Our Lord Jesus Christ

King of the Universe

He is before all things,
and in him all things
hold together.

Thanksgiving Prayer

O God, when I have food,
 help me to remember the hungry;
 When I have work,
 help me to remember the jobless;
 When I have a home,
 help me to remember those who have no home at all;
 When I am without pain,
 help me to remember those who suffer,
 And remembering,
 help me to destroy my complacency;
 be concerned enough to help;
 By word and deed,
 those who cry out for what we take for granted.
 Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Church year ends this Sunday with the Solemnity of Christ the King. Over the past months, we have celebrated the mysteries of the life of our Lord. Now we contemplate Christ in His glorified state as King of all creation and of our souls. The feast of the Epiphany, Easter and Ascension also relate to Christ the King and Lord of the Universe, but with His special celebration, Church would like to remind us... Jesus is indeed a king, but a strange kind of king. He came not to conquer but to convert, not to dominate but to liberate, not to rule but to serve. He died as a criminal yet reigned from the cross. He responded to the worst with what was best in Him. And today with St. Paul, we can say: “Thanks be to God, who has taken us out of the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son; in whom we gain our freedom, and the forgiveness of our sins.”

We invoke the Kingdom daily in the prayer of the “Our Father” with the words “Thy Kingdom come”; in effect we say to Jesus: Lord, make us yours, live in us, gather together a scattered and suffering humanity, so that in you all may be subjected to the Father of mercy and love. Specially, by the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation we are called to bear witness to the kingdom of God. This means working to bring out ever more clearly the priority of God and His will over the interests of the world and its powers.

The Solemnity of Christ, King of the Universe, invites us to repeat with faith the prayer of the Our Father, which Jesus Himself taught us: “Thy kingdom come.”

Thy kingdom come, O Lord! — “A kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace.” (Preface)

Have a blessed week my friends!

Keep smiling, be positive...God loves us!
Fr. Andrew

Altar Guild: Starting Sunday, November 20, the Altar Guild will begin selling entries for the annual Ohio State bowl game that will take place at the end of December. Cost is $10.00 per square with winning payouts of $200.00 for the winning numbers at the end of quarters 1, 2, 3, and end of game final score. As always, 100% of the income earned by the guild is used to purchase items for the church altar, such as altar cloths, banners, vestments for priest/deacon, and the new tabernacle, etc. This pool sells out very fast so if interested in participating, see Gary Bosco in Sala Hall after any Sunday Mass. As soon as all entries are sold, the square numbers will be drawn after that Sunday Mass and copies will be distributed to all participants.

AROUND US

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of November 2022: We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

Month of Holy Souls: The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed from this life but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. Throughout November, a book will be available for St. John Parishioners to list the names of deceased loved ones. These names will be prayed for during this month.

November Plenary Indulgence: Each November, the Church gives us an extraordinary gift that we can extend to the souls in Purgatory. A plenary indulgence was available earlier this month for Catholics in a state of grace who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the dead. This indulgence can only be applied to the souls in Purgatory. In addition to praying in the cemetery, the conditions for a plenary indulgence are: (a) to receive Communion once for each intended indulgence; (b) go to Confession – a single Confession will suffice for all; and (c) pray at least one Our Father and one Hail Mary for the pope's intentions. Padre Pio reminds us that it is never too late to pray, whether a person died recently or long ago: "For the Lord, ...everything is an eternal present."

Christmas Concert at Sacred Heart: Bishop Watterson High School Choir will be performing at Sacred Heart on Tuesday, December 6 at 7:00 p.m. Admission is free.

Catholic Men's Luncheon Club – Friday, December 2, 2022 – Speaker Bishop Earl Fernandes. Please join us Friday, December 2 at St. Patrick Church in downtown Columbus for lunch and Bishop Fernandes' talk. This will be Bishop Fernandes' first appearance at the Catholic Men's Luncheon Club since his ordination and installation as the 13th Bishop of Columbus. The December luncheon is sponsored by Bottoms Up Diaper Bank. 1 in 3 single mothers struggle to buy diapers for their children. The average baby needs 6-10 diapers per day. More information about Bottoms Up Diaper Bank is available at <https://www.bottomsup.life/>. Holy Mass (optional) begins at 11:45 a.m. followed by lunch at 12:10 p.m. and Bishop Fernandes' talk. Overflow parking is available in the Columbus State Grant Avenue parking lot (25-S) across the street from St. Patrick. No reservations are necessary. $12.00 covers the lunch and meeting. Bring a friend! There will be no luncheon in January 2023. Please mark your calendar for Friday, February 3, 2023, when Bishop Fernandes will return to honor the 2023 Catholic Man of the Year.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE OFFICE:Pre-Cana Diocesan-Parish Partnership

Our innovative approach to Pre-Cana is to empower local parishes, or clusters of parishes, to host this one-day retreat with the direct support of the Marriage & Family Life Office. The parish will simply recruit 2-3 couples, and then the Diocesan Marriage Formation Coordinator will train the team, host registration, purchase materials, etc. This model is sustainable and ensures for some consistency in formation throughout the Diocese yet is flexible enough to meet the needs of the parish. It also builds community and allows for development of strong teams of married couples giving of themselves to their parish. Multiple teams have already been formed, and pre-Canas are already taking place using this model. We invite you to get your local Pre-Cana ministry started today by e-mailing Brooke Warren at bwarren@columbuscatholic.org!

Catholic Campaign for Human Development: More than thirty-seven million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face in bringing permanent and positive change to their communities. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd.

Visit with St. Nicholas: St. Nicholas will be visiting the Maria Stein Shrine to entertain kids with crafts, games, activities, cookies and hot cocoa on Sunday, December 4 from 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m.! Register online at mariasteinshrine.org; cost is $10.00 per child. This event is best geared towards children between the ages of 5 and 10. An adult must accompany all children. Last day to register is NOVEMBER 20.

Charity Newsie Paper Sale and President's Church Service: Since 1907, Charity Newsies have provided warm new clothing to school-age children in Franklin County. Over that time, the Newsies have clothed 500,000 children. On Saturday, December 10, three hundred Newsies will take to the streets and sell a special edition of the Dispatch for "whatever your heart tells you to give" with 100% going to clothe the children. Parishioner and Newsie President Brian Rigg is excited to announce the President's Church Service will be held at St. John's The Baptist Church on Sunday, December 4, 9:30 a.m. Charity Newsie members will be notified of this Mass. Please keep the Newsies in your prayers for a safe and successful paper sale.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ: The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, formerly referred to as "Christ the King," was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 as an antidote to secularism, a way of life which leaves God out of man's thinking and living and organizes his life as if God did not exist. The feast is intended to proclaim in a striking and effective manner Christ's royalty over individuals, families, society, governments, and nations.

*"Saints do not come from a "parallel universe." They are believers rooted in their daily activities with their families, study, work; social, economic, and political life. In all these settings, they fearlessly strive to carry out God's will."
@Pontifex*

Prayer: Almighty ever-living God, whose will is to restore all things in Your beloved Son, the King of the universe, grant, we pray, that the whole creation, set free from slavery, may render Your majesty service, and ceaselessly proclaim Your praise. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Sunday, Nov 20, 2022Suffer the little children to enter paradise

Jesus promises Paradise to a man dying in disgrace next to him on the cross. Today, on World Children's Day, we can bring Paradise a little closer by contemplating 10 principles the United Nations calls the "Rights of the Child," including: Every child without exception should have a name and nationality; access to physical, mental, moral, spiritual, and social development; food, housing, and medical care; love and understanding; education and moral guidance; protection from exploitation and discrimination. Our Catholic preferential option for the poor and respect for life fully embraces the welfare of children.

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Samuel 5:1-3; Colossians 1:12-20; Luke 23:35-43 (162). "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Monday, Nov 21, 2022Ready for the ride of your life?

Just as Catholics celebrate the conception, birth, and presentation in the temple of Jesus, we celebrate the same events in the life of Mary. God's plans (for all of us) begin and unfold before anyone's understanding of them. The story of Mary's presentation in the temple comes from a non-biblical text that says Mary's parents consecrated her to God at a very young age. With her Immaculate Conception, God set her on the path to a pivotal role in salvation history, but it required dedication and preparation nonetheless—culminating in her immortal "yes" at the Annunciation. Life hands us circumstances, and sometimes decisions are made that are beyond our control—have you considered how those might shape your purpose? Commit to following where the Spirit might lead you.

MEMORIAL OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 14:1-3, 4b-5; Luke 21:1-4 (503). "She, from her poverty, has offered her whole livelihood."

Tuesday, Nov 22, 2022Speak up

Once Saint Paul's letters were collected in the third century, he got heat from Christians for "Wives, be submissive to your husbands"—adding that neither should they speak in church. For the third century also saw the martyrdom of Saint Cecilia. Paul's critics pointed out that Cecilia's eloquent words persuaded her husband and led him (and others) to convert. As for not speaking in church? It was Cecilia who allowed an underground church to worship in her home. Cecilia's story is told in Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, recounted by a nun who praises her for evangelizing with both words and example. Men and women of faith, glorify God today with your own words and example!

MEMORIAL OF CECILIA, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 14:14-19; Luke 21:5-11 (504). "Reap the harvest, for the time to reap has come."

Wednesday, Nov 23, 2022We owe You

We naturally think of Saint Paul when we think of letters written to the early Christians in Corinth, but Saint Clement I—a disciple of the apostles and later a pope—had occasion to write to the Corinthian church as well. From one of those letters comes advice that's fitting for Americans celebrating Thanksgiving tomorrow: "If you are wise, then display your wisdom by good deeds; and if you are modest, let others speak of your modesty instead of proclaiming the fact yourself. To God we owe everything, and therefore on every count we are under obligation to thank him."

MEMORIAL OF CLEMENT I, POPE, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 15:1-4; Luke 21:12-19 (505). "I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking."

Thursday, Nov 24, 2022Saved in the cloud

Thanksgiving is a time to recall the blessings in our lives. Most who are reading these words can give thanks to God for the freedom to worship, something absent for the saints and martyrs memorialized on this date. Today's memorial is unusual in that it honors 117 Vietnamese martyrs, the "companions" of Father Andrew Dũng-Lạc. In fact, those 117 actually represent the 100,000 to 300,000 Vietnamese Christians killed or severely persecuted for their faith between the 17th and 19th centuries. May your actions of gratitude today give honor to this "cloud of witnesses."

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW DŨNG-LẠC, PRIEST, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 18:1-2, 21-23; 19:1-3, 9a; Luke 21:20-28 (506). "Then [Jesus] said to him, 'Stand up and go; your faith has saved you.'"

Friday, Nov 25, 2022Called to speak out

The early church was a place of great religious fervor and danger. Prior to 313 Christianity was outlawed, and many adherents were put to death. This was the age of the martyrs, including Catherine of Alexandria. Catherine was well educated and known for her keen intellect. As she grew in the faith, she became an outspoken critic of the dominant religion of the Roman empire. Though given many unconscionable "outs" to avoid death, Catherine held firmly to her beliefs and continued to speak out. What compels you to speak out, even when it costs you?

MEMORIAL OF CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 20:1-4, 11—21:2; Luke 21:29-33 (507). "I also saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness to Jesus and for the word of God."

Saturday, Nov 26, 2022The last day

It's the last day of the year—the liturgical year, that is. Tomorrow is the beginning of a new liturgical year, a new cycle of readings, and a new season of joyful hope. Good thing, because the readings for the past few weeks, like today's, have been words of warning and apprehension regarding the "eschaton," which means the end of the world. It all sounds terrifying, but it is good news, for however you prefer to interpret it, literally or figuratively, unless this world passes away in some way, the kingdom Jesus preached isn't fully realized. Pray God's kingdom come!

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 22:1-7; Luke 21:34-36 (508). "Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to escape the tribulations."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
