers are available for purchase and engraving in remembrance of family members and loved ones. For more information, please call the office of St. John's at 614-294-5319.

Learn Italian!! Due to the short number of people signing up for the Italian Language Class, it has been canceled until further notice.

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: September falls during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time which is represented by the liturgical color green. Green is a symbol of hope, as it is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of September 2022: We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country.

Father and Son Discernment Campout: September 23-25, 2022: Open to young men 7th grade and older and their fathers (or a father figure). The weekend at Tar Hollow State Park will include camping, hiking, trail work, prayer and worship, and discussions around the campfire about the meaning of Catholic manhood and the priesthood. All adult men must be compliant with Protecting God's Children training and background check requirements.

- Cost: $30.00 per participant.
- Please register at the Wilderness Outreach website.
- For more information, contact John Bradford of Wilderness Outreach at 614-679-6761, john@wildernessoutreach.net or contact the Vocations Office vocations@columbuscatholic.org.

Columbus Catholic Youth Conference: The Columbus Catholic Young Adult Conference's "Presence" conference will be held Saturday, October 15th, 2022 at Saint John Neumann Parish in Sunbury, Ohio. The Columbus Catholic Young Adult Conference is a Catholic conference in the Diocese of Columbus that seeks to empower young adults to transform their communities through their identity in Christ. Our approach is to inspire and transform conference participants through Christ, motivating them to return home to their parishes and get involved, not only as the future Church, but as the Church of today. For more information or to register, go to: <https://www.ccyac.org>.

Into Life Conference: October 29, 2022: The Greater Columbus Right to Life and the Diocese of Columbus' Office for Social Concerns' Into Life Conference has been rescheduled to Saturday, October 29, 2022. To register, go to: <https://IntoLife2022.eventbrite.com>.

St. Vincent de Paul Annual Event: The annual Friends of the Poor Walk will be held on September 24, 2022, at 9:20 a.m., at the St. Charles Preparatory School (Athletic Track), 61 N. Nelson Road, Columbus, OH 43219. The FOP Walk is for St. Vincent de Paul Conferences to raise additional funds for the works we provide. To register and learn more, go to <https://www.fopwalk.org>. Register, Walk and Have Fun with Us!

Today's Gospel: The Gospel is from St. Luke 16:1-13. These words of Christ warning those who would follow Him on the road to heaven not to become the slaves of earthly things are applicable to all of us. Most of us may feel that this warning is for millionaires and business magnates. Our Lord didn't say so. There was not a single millionaire in His audience. He meant it for all of us, for what He warned against was not the just acquisition of this world's goods but their unjust acquisition, and the dishonest use of them when they were justly acquired. Two resolutions worthy of your sincere consideration today in relation to earthly goods are: Never let them assume all your time. You have a far more serious purpose in life. Give it a little more thought and enterprise than you have been doing. Secondly, be grateful to God for what He has given you in this life. You might like to have a lot more, but God knows best. Work honestly and be generous with what you have. You are serving God, not money. God will be waiting for you where there is no currency, and where the one bank account that matters will be the effective use that you made of your time and your share of this world's goods while you were alive.

Prayer

O God, who founded all the commands of Your sacred Law upon love of You and of our neighbor, grant that, by keeping Your precepts, we may merit to attain eternal life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

FOR YOU KNOW THE GRACE OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST.

THAT THOUGH HE WAS RICH,

YET FOR YOUR SAKE HE BECAME POOR,

SO THAT YOU BY HIS POVERTY

MIGHT BECOME RICH.

Tell the greatest stories ever

On this Catechetical Sunday, we lift up those who give instruction as religion teachers, homilists, RCIA directors, spiritual writers, and retreat leaders. Catechism doesn't have to be dull. Fantasy writer George McDonald made spiritual realities come alive. His stories inspired C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien, Mark Twain, and J.M. Barrie to do the same. Want better leadership in government, businesses, parishes? Look for good storytellers. As Pope Francis said in his 2020 address to communicators, "Each of us knows different stories that have the fragrance of the Gospel, that have borne witness to the Love that transforms life. These stories cry out to be shared!"

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 8:4-7; 1 Timothy 2:1-8; Luke 16:1-13 (135). "I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered . . . for kings and for all in authority."

See the miracles in everyday life

Little is known about the life of Januarius, a bishop and martyr who died in the year 305, but he's famous for a miracle that continues to happen all these centuries later. Three times a year in the cathedral in Naples, Italy, the faithful gather to witness a sample of his blood, kept in sealed glass, liquify and even bubble. There is no definitive explanation, and the blood cannot be studied since the vial is not allowed to be opened out of fear of permanent damage. Sound incredible? Some say yes. But does it even compare to the extraordinary tenets of your faith? Now that's something much more consequential to marvel—every day of the year.

MEMORIAL OF JANUARIUS, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 3:27-34; Luke 8:16-18 (449). "For there is nothing hidden that will not become visible, and nothing secret that will not be known and come to light."

Companions on the journey

South Korea has one of the largest Catholic populations in all of Asia. Andrew Kim Tae-gŏn—the first Korean priest—played a role. As did Paul Chŏng Ha-sang, a lay Catholic born of a martyr who was martyred himself. In fact, the birth of the Korean church is a laypeople's triumph. Pope John Paul II stressed this fact during his 1984 canonization of Tae-gŏn, Ha-sang, and 101 other martyrs: "Even though the Christians in the first half century had only two priests from China to assist them for a time, they deepened their unity in Christ through prayer and fraternal love. . . . The splendid flowering of the Church in Korea today is indeed the fruit of the heroic witness of the Martyrs." We, too, are called to be companions to the martyrs in building up the Body of Christ.

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW KIM TAE-GŎN, PRIEST, AND PAUL CHŎNG HA-SANG, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 21:1-6, 10-13; Luke 8:19-21 (450). "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and act on it."

Even tax collectors need a patron

Though we don't know much about the apostle Matthew—even whether he was the actual author of the gospel that bears his name—we do know that he was a tax collector. And because of this, he was persona non grata in the Jewish community. It was the occupying Romans who demanded those taxes, so Matthew and his fellow taxmen were seen as collaborators. From the very beginning of his ministry, Jesus laid out the invitation to break out of righteous categories and see beyond narrow prejudices. A reminder for us to do the same.

FEAST OF MATTHEW, APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:9-13 (643). "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."

Celebrate Earth, our common home

Many Catholics are still getting used to the Season of Creation, which spans the period from September 1 (World Day of Prayer for the Care for Creation) to October 4 (Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi). Initiated in 1989 and embraced by Catholics in 2015, this ecumenical season is meant to celebrate care for our common home. Leaders encourage the faithful to pray and take action to honor and preserve our planet. With more than a week left of the season, there's time to celebrate in your own style: be it a prayerful outdoor time, an environmental letter to a legislator, or a look at the ecology encyclical, Laudato Si'. Seasonofcreation.org offers even more ideas.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 1:2-11; Luke 9:7-9 (452). "But Herod said, 'John I beheaded. Who then is this about whom I hear such things?'"

Scripture makes Billboard's Top 10

We don't often see Bible songs hit the pop music charts. But a song by singer-songwriter and social activist Pete Seeger did just that. Written in the late 1950s, the song "Turn! Turn! Turn!" would explode to international popularity in 1965 when recorded by the Byrds. Not bad for lyrics written well over 2,000 years ago! The song is based on the book of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8. Not every popular use of the Bible turns out well, but Seeger's did, perhaps because he left the verses largely intact. Consider other scripture passages that are music to your ears.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 3:1-11; Luke 9:18-22 (453). "There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every thing under the heavens."

Saturday, Sep 24, 2022

The clock is ticking

The Spanish philosopher Miguel de Unamuno is quoted as having said the entire gospel came down to this phrase: "Wake up!" That's something we can all keep in mind and take to heart when we find ourselves simply going through the motions, sleepwalking through the day. The Benedictines put it another way: "Keep death ever before you." Now that's a wake-up call if there ever was one! Do something good, kind, generous—and do it today, while there is still time!

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 11:9—12:8; Luke 9:43b-45 (454). "Pay attention to what I am telling you."
