THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends in Christ,

We live in a world which is full of confusion and unrest. In the midst of such a world, we are expected to be witnesses to Christ. To be good and faithful witnesses, we need help from on high. As the liturgical year draws to a close, the focus is on the end of the world and the Second Coming of Christ (Parousia). The prophet Malachi (First Reading) says that for evildoers, the Day of the Lord will be a day of judgment; but for the upright, it will be a day of salvation. His stark message was meant to act as a warning to sinners and as an encouragement to the just.

The Second Reading also relates to the Second Coming (Parousia). Some of the Thessalonians, believing that the Parousia was imminent, saw no need to work. Presenting himself as an example, Paul tells them to go on living and working as normal, and not to be content to live off the community.

Luke talks about the Parousia in close association with the destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple. The destruction of the Temple, which Jesus had predicted, had already occurred by the time Luke was writing. This would have been interpreted by some as a sign that the end of the world was starting. But Luke reminds them of the words of Jesus, in which He warned His disciples not to be deceived by rumors and apparent signs that the end is near.

The Gospel goes on to address the situation of Christians in a time of persecution. Persecution will be an opportunity to bear witness to the Gospel. The Lord will see to it that believers will triumph in the end, provided they remain steadfast.

Saint Vincent Pallotti tells us: "All of us are obliged to help each other to obtain heaven ... Everyone must try to prevent his neighbor's damnation and procure his salvation with all possible means."

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Andrew
Keep smiling, be positive; God loves you!

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: With the exception of the last three days, the entire month of November falls during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by green. The last Sunday, which marks the beginning of Advent, the liturgical color changes to purple, representing a time of penance.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of November 2022: We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

November Plenary Indulgence: Each November, the Church gives us an extraordinary gift that we can extend to the souls in Purgatory. From November 1-8, a plenary indulgence was available for Catholics in a state of grace who visited a cemetery and prayed, even if only mentally, for the dead. This indulgence can only be applied to the souls in Purgatory. In addition to praying in the cemetery, the conditions for a plenary indulgence are: (a) to receive Communion once for each intended indulgence; (b) go to Confession – a single Confession will suffice for all; and (c) pray at least one Our Father and one Hail Mary for the pope's intentions. Padre Pio reminds us that it is never too late to pray, whether a person died recently or long ago: "For the Lord, ...everything is an eternal present."

Book of Remembrance: As in the past, we remember our dead relatives and friends during the month of November by praying that God purify them for the heavenly kingdom.

A Book of Remembrance will be placed in the Church near the entrance.

Month of Holy Souls: The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed from this life but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. St. Paul warns us that we must not be ignorant concerning the dead, nor sorrowful, “even as others who have no hope...For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven ... and the dead who are in Christ shall rise.” The Church has always taught us to pray for those who have gone into eternity. Throughout November, a book will be available for Sacred Heart Parishioners to list the names of deceased loved ones. These names will be prayed for during this month.

Christmas Concert at Sacred Heart: Bishop Watterson High School Choir will be performing at Sacred Heart on Tuesday, December 6 at 7:00 p.m. Admission is free.

Bethesda Healing Ministry: The initiative of Giving Tuesday began in 2012 and has become an annual event on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving. This year, we are asking for your participation. We ask that you prayerfully consider donating to support Bethesda Healing Ministry on Tuesday, November 29, 2022.

Donations may be made through the Catholic Foundation Bethesda Healing Ministry Donor Advised Fund at https://catholic-foundation.org/give-now/?fund\_name=Bethesda%2BHealing%2BMinistry%2BDonor%2BAdvised%2BFund or by going to our “Give Now” page (<https://www.myegiving.com/app/giving/Beth2744992>) where you have the option of a one-time gift or a recurring donation. Please be sure to hold the “ctrl” key while clicking the link to the desired donation page.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
May God bless you and your families this holiday season.

CATHOLIC MEN’S LUNCHEON CLUB – FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2022 – SPEAKER Bishop Earl Fernandes.

Please join us Friday, December 2 at St. Patrick Church in downtown Columbus for lunch and Bishop Fernandes’ talk. This will be Bishop Fernandes’ first appearance at the Catholic Men’s Luncheon Club since his ordination and installation as the 13th Bishop of Columbus. The December luncheon is sponsored by Bottoms-Up Diaper Bank. 1 in 3 single mothers struggle to buy diapers for their children. The average baby needs 6-10 diapers per day.

More information about Bottoms-Up Diaper Bank is available at <https://www.bottomsup.life/>. Holy Mass (optional) begins at 11:45 a.m. followed by lunch at 12:10 p.m. and Bishop Fernandes’ talk. Overflow parking is available in the Columbus State Grant Avenue parking lot (25-S) across the street from St. Patrick.

No reservations are necessary. $12.00 covers the lunch and meeting. Bring a friend!

There will be no luncheon in January 2023. Please mark your calendar for Friday, February 3, 2023, when Bishop Fernandes will return to honor the 2023 Catholic Man of the Year.

Visit with St. Nicholas: St. Nicholas will be visiting the Maria Stein Shrine to entertain kids with crafts, games, activities, cookies and hot cocoa on Sunday, December 4 from 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m.! Register online at mariasteinshrine.org; cost is $10.00 per child. This event is best geared towards children between the ages of 5 and 10. An adult must accompany all children. Last day to register is NOVEMBER 20.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE OFFICE: Pre-Cana Diocesan Parish Partnership. Our innovative approach to Pre-Cana is to empower local parishes, or clusters of parishes, to host this one-day retreat with the direct support of the Marriage & Family Life Office. The parish will simply recruit 2-3 couples, and then the Diocesan Marriage Formation Coordinator will train the team, host registration, purchase materials, etc. This model is sustainable and ensures for some consistency in formation throughout the Diocese, yet is flexible enough to meet the needs of the parish. It also builds community and allows for development of strong teams of married couples giving of themselves to their parish. Multiple teams have already been formed, and pre-Canas are already taking place using this model. We invite you to get your local Pre-Cana ministry started today by emailing Brooke Warren at bwarren@columbuscatholic.org!

Today’s Gospel: The Gospel is from St. Luke, 21:5-19. We are reminded today that this world will come to an end one day. We do not know when or how, but that end will come. It will be followed immediately by the general judgment. Christ will come in power and glory to judge the whole human race. Each one will receive the sentence he merited while on earth. The just will enter with Him into eternal glory. The wicked will go to their place of suffering. Long before that day comes, each of us here present today will already have faced his or her own judgment. It is this judgment which will seal our eternal fate. It is on this judgment that we should try to concentrate. It is to help and encourage us to do just this that the church brings the thought of the end of the world before our minds. The end of this world will come for each one of us when we draw our last breath. How will we stand in God’s sight when that moment comes? An eternity of happiness or grief will depend on our spiritual state at that moment. Over two hundred thousand people will leave this world today. If we were called, could we dare to face our judgment in our present state? “Today if you hear God’s voice harden not your heart” the Scripture warns us. Today, you have heard Him speak to you. He has reminded you that your end is coming, that you should put your spiritual accounts in order. Try to live always in God’s friendship. The person who does this by living a Christian life daily need not fear death.

—Excerpted from The Sunday Readings Cycle C,
Fr. Kevin O’ Sullivan, O.F.M.

“If we have received the Spirit, our ecclesial vocation is to preserve unity and cultivate it together. To be credible in our dialogue with others, let us live in fraternity among ourselves.” @Pontifex

Prayer

Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness of being devoted to You, for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy the author of all that is good. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Sunday, Nov 13, 2022*Apocalypse soon?

The approaching end of the church year brings a cascade of dreadful-sounding biblical images in many of the scripture readings. Should we be packing our bags for a mad dash to the end-times? As Malachi says, "Lo, the day is coming"—and of course it is. Time forecloses both personally and cosmically. This is why we're regularly reminded to stay "sober and alert," "awake," and "watchful." The threats are real: climate change, global disease, catastrophes, and random violence, not to mention the genetic time bomb that is our bodies. Live each day with purpose. Meet each moment with love.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:19-20a; 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12; Luke 21:5-19 (159). "There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs."

Monday, Nov 14, 2022*Call upon his names

We often call people close to us by special names: Sweetheart, Honey, Angel. The names both describe the person and reveal how we feel about them. The same goes for our names for God and Jesus in particular. We call him Christ, Messiah, Son of David, Son of God as well as Prince of Peace, the Good Shepherd, King of Kings, Light of the World, Bread of Life, the Living Word—among many others. Say a Litany of the Holy Name of Jesus today to ponder the meaning of his names. In the end, remember his birth name, Jesus, means, "God saves." The catechism says: "The name 'Jesus' contains all: God and man and the whole economy of creation and salvation." Shakespeare famously asked, "What's in a name?" In our Lord's case, everything!

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 1:1-4; 2:1-5; Luke 18:35-43 (497). "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!"

Tuesday, Nov 15, 2022*With passion, pursue the good

You could say Saint Albert the Great was a real renaissance man, even though he died in 1289, before the Renaissance flourished. As a learned Dominican friar, he was an astute professor of philosophy, mentoring his famous pupil Thomas Aquinas and thus laying the groundwork for scholasticism. But Albert also wrote on other subjects he was passionate about: chemistry, physics, biology, astronomy, and geography—and served as bishop and theologian to the pope. "Knowledge of divine things is imprinted on our minds by union with God, who is Wisdom itself," said Albert. Thank God for the good things you are passionate about, using them wisely to honor our Creator.

MEMORIAL OF ALBERT THE GREAT, DOMINICAN, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 3:1-6, 14-22; Luke 19:1-10 (498).

"Because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth."

Wednesday, Nov 16, 2022*Demonstrate a mother's love

On this day 160 years ago, one of America's most influential nuns died in her hometown of New Orleans. A Creole, Venerable Henriette DeLille—founder of the Sisters of the Holy Family and their first mother superior—toiled for decades in education and philanthropy on behalf of the region's black community. She founded her convent in 1834 as a place where black women with a religious calling could serve the community, despite racist opposition from many in the church. Following her death, DeLille's reputation for holiness resulted in her cause for canonization being opened in 1997, the first for a U.S.-born African American. May her spirit of indefatigable service inspire us all to grow in sanctity and serve the forgotten in a country where racism continues to damage church and society. Mother Henriette, pray for us!

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 4:1-11; Luke 19:11-28 (499). "He called ten of his servants and gave them ten gold coins and told them, 'Engage in trade with these until I return.'"

Thursday, Nov 17, 2022*Carry on the healing tradition

Christianity has always elevated care for the sick as a key virtue. From Jesus' focus on healing to modern medical systems built by religious orders, helping the ill has been central from day one. Today's saint, Queen Elizabeth of Hungary, built two hospitals. After she lost her fortune, she gave hands-on care to the sick, the aged, and the poor. The next time you shoulder extra work for a sick co-worker or make a late-night run for medicine for a family member, think of it as an opportunity to practice your faith.

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, QUEEN, THIRD ORDER FRANCISCAN

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 5:1-10; Luke 19:41-44 (500). "[Jesus] saw the city and wept over it, saying, 'If this day you only knew what makes for peace.'"

Friday, Nov 18, 2022*Learn the language

Making Jesus known to others is a gospel imperative. Saint Philippine Duchesne, R.S.C.J. possessed that evangelizing spirit when she left Paris for New Orleans to serve the French-speaking people in U.S. territories. As a member of the Society of the Sacred Heart, her mission was education. She not only taught people to read and write, but she watched as newly baptized adults, particularly members of the Potawatomie tribe, began spreading the gospel in their own language. As you play your own part in making Jesus known, remember to start with the language of love. That is always an attention getter.

MEMORIAL OF ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE, SACRED HEART MISSIONARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 10:8-11; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "It is written, My house shall be a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves."

Saturday, Nov 19, 2022*Make men whole

International Men's Day is a little-known commemoration held today that needs more notice. Wounded (some would say toxic) masculinity—a distorted and often violence-oriented view of "what it means to be a man"—is manifest in so many ills in our society, starting with what Father Richard Rohr calls the "father wound." Rohr tells a story from when he was a prison chaplain: He found great demand among the imprisoned men for Mother's Day cards to send. When he offered them cards to send on Father's Day, however, he had no takers. Real men can be strong without violence, kind without coercion. Help the men in your life (men, this starts with you!) to heal their wounded masculinity.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 11:4-12; Luke 20:27-40 (502). "Teacher, you have answered well."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
