

NOVEMBER 6, 2022 · THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

HE IS NOT GOD OF THE DEAD,
BUT OF THE LIVING,
FOR TO HIM ALL ARE ALIVE.

LUKE 20:38

THE ITALIAN CATHOLIC COMMUNITY OF

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Dear friends in Christ,

The liturgy for this Sunday and the coming weeks of the month of November, bring our attention to one of the truths of the Faith listed in the Creed: the resurrection of the body and the reality of life everlasting.

Sacred Scripture teaches us that death was not part of God's original plan for mankind. It is a consequence of the sin of our first parents. Through His Resurrection, Christ demonstrated His power over death.

To resurrect means to lift up something that has fallen down, to bring again to life that which was dead, to restore to life that which has succumbed to dust.

The Church has always taught that the Resurrection of Christ is the foundation of our Faith.

Each Sunday, we end the Creed with these words: “and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.”

Belief in an afterlife is one of the most important of our beliefs as Christians.

Without it, our lives on earth are a journey to nowhere. With it, our lives on earth are a journey to the promised land of eternal life.

Hope is a vital part of life. What bread does for the body, hope does for the spirit. We spend a great deal of our lives waiting, hoping, and longing for one thing or another. But we know that this world can never fulfill our deepest hopes and longings. Only God can do that.

God has made promises to us in Christ which cannot fail, promises which death cannot annul.

Our hope of resurrection lies in the power and love of God. Death is not the enemy who puts an end to everything, but the friend who takes us by the hand and leads us into the Kingdom of eternal love.

The splendid prospect of eternal life should enable us to live out joyfully the mystery of our fragile human condition which sees us suspended between earth and heaven, between time and eternity, between nothingness and infinity.

So, my friends, let us pray: Almighty and ever-living God, may You support us all day long, till the shadows lengthen, and evening falls, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done; then in Your mercy, Lord, grant us a safe lodging, a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

Yours in Christ – Fr. Andrew

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: With the exception of the last three days, the entire month of November falls during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the color green. The last Sunday, which marks the beginning of Advent, the liturgical color changes to purple, representing a time of penance.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of November 2022: We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

St. Charles Open House for Prospective Students on November 6:

You are invited to see our campus and learn about the school during the St. Charles Open House program taking place on Sunday, November 6 at 1:00 p.m. Included is a presentation by Principal Jim Lower, a Q & A session with current parents and faculty members, tours of campus, and opportunities to learn about and speak to members of our many teams, clubs, and organizations. Register for the Open House today at <https://www.stcharlesprep.org/open-house-2022/>.

Month of Holy Souls: The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The Church commemorates all her faithful children who have departed from this life but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. St. Paul warns us that we must not be ignorant concerning the dead, nor sorrowful, “even as others who have no hope...For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven...and the dead who are in Christ shall rise.” The Church has always taught us to pray for those who have gone into eternity. Throughout November, a book will be available for Sacred Heart Parishioners to list the names of deceased loved ones. These names will be prayed for during this month

Remember to pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory from November 1 to the 8.

Marian Dinner: Wednesday, November 9 at 6:00 p.m. at the Nugent Hall at Saint Andrew Parish. This is an event for young ladies to promote religious vocations, and they will have the opportunity to meet religious sisters who are working in the Diocese. Please contact Yvette Reategui by phone, 614-224-2251, or email, yreategui@columbuscatholic.org.

Josephinum Come and See: Please encourage young men (high school juniors and seniors and college-age) in your parish to consider attending the Come and See Weekend at the Josephinum, November 10-13. Your parish office will be receiving a bulletin announcement for the same from the Vocations Office. If you have a young man interested in attending, please email the Vocations Office - vocations@columbuscatholic.org or call 614-221-5565, and we will help get him registered.

Christmas Concert at Sacred Heart: Bishop Watterson High School Choir will be performing at Sacred Heart on Tuesday, December 6 at 7:00 p.m. Admission is free.

November is National Adoption Month: Springs of Love will be holding a virtual retreat November 12-13 for couples discerning foster parenting and adoption. Talks will address fostering and adopting after infertility, adopting a child with special needs, international and domestic adoption, adoption from foster care, grieving when foster children leave, caring for a child who has experienced trauma, adopting older children, what to do when only one spouse feels called, and more. Register at <https://springsoflove.org/>.

Today's Gospel: The Gospel is from St. Luke 20:27-38. We can thank the Sadducees today. They came to our Lord with what they thought was a case that would make the doctrine of the resurrection look very ridiculous. It would have appeared so, if it were understood in the crude sense which they gave it, namely, that we would come forth again from the grave in the very same bodies which we now have, with all their needs and instincts.

Our Lord corrected that erroneous idea. God wants each one of us to [attain] heaven, by living our life on earth, and trusting in His word that heaven will be our eternal home if we do our part here below. Let each one of us investigate our own conscience this morning. Let us ask ourselves, how we would fare if death should claim us tonight. If there are sins on my conscience, which I would not want there when facing my just Judge, I still have time to approach the merciful Father. The Christian who does this daily, or even weekly, will not worry when death calls. He can rest assured that it is the beginning of the true and everlasting life, planned for him by God before time began.

— Excerpted from The Sunday Readings Cycle C,
Fr. Kevin O' Sullivan, O.F.M.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE OFFICE:

Pre-Cana Diocesan-Parish Partnership

Our innovative approach to Pre-Cana is to empower local parishes, or clusters of parishes, to host this one-day retreat with the direct support of the Marriage & Family Life Office. The parish will simply recruit 2-3 couples, and then the Diocesan Marriage Formation Coordinator will train the team, host registration, purchase materials, etc. This model is sustainable and ensures for some consistency in formation throughout the Diocese, yet is flexible enough to meet the needs of the parish. It also builds community and allows for development of strong teams of married couples giving of themselves to their parish. Multiple teams have already been formed, and Pre-Canas are already taking place using this model. We invite you to get your local Pre-Cana ministry started today by e-mailing Brooke Warren at bwarren@columbuscatholic.org!

“Let us beware of narcissism and exhibitionism, based on vainglory, which lead even us Christians always to have the word “I” on our lips: “I have done this, I said it, I understood it.” Where there is too much “I,” there is too little God.”

@Pontifex

Prayer

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time: Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep from us all adversity, so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart the things that are Yours. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

All Saints Day Prayer

Bless the many parted souls who lived their lives with grace.

Bless the saints in heaven, gathered in that special place.

May we tell their stories and remember all the ways they lived their faith and spent their days.

There is glory and reward, even if at first there's strife.

Oh, blessed saints, you help us see a path that is to eternal life.

May we always hold them dear and know their life and place.

May we know their inspiration and aspire to their grace. Amen.

Sunday, Nov 06, 2022Formation information

Did you know there are more than 700 religious institutes and societies of apostolic life at work in the United States? That women religious outnumber men religious by more than three to one? That nearly three-fourths of those currently in formation for religious life are Millennials (born roughly from the early 1980s to late 1990s)? That 30 percent of newer entrants to religious life are ethnically and racially diverse, including Asian/Pacific Islander (13 percent), Hispanic (10 percent), black (6 percent), and mixed race (1 percent)? We can't list all 50 facts here, but to download your own post-able, share-worthy list for National Vocation Awareness Week (which starts today), check out Fifty Fun Facts about vocations on the National Religious Vocation Conference website.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:16—3:5; Luke 20:27-38 (156). "Pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified as it did among you."

Monday, Nov 07, 2022Until we rest in You

National Vocation Awareness Week runs annually the first full week of November (this year, Nov. 6-12) to promote vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to pray and support those who are considering these vocations. Have you ever thought about a vocation to religious life? Do you know someone who could use help discerning such a vocation? Take some time this week to visit Vision Vocation Network for resources to help you discern your path, including a calendar of discernment events, a "Vocation Match" tool to find religious communities, and a treasure trove of helpful articles. This year's theme: "Pathways for a restless heart." Does that speak to you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 1:1-9; Luke 17:1-6 (491). "And the Apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.'"

Tuesday, Nov 08, 2022A day to vote your values

"When it comes to labor and politics, I am inclined to be sympathetic to the left, but when it comes to the Catholic Church, then I am far to the right." So said Dorothy Day—born this day 125 years ago—voicing the struggle many U.S. Catholics feel on Election Day. Though Day, born in 1897, was a suffragette, arrested for demanding that women get to vote, she never voted in her lifetime once women finally got the right in 1920. Her reasons were complicated. But the U.S. Catholic bishops offer guidance for all who wonder about the worth of their vote, insisting that "participation in political life is a moral obligation."

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 2:1-8, 11-14; Luke 17:7-10 (492). "We have done what we were obliged to do."

Wednesday, Nov 09, 2022Build your vocation steeped in love

For nearly a millennium, the Catholic Church has marked on this day the dedication of the Lateran Basilica, so named for the hill upon which it sits just east of the Colosseum in Rome. The cathedral of the Diocese of Rome, it is the official seat of the pope (the bishop of Rome) and is dedicated to both of the New Testament's two most famous Johns: the Baptist and the Apostle. At this halfway point of National Vocation Awareness Week, consider the far-reaching impact of these servants honored in the Catholic Church's highest-ranking edifice. Let's dedicate ourselves as they did to spreading the Good News of love, and through our own holy vocations attain our heavenly reward!

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA
TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me."

Thursday, Nov 10, 2022Make peace with your vocation

Saint Leo the Great is one of the few popes remembered as the "Great." This accomplished preacher and writer was also such a skilled diplomat that he convinced Attila the Hun to spare Rome from attack in 452 and later kept a plundering Vandal army from burning the city. We recognize Saint Leo during National Vocation Awareness Week, a time to recall that God has called us each by name to love and serve in our own way. Saint Leo used his gifts to uplift Christ. How do you use yours? Sharing God's peace is a good place to start.

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Philemon 7-20; Luke 17:20-25 (494). "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you."

Friday, Nov 11, 2022Holiness cut to fit

Humility and generosity are the key attributes associated with many saints, and fourth-century Saint Martin of Tours is no exception. While on patrol in Gaul as a soldier in the Roman Army, it is said that Martin took pity on a half-naked beggar by cutting his officer's cloak in half and sharing it with the shivering man. The incident is immortalized in Christian art and iconography throughout Europe and became a defining image of what it means to be Christian. Martin took to heart the words of Jesus: "Whatever you did for one of these least of mine, you did for me" (Matt. 25:45). In Martin's honor, extend your compassion beyond your comfort zone today.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 John 4-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). "For this is love, that we walk according to his commandments."

Saturday, Nov 12, 2022Seek unity where possible

For the first thousand years Christianity was one big, mostly happy family. But for a number of reasons the church was divided in the Great Schism of 1054. Saint Josaphat (c.1580-1623) was a Catholic bishop trying to reunite the Eastern Church with Rome. But, alas, he was a little heavy-handed. When he discovered a priest in his diocese was celebrating Mass according to the Byzantine practice, he had him arrested and thrown in jail. This angered a mob of unruly citizens who attacked and violently dispatched Josaphat, tossing his body in a river. We can honor his good intentions today, while perhaps choosing another approach to unity. Pray we unite in those things that matter most.

MEMORIAL OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: 3 John 5-8; Luke 18:1-8 (496). "I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily."
