ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

Letter from Msgr. Frank Lane

Dear Friends in Christ,

I want to greet the people of St. John's and Sacred Heart and introduce myself. I look forward to our journey together to practice our faith and face the difficulties and the opportunities that lie ahead. I was born and raised in Western New York State near Buffalo and attended public schools except for junior high school when I went to Catholic School at the Sisters of Mercy in Plattsburgh, New York.

I came to Ohio to go to college and graduated from Ohio Northern University. I then attended St. Charles seminary for two years and was sent to the University of Innsbruck, Austria to do my theology studies. I was ordained over there and came home to take my first assignment in Chillicothe, Ohio. After a year there, Bishop Carberry reassigned me to teach at St. Charles in both the college and the high school and attend graduate school at Ohio State. I lived at St. Thomas and then Holy Family during those years.

After graduation, I taught at St. Joseph's Academy and then became pastor of St. Anthony for 11 years, during which time I joined the National Guard. After that, I went to Perry County and had five parishes, spent a stint on active duty in the army and returned as chaplain and teacher at Kenyon College.

Bishop Griffin reassigned me to be pastor of St. Andrew parish in Upper Arlington, from there to teacher and Vice-Rector of the Josephinum. In 2002 I became pastor of St. Margaret of Cortona in San Marguerita. I retired from there and was invited by the Archbishop of Cincinnati to come to Mt. St. Mary's Seminary as Spiritual Director. I accepted that invitation and worked in parishes while I was there. Last year, Bishop Fernandes asked me to return to Columbus, my home diocese.

In the conversations about "Real Presence, Real Future," we discussed the situation with St. John the Baptist and Sacred Heart. He asked me if I would be willing to go there as Administrator and I willingly agreed. I am very happy to come and will do all I can to serve the needs of the two parishes. It's a real gift to be able to return to parish ministry and I am grateful to you and to the Bishop for this opportunity.

Have a blessed week!

The Mass is available on St. John's Facebook page or YouTube channel, Saint John the Baptist, Cbus. Go to our website: www.sjbitaliana.com under Livestream Mass.

Altar Guild Announcement: The Altar Guild will be selling entries in the Ohio State 2023 football season pool. All proceeds are used to support the altar needs of our beloved St. John's. In the past the Guild has purchased items such as the altar cloths, banners, priest/deacon vestments, and the new tabernacle. Cost of pool entry is $60.00 a square which covers an entry for all 12 games of the season (in effect $5.00 a game). There will be four, $100.00 winners per game, for the scores at the end of each quarter. Score numbers will be drawn in Sala Hall after our 9:30 a.m. Sunday Mass as soon as the pool is sold out, but no later than the third Sunday of August. Copies of the full score sheet will be distributed to all who sign up. This is a fun way to cheer the Buckeyes during the coming season, while also supporting the needs of our church. If interested in purchasing a square, see Gary Bosco in Sala Hall after any Mass. (Started on July 9.) If paying by check, please make it out to Altar Guild. As an FYI, this pool usually sells out within 4 weeks.

AROUND US

Liturgical Calendar: The month of July is dedicated to The Precious Blood of Jesus. The entire month falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious Resurrection.

The Holy Father's Intentions for the Month of July 2023:

For a Eucharistic Life: We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

Young Catholic Professionals: Looking for a community with a professional focus grounded in Catholic values? Attend a YCP event and join like-minded, mission-driven peers to find God in all things and seek excellence and joy in every area of your life. YCP brings together young workers and seasoned business professionals in a variety of programs to foster Catholic identity, encourage community, and inspire action. The Executive Speaker Series is a free event open to the public in which executives share their career and faith journeys with young professionals, challenging them to "Work in Witness for Christ." Attendees enjoy complimentary drinks and appetizers and have a chance to socialize before and after the evening's presentation. For more information, or to register for future events, please visit www.youngcatholicprofessionals.org.

Sacred Heart Jubilee Year: To commemorate the 350th anniversary of the revelations of the Sacred Heart of Jesus at Paray-le-Monial, a Jubilee Year has been declared, beginning on 27 December 2023, and continuing through 27 June 2025, the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart. The Columbus Diocese will be planning a pilgrimage to France during the Jubilee Year.

The theme of the Jubilee Year is "To return love for love."

2023 Jubilee of Anniversaries: Couples celebrating their 25th, 30th, 35th, 40th, 45th, 50th, 55th, 60th (and every year thereafter) anniversaries in 2023 are invited to the annual Jubilee of Anniversaries in honor of their marriages. Bishop Fernandes will celebrate Mass at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, September 10, at St. John Neumann Church in Sunbury. Registration is now open at <https://columbuscatholic.org/marriage-family/marriage/jubilee>.

Let Nothing Disturb You – St. Teresa of Avila

This prayer reminds us that this earthly life is temporary; everything in this life shall pass, but God is eternal. Pray this prayer for calmness when you feel overwhelmed.

Let nothing disturb you, let nothing frighten you. All things are passing away: God never changes. Patience obtains all things. Whoever has God lacks nothing; God alone suffices.

Today's Gospel: The Gospel is from St. Matthew 13:1-23. Each one of us can look into his own conscience today and examine our relationship with Christianity. Are some of us perhaps, like the seed that fell on the rocky ground? When times are good, we are all for our faith, but when it demands mortification, the curbing of passion, real sacrifices for our neighbor, do we forget our Christian calling then and ignore its precepts? And how does our type of Christianity stand up to the temptations of the world—the desire to get all the enjoyment we can out of this life, licit or illicit, breaking God's commandments weekly or maybe daily? Are we chasing after wealth and power, using all our energies to rise in the world to be above our neighbor by fair or foul means? If the above are our aims in life, our Christianity has been or is being choked out of us. There are millions of saints in heaven today, who had some, if not all, of our present failings. We can be with them one day, provided we do what they did. They repented sincerely and remained God's close friends, until He called them to Himself. May the merciful God give us the grace to imitate them while we yet have time.

– Excerpted from The Sunday Readings
 by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

"It is vital that we sow the seeds of goodness in order to cultivate justice, foster accord, and sustain integration, without growing weary." @Pontifex

Prayer:

O God, who shows the light of Your truth to those who go astray, so that they may return to the right path. Give all who, for the faith they profess are accounted Christians, the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ and to strive after all that does it honor. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen

Sunday, Jul 16, 2023Pause before speaking

Words are deeds, as theologian Peter Kreeft astutely reminds us. When we speak our thoughts into the air, we are doing something. So many words circulate in the machinery of our media that we tend to take them for granted and view them as cheap or even meaningless. But words matter. They take root in our minds and hearts, as well as in the thoughts and feelings of people who receive them from us. Before you utter the response, make the call, or hit the send key, pause to contemplate what impact your words may have on someone else.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 55:10-11; Romans 8:18-23; Matthew 13:1-23 (103). "My word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it."

Monday, Jul 17, 2023Heartfelt holiness

Like any family, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph experienced misunderstandings, disagreements, and hurt feelings within the family unit. Some of those experiences are told in the gospels, but there were surely others we never learned about. The Holy Family is a model for all families in the struggles and joys of family life. There are many devotional prayers to the Holy Family, including a litany and even a devotion to the hearts of the Holy Family. Most Catholics are familiar with the images of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, but perhaps less so with the Chaste Heart of Joseph. Consider adorning your family home with artwork of all three.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 1:8-14, 22; Matthew 10:34-11:1 (389). "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me."

Tuesday, Jul 18, 2023Instituting a better bedside manner

Hospitals in Rome and throughout Europe were abysmal in the 1500s, when Camillus de Lellis was admitted—twice—with an infected leg. Hospital workers were poor, often beggars and prisoners, who showed up mostly for free meals. Some even stole food from patients! Saint Camillus was so disgusted by this treatment that he got up from his bed to provide comfort—and cleanliness—to other patients. Thus his vocation was born, along with the Servants of the Sick, the religious institute Camillus founded after becoming a priest. A great Catholic tradition was likewise born: not just spiritual solace but clean and professional care as well. Visit the Catholic Health Association website to pray for hospital workers.

MEMORIAL OF CAMILLUS DE LELLIS, PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 2:1-15a; Matthew 11:20-24 (390). "She was moved with pity for him."

Wednesday, Jul 19, 2023Mercy me

Our tradition contains a variety of words to describe "missing the mark" when it comes to personal conduct: sin, transgression, and iniquity, a word used hundreds of times in scripture. Iniquity describes willful harming, where we choose to hurt or act with malice. It gets at the character or quality of our intentions. In a sense, our actions are all we really ever own. We carry them with us and we fall short at times. Thankfully, God's mercy is greater even than our iniquity. Examine your conscience, make amends where possible, and call upon the Lord's mercy. Ask God to crown you with kindness and compassion, as today's psalm promises.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 3:1-6, 9-12; Matthew 11:25-27 (391).

"The Lord is kind and merciful. He pardons all your iniquities, he heals all your ills. He redeems your life from destruction, he crowns you with kindness and compassion."

Thursday, Jul 20, 2023Inspiration for a dangerous mission

Today's saint, Apollinaris, was a bishop during the first century of the church, a dangerous time to be a Christian. Roman authorities and others disliked the followers of Jesus for disrupting social norms and threatening a social order that gave Roman emperors God-like authority. Christianity was also a new movement, making it even more untrustworthy. Apollinaris was bishop of Ravenna, Italy, and for that public role he was savagely beaten, later dying of his wounds. His martyrdom inspired early disciples. Who inspires you to live dangerously in faith?

MEMORIAL OF APOLLINARIS, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 3:13-20; Matthew 11:28-30 (392). "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart."

Friday, Jul 21, 2023A beautiful work in progress

God is the creator par excellence and invites all of creation, especially human beings, to share in the gift of creating. God enables us "to be intelligent and free causes in order to complete the work of creation, to perfect its harmony" (Catechism §307). There is a beauty in the incompleteness or "unfinishedness" of creation. Not only does it give us the opportunity to follow God's lead, but, according to distinguished professor and theologian Sister Anne Patrick, S.N.J.M., it reveals a beauty of its own and stirs us to gratitude for creation's patient unfolding. What gifts do you find in your own acts of creating?

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 11:10—12:14; Matthew 12:1-8 (393). "I say to you, something greater than the temple is here."

Saturday, Jul 22, 2023Who do you say she is?

No biblical figure is surrounded by more mystery than Mary Magdalene. Who was she, really? What we know from the texts, says Catholic writer James Carroll, is that she was a leader in the community of Jesus' followers. While the men abandoned Jesus in his hour of need, Mary was one of the women who stayed with him even through the Crucifixion. She was the first person to whom Jesus appeared after his Resurrection and the first to preach that Good News, and her status as an apostle in the early church rivaled even that of Peter. Over time, her status was questioned, her reputation tarnished. Powerful women have contended with such treatment throughout the ages. Mary Magdalene stands as a symbol for gender equity and justice as well as faithful witness.

FEAST OF MARY MAGDALENE, APOSTLE TO THE APOSTLES

TODAY'S READINGS: Song of Songs 3:1-4b or 2 Corinthians 5:14-17; John 20:1-2, 11-18 (603). "On the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb."

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
